Lesson IV.—Third Quarter, For July 27, 1913.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Ex. v, 1-14. Memory Verses, 1, 2-Golden Text, Matt. v. 4-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

When Moses and Aaron gathered the elders and Aaron spake the words and id the signs as the Lord commanded the people believed and bowed their heads and worshiped, as they heard that the Lord had visited them and looked upon their affliction. It looked bright, indeed, and deliverance seemed at hand but the Lord's time had not yet fully come, for Israel needed to be PUMPS OF ALL KINDS made quite willing to leave Egypt. Even after they did leave we hear Galvanized and Iron Piping, Brass Brass Lined and Iron Cylinders them longing for the food they enjoyed SHCP OPEN EVERY AFTERNOON there in spite of their slavery.

The message to Pharaoh from the Lord God of Israel by Moses and Aaron drew from him the sneering reply: "Who is the Lord? * * * I know not the Lord; neither will I let Israel go" (verse 2). Then he accused Moses and Aaron of hindering the people in their work and commanded the taskinasters to lay more work upon the laborerslet them gather their own straw, instead of receiving it, and yet turn out the full quantity of bricks (verses 3-9). He also called the words of the Lord Axle Grease and Hoof by Moses "vain words" (verse 9). Thus did Rab-shakeh speak to Hezekiah of the words of the Lord as vain words or words of the lips (II Kings 18-20, The Harnessmater margin). Thus do many wise and scholarly men today speak of the words of the Lord concerning the restoration of FALL TERM OPENS SEPT. 2nd. Israel and the coming of a great deliverer, but in spite of all unbelief "the counsel of the Lord standeth forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations" (Ps. xxxiii, 11).

It was impossible for the children of Israel to turn out as many bricks when they had to gather their own straw; therefore the officers of the children of Best Place in Canada for Superior Israel were beaten because the work was lacking. Then they cried unto Pharaoh and said that the fault lay with the Egyptian taskmasters, who would not supply straw. He replied, "Ye are idle, and that is the reason ye want to go and sacrifice to your Lord," so the officers of Israel saw that there was no hope for them, and they accused Moses and Aaron of being the cause of it all. Then Moses turned to the Lord and pleaded with him, saying: "Lord, wherefore hast Thou so evil entreated this people? Why hast Thou sent me? * * * Neither hast Thou delivered thy people at all" (verses 22,

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, but is long suffering, slow to anger and plenteous in mercy (II Pet. 3-9; Ps. ciii, 8). He has a time for everything, and happy are those who can say, "My times are in Thy hand" (Ps. xxxi, 15). The Lord's reply to Moses was, "Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh, for with a strong hand shall he let them go" (vi, 1). There is something in the name Jehovah which Israel up to this time had not known (vi, 2, 3). It is the greatest name of God in Scripture, being used over 7,000 times. We know but little of the meaning of any of His names, but to me this great name comes with comfort as I think of the great, the mighty God, deemer, a sacrifice for my sins, the dale High school. The reason he One who was and is and is to be, by assigns is the scarcity of houses. the sacrifice of Himself delivering me from the wrath to come and working out His purposes because of His own faithfulness. Some do not, perhaps, know that whenever the word God or Lord is all in capitals the name is always Jehovah. In connection with Ex. vi, 1, I have for at least fifteen years had associated in my mind John vi, 6, "He Himself knew what He would do," and there is great rest in Trains leave Durham at 7.15 a m., and both. May we know more fully the Trains arrive at Durham at 10.30 a,m. great redemption of the Lord and His faithfulness and in faith and patience go quietly on to know Him and to make Him known. Note carefully in chapter vi, 6-8, that the section begins and ends with "I am Jehovah" and includes seven great "I wills," covering the bringing out, the complete deliverance, the making them His people and bringing them into the promised land. He said He would do all because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and because of His own faithfulness. Yet Trains will arrive and depart as fol when Moses told these great things to 3.15 6 25 Lv.
