FLESHERTON

Before leaving Englehardt for Flesherton, Rev. and Mrs. Dudgeon received tangible expressions of goodwill from their congregations, who, in the most kindly manner, expressed appreciation of their successful labor among them and regretted their departure from their midst. Mr. Dudgeon was presented with an address, a purse of money and gold-mounted umbrella, and Mrs. Dudgeon with a beautiful china tea set.

May's travelling moving picture show exhibited in the town had several nights last week, and were 'old, was very good.

Mr. W. J. Blackburn, of Saugeen Junction, had a successful barn raising last week.

The Presbyterian ladies here, who are preparing a missionary box, had a quilting in the school room of the church one afternoon last week and completed two covers.

The opening for a tinsmith here has been filled by Mr. D. McKillop, of M.M.'s, who has started business in the Norris block.

Miss Laura Armstrong, Toronto Normal school student, was successful in the recent examination for third class certificate, and we join her friends in congratulations.

Professor Bates, of McMaster University, Toronto, preached in the Baptist church on Sunday and delivered an able sermon in behalf of Christian education.

The annual meeting of the Upper Flesherton branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held on Friday evening last, a good representation of the executive being present. The financial report showed that the year 1912 had been the best in the history of the branch, the amount from contributions being $71.06, and sales $15.66.

The executive desire to express their gratitude for the efficient work done by the collectors. Arrangements are being made for public meetings in the interests of the society at the various preaching appointments, Flesherton, Ceylon, Vandeur, Eugenia, Mt. Zion and Proton-Station. The officers were re-elected for the year, viz., Pres., T. R. McKenzie; Secretary, Richard Allen; Treasurer and Depository, W. H. Bunt, with whom the society keeps a nice stock of Bibles and Testaments on sale.

Prince Arthur Lodge, A. F. & A. M., had an interesting meeting on Friday evening last, when a turnout of the members of Hiram Lodge, Markdale, paid a fraternal visit and assisted in the work of the evening, which in part consisted of an initiation conducted by Wor. Bro. J. W. Tucker, and officers of Hiram Lodge. In the course of the evening, resolutions of condolence were adopted conveying the sympathy of the Lodge to Bro. Rev. John Wells, of Toronto, and Bro. Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, former members, recently bereft of their wives.

In the recent High school Entrance examination, Principal Holland's class in the school here did well, seven out of nine being successful. The following passed: E. Karstedt, Honors, P. Legard, C. Lever, F. Lever, J. McLaren, F. Parliament, M. Wright.

Mr. J. A. Lever has the cement foundation for his barn completed, and the framers are busy preparing for the raising, which will take place shortly. Mr. T. Sled has also the foundation completed for his new residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Karstedt and children, of Owen Sound, are on a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt. Lou has been an invalid for eight months, having undergone an operation for appendicitis. His friends here are pleased to see him now on the way to recovery.

Upon the advice of Dr. Carter, Master Kendall Boyd, who sustained a bad fracture of the arm a few days ago, was taken to the city on Monday for attention in the hospital.

Word was received here on Monday of the death at St. Catharines, of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, widow of the late John Jones, aged 86 years. The remains will be brought here for burial in the family plot, the funeral taking place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of her son-in-law, C. W. Bellamy. The deceased was born in Ireland, but came to Canada when quite young. About 62 years ago she was married near Toronto to Mr. Jones, and about two years after settled in Artemesia, near Vandeur. Later they lived in this village. Mr. Jones conducted a tannery and boot and shoe business. They moved to Owen Sound, and later to St. Catharines, where Mr. Jones died, ten years ago. One son, James, of Port McNicholl, and two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Bellamy, here, and Miss Bertha, at home, survive.

The adult Bible class in the Presbyterian church has been re-organized, with the pastor, Rev. Mr. McVicar, as teacher. The class meets half an hour before the regular church service each Sunday.
