FLESHERTON.
The Dominion Day celebration here was a great success. Ideal weather prevailed and an immense throng of interested visitors witnessed the splendid program of sports, which was run off without a hitch. In the forenoon the aquatic sports at Flesher's pond created much fun for the crowd. The 200-yard race for swimmers was won by D. Mathewson, of Pricville. Henry Carrington was second and Robt. Richardson third. In the duck race, Reuben Cargo captured the bird, which evaded its pursuers for some time. Frank Thurston won the tub race, but was closely followed by Harry Frost. The suspended slipper pole over the water were tickler to walk and there were many tumbles before the flag was carried off by Geo. Patton. The sports in the afternoon began on the agricultural grounds with a baseball match between Kimberley and Flesher-ton teams. The latter won by a score of 21 to 20. Gillfillan, of Markdale, was umpire. The speeding was very fine and witnessed with deep interest. In the 2.25 class A. E. Pilmgrim's horse won. J. L. McDonald's 2nd and W. Neeley's 3rd. In the 2.40 trot J. L. McDonald's 1st and J. H. Hunter 2nd and E. O. Cooper 3rd. In the named race T. J. Fisher won 1st, with J. Teece and L. Duckett a tie for 2nd and 3rd, and J. Stafford 4th. In the Committee race, Mark Wilson was 1st and C. Richardson 2nd, Boys' race—R. McAuley, L. Lawrener, Girls' race—Gladys Hazard, Belle Howard, Florence Richardson, Rene Cargo. The tug war between East and West, with captians M. Stewart and W. Boyd, was won by the latter. The concert at night was very successful. The entertainers, Mr. Demille, baritone, and Mr. Spencer, comic, highly pleased the large audience from beginning to end of the program. Miss Moore, of Dundalk, and Miss Mabel Boyd, were with Mrs. Blackburn, rendered by Mrs. M. K. Richardson. Receipts for the day were $442.00. Good music was furnished throughout the day by the home band, assisted by members of Markdale and Dundalk bands. Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Munro, of Detroit, old residents of Flesher-ton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Christine, to Mr. N. Grant Currie, of Detroit, which took place at the home of the bride on July 2. The Methodist Ladies' Aid are making improvements in the parsonage for the reception of the new minister's family, to arrive this week. Rev. Mr. Dudgeon arrived on Saturday and in his inaugural sermon on Sunday morning made a very favorable impression on the congregation. The discourse was based on John 14:8 "Show us the Father and it sufficeeth us." Mr. Dudgeon is a clear and forceful speaker and has a good reputation as pastor and evangelical preacher. The anniversary services in the Presbyterian church on Sunday were very successful, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McVicar, who preached excellent sermons to large congregations. The church was crowded in the evening when service in the Methodist church was withdrawn, and the pastor and his people fraternized with the Presbyterians. Rev. Mr. McVicar, who was called here three months ago, is an energetic pastor, and his work is being much appreciated by his congregation. Master Kendall, the nine year old son of W. J. Boyd, was upset from a hand wagon on the street on Monday and sustained a fracture of the right arm at the elbow which was reduced by Dr. Carter, assisted by Dr. Lane, of Pricville. The Misses Mitchell, Miss Mabel Boyd, and Miss Maud Boyd, chaproned by Mr. and Mrs. Holland, are on a camping holiday at Eugenia. Miss Mary Wilson leaves this week to holiday for a few weeks with her brothers at Toronto and Gravenhurst. Miss Andrews and Miss Long, milliners, are off this week on their holidays. Mr. Russell Currie and Miss Jessie Currie, of Durham, were the guests of the Misses Armstrong on Monday. Among the holiday visitors here last week were Mrs. LeGard, sr. Joe LeGard and friend, Mr. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter LeGard; Will and Ed. Bentham, Mr. Webb, Mr. Weatherspoon, Arthur Ward-robe, Geo. Richardson and Elywin Jamieson, from Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. LeGard, Chicago; Harold Karstedt, Shelburne, and Wilfrid Henry, Orangeville. Mrs. Will Bentham and little son, Mr. and Mrs. Crossley, of Collingwood, were a visitor at W. H. Bunt's on Saturday. Dr. Thos. Henderson, wife and little daughter, of Toronto, arrived on Saturday to holiday for a few weeks here. Mrs. Frank Tait, and two children, of Lucknow, are on a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Richardson. Miss Lynette Hanbury, of Dundalk, spent a few days last week with Mrs. R. H. Moore. Mrs. Jas. Chard visited her parents at Staxner last week. Mrs. Jos. Radley is spending a couple of weeks with friends at Niagara. Miss Lillian Bunt is visiting her aunt in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cullen, of Toronto, paid the former's parents a short visit last week. Mr. Leslie Norris was home on a short visit last week. Mr. R. W. Shaw, of Lion's Head, spent a day last week with his wife and children at W. H. Thurston's.

