HYMENEAL

SWITZER—KILGOUR.

A charming home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. E. deAlva Sutherland, 144 Evanson street, Winnipeg, on Wednesday, June 25, when their niece, Miss Myrtle Kilgour, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Kilgour, Galt, Ontario, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Walker Switzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Switzer, of Ottawa. The officiating clergyman was Rev. John Macleod Sutherland, D.D., of Cando, N. D., uncle of the bride, and Rev. Edgar Whitehouse, of St. James Congregational church, Winnipeg.

Promptly at seven-thirty, the bride, who was given away by her uncle, Dr. Sutherland, entered the drawing room, which was tastefully decorated with pink and white peonies, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Dell Meier, of Moosejaw. The bride looked sweet in a gown of ivory satin, with dainty touches of shadow lace and lovers' knots of pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, her only ornament being the groom's gift, a sunburst of pearls. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna Sutherland, of Cando, N. D., who was gowned in saxe blue crepe de chene, caught with pink rose buds, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Gustave Switzer, of Ottawa, his gift from the groom being a pearl tie pin. During the signing of the register Miss Daisy Spence sang "Oh Promise Me." The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold bar pin set with pearls and olivines; to Miss Spence and Miss McGillivray, unique silver pendants.

During the evening a dainty buffet luncheon was served, the bride's table being centred with pink roses and valley lilies. Miss Alice McEwan, Miss Edythe Elfert, Miss Tena Daly and Miss Georgie Spence, delightfully assisted. Mrs. Margaret Kilgour, the bride's mother, wore a black duchess satin gown with jet trimmings. Mrs. E. deAlva Sutherland was becomingly gowned in silver grey satin with touches of nell rose. Mr. and Mrs. Switzer left on the eleven o'clock train for Vancouver and on their return will reside at the Vansittert apartments. The bride travelled in a smart tailored suit of grey Bedford cord with hat of corresponding shade.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenholme, of Toronto, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Black, last week. Their infant son, of course, was with them.

Miss Alice Lawrence came up from Toronto on Wednesday, to spend a few weeks with her parents, and many friends.

Mrs. Wm. McMeeken, of Toronto, visited friends here for a day or two since our last budget.

Miss Anna Scott has been re-engaged as teacher for another year. Salary, $200.

Mr. Robt. McMeeken had a horse killed by lightning a week ago.

Our picnic was a pleasant affair, and a very successful one, but is now two weeks old, so details would be out of place.

Mr. E. Haas has secured the contract for the stonework of Robt. Mead's barn.

Mr. Tom. Wilson swapped horses a few days ago with a Proton farmer. It was the Bice mare that was so well known and much admired in her day, and though she is gone now, is not forgotten.

Some of our people went to Guelph on Saturday and others to celebrate with their brethren in Hanover. Amongst other sights, they saw a good shower of rain, which we have not had in this neighborhood for some time. Some crops look very good, but hay is very light.

Those who went to put in the cement stable at the rectory in Durham last week found the town folks obliging and courteous—Smith Bros., A. Hunter, J. Snell, and others deserve thanks for their courtesies.

Miss Myrtle Allan, at Mt. Forest, and Wilfrid Barbour at Durham passed their exams successfully and are receiving congratulations.

Another of those interesting events took place on Monday, July 7, the marriage of Mr. J. Moore to Miss Tecia Gordon. The wedding was a quiet one, although a double one, as another young couple, neighbors of the groom, accompanied them to Priceville, where the marriage took place. We have no particulars of the event, but can testify to the esteem in which Mrs. Moore was held in this neighborhood, and extend the best wishes of all to the happy young couple.

In the course of another day Mr. Geo. Lawrence will have his big house, purchased from the Cement Co., placed on its new foundation. It was a long move down off a high bank onto the railroad track, and after leaving the track, across a creek, over fields and up a hill. Mr. Donald McCray had the contract of moving it, George to find the men. Mr. McCray is a level old head, and handled a green gang every day very successfully.