BLYTH'S CORNERS.
The fine rain on Friday last was much needed, and will help greatly in brightening up the crop prospect. Crops in this section will, with favorable weather conditions, be fairly well up to an average. Fall wheat is excellent, while the hay crop, with very rare exceptions, is decidedly off, and will be easy to stow away. Jimmy McIlwride, jr., had a very narrow escape, from being crushed to death with their big steel roller a few days ago. The team which he was driving ran away, striking the gate post with a terrific force and dropping him in front of the roller. The broken gate-post served to perfection in preventing him from being crushed, and Jimmy was up and none the worse for his thrilling experience, with the exception of a slight scratch on one arm. The harness, whiffletrees, and tongue of the roller were all badly broken. Miss Janet Blyth, head teacher at Virden, Man., Public school. Miss Mary E., of Gorrie, and Miss Elsie, who is teaching in Normanby, are all spending their holiday season at this beautiful old home at the Corners. Mr. Archie Watson, of Detroit, Traverston.

The rains of last week proved a great boon to the spring crops, but hay will not average much over a third of a ton to the acre. Watch hay prices soar. Miss Annie Robertson, of Molesworth, came back with Grandpa Greenwood on Wednesday of last week with her kindred. She returns home on Tuesday. High Constable Cook, and Miss Miller, of Ceylon, were guests at the Cook homestead on Sunday, and took part in Zion Sunday School in the afternoon. Mr. Cook in his brief address to the school recalled incidents of over 50 years ago. Miss Muriel Correll, of Toronto, is a guest at our home this week, coming up by C. P. R. on Saturday. Mr. Will Tufts, of Detroit, who has been with us for the past three weeks, leaves for his home on Tuesday. Miss Myrtle Hunt, of Toronto, and her brother Wilfrid, were the guests of Mrs. J. J. Peart, on Friday. They went on to Durham on Saturday to visit kindred there. The trustee board of S. S. No. 5 erected a handsome new porch at the school last week. It is a neat frame one, resting on a concrete base, and when painted will wonderfully improve the appearance of the old spot. Messrs. Dillon and Cook, of Markdale, are framing the timber for W. J. Cook's big driving house this week. Mr. John McNally is always busy improving his property and adding to its comfort and convenience. Lately he erected a big woodshed and summer kitchen combined. On Saturday he brought home a nobby new top buggy, purchased from the genial A. B. McLellan. Mr. Will Glass, of town, gave a very earnest, interesting sermon in Zion on Sunday. His winsome and popular bride accompanied him out. Sunday, June 29, 1913, will always be a big red letter day to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Blair, because to them was given a son, their first born. Congratulations are being showered on them. The electric storm on Monday night of last week struck in more places in this vicinity than we ever knew a single storm to do before. It hit a fence for J. McNally, peeled and shattered a rough white ash tree near our buildings, splintered a young elm in P. Fogarty's line fence, killed a sheep for John O'Neill, slew 20 ewes and lambs for A. G. Blair that were huddled under a shade tree, struck and shattered a chimney on Wm. Beaton's fine brick home, the bolt going down the stove-pipe and into the kitchen and ripped up some flooring at the feet of Mrs. Beaton and Ena McNally, who were in the home at the time. Mr. Beaton and his sister on the other side of the stove had a miraculous escape. It spent a day or two with Mr. Geo. Robertson, of Molesworth.

accompanying by his winsome young bride, are spending a few days of their honeymoon at the former's parental home in Normanby. To the happy young wedded couple we extend heartiest wishes for a long period of wedded bliss. Knox church, after undergoing extensive and expensive repairs effected by the effects of the big wind-storm of Good Friday, will be reopened on Sunday next, July 13. Special services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Malcolm, of Holstein, at 3 o'clock, p.m., and at 8 o'clock p.m. On the following Monday evening a lawn party will be held when supper will be served, and afterwards a good program will be rendered. A pleasant and enjoyable time may be safely expected, so come, one and all, and "rally round the flag." Mr. Percy Cornish, accompanied by his excellent wife, left some time ago on a visit to the former's parents at Lumsden, Sask. His father, Mr. John Cornish, we regret to report, is very poorly, and had a desire for all the family to meet once more. Mr. and Mrs. P. Cornish are expected home soon again. It was with feelings of gloom and sadness the news was received in this neighborhood of the sudden taking away by death of the late Wm. Brown. Mr. Brown was well and favorably known around this neighborhood for many long years. He was a true type of Irishman in every respect, kind hearted, genial in disposition, etc. To the sorrowing family we extend our sympathy. While driving to the picnic at Gleneden on Monday last, Mr. J. Hoeflin had an unpleasant experience when his spirited driver made a spurt, the lines broke, and the animal ran into the fence, struck a stake, pitched Jake out, ran away and smashed the buggy top, which was only put on new last year. Otherwise, no further damage was done.

about in both the cellar and upper storeys. On the Friday following John Beaton, of the 4th concession, had two yearlings killed. Messrs. W. J. Greenwood and Thos. Glencross took in the big races at Listowel on Tuesday, and it spent a day or two with Mr. Geo. Robertson, of Molesworth.
