CORNER CONCERNS. The fine rain of Friday night was much needed. Pastures were completely done, even corn was at a standstill, but things have improved much since.

A young couple driving south along the 2nd concession Sunday, had an unpleasant experience. Their horse, which seemed to have more temper than go, began to cut up. Overturned the buggy, broke the harness, and turned for home. Unfortunately every rig in the neighborhood was away at the funeral and the unfortunate young couple had to return on foot.

Our Garden Party on Tuesday night had about the usual attendance, and as we predicted was excellent in programme and refreshments. Rev. Mr. Hartley was an excellent chairman, and R. J. Ball, M. P., and Mr. Taylor, of Hanover, gave short pithy addresses. Miss Watson, elocutionist of Toronto, gave three pleasing recitals and responded to as many encores. An out door platform at night does not do justice to such a performance as expressions and gestures are not so clearly seen. Little Reta Barbour also did well in her recitals, and the musical part of the program was well supplied by such well-known singers as Mr. William Ramage and daughter, Mr. Austin Ball, of Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. William McFadden, and last and least in stature but not least in musical ability was Reta and Gertrude Lawrence in a duet and the latter in a solo. Miss Bella Lee as a violinist is much appreciated, while the string band consisting of violin, auto harp and organ furnished very pleasing numbers. The proceeds were about $45.00.

Mr. Wm. Andrus raised his fine new barn last week to replace the one destroyed by lightning last summer. The work is being done by Mr. Wm. Haas, and is spoken of as a good job. Messrs. T. Lauder and Wm. Weir acted as captains, the former being victors.

The hand of death with very little warning removed the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden and the sorrowing parents have the sympathy of all in this part. The funeral service on Sunday was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hartley and was very largely attended, many from Zion being in attendance. The remains were interred in Trinity church cemetery.

FLESHERTON. The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute held last week was largely attended, and specially interesting. A good turnout of Pricewise Institute paid a fraternal visit and after the usual business rendered a very pleasing program. Refreshments were served by the ladies here and an enjoyable social time spent.

Rock Mills Baptist church gave a garden party at the residence of Mr. Martin Phillips on Friday evening last which was very successful. There was a large turnout, many going from here, for the evening's pleasure. After various games, a pleasing program was rendered, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Kerr, presiding.

Mrs. William Gollop, a former old resident at Mt. Zion, Artemesia died recently at her late home at Stayner in her 85th year. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church and a very highly esteemed woman. She was a native of Devonshire, England, Canada with her husband, who died about 35 years ago, soon after settling in Artemesia where a number of years were spent, before moving to Stayner. Besides her husband, two sons, Wm. J. of Cookstown, and Thos., of Stayner, and three daughters, Mrs. James Chard, of Flesherton, Mrs. Dast, Toronto, and Mrs. Graham, of Stayner, survive.

Born.—At Weyburn, Sask., on August 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Russell, a daughter, grand-daughter to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Henderson, of this place. Mr. Ez. White, who has been at Regina, Sask., for a few months, is visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Collinson, of Cayton, left last week to spend a couple of months with their sons and daughters in Montana and Saskatchewan, Sask.

Mr. Leslie Norris is home from Toronto, visiting his mother. Mrs. W. Davis visited her daughters in the city recently.

Mr. W. T. McKee, of Toronto, visited his son, J. W., on the 11th last week.

Mr. Dr. McWilliams, of Dundalk, visited Mrs. Dr. Carter a few days last week.

Mr. Harold Mitchell, of the Standard Bank, is holidaying in Toronto this week.

Miss Jennie Blackburn has returned to her home at Mt. Forest after an extended visit with her cousin, Mrs. T. J. Fisher.

Mrs. W. J. Bellamy is visiting relatives in Toronto.

Winslow Kernahan, Lillian Bunt, and Mamie McLoughry, the three students of the High school here who wrote on Junior matriculation examination, were all successful.

In our note last week of the successful pupils in the Entrance to Normal examination we omitted Miss Hazel Allen and Miss Zadie Lawlor. Eleven wrote and all successful.

Miss Ethel Fisher is home from a rest on two weeks' holidays, accompanied by her friend, Miss A. McPherson.

Miss Ada Thompson has returned from a few weeks' visit at Shelburne.

Mr. Ed. Thompson left last week to join his family in Collingwood. Mrs. H. Gaudin, of Heathcote, is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Breen.

Miss Viola Lewis, of Kimberley, is visiting Miss Clinton.

Miss Eilbeck, of New York, is the guest of Miss Maud Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hewson, Miss Lily West, and Mr. Bosworth, of Paris, motored here last week, and are on a camping holiday with Mr. Mark Wilson and family at Eugenia.

Miss Beatrice Thistlewaite has returned from visiting her sister at Brighton.

Mrs. J. Manning left for her home at Brussels on Saturday, after visiting her daughters, Mrs. J. A. Lever and Mrs. F. Mathewson.

Mr. Thos. Lever had a close call on Sunday, when he was severely bruised in the body by one of his horses, which nearly crushed him to death in the stall before being liberated.

On Thursday afternoon last, the residents of Toronto line north and east and west back lines, with a number of visitors, had an enjoyable holiday at a picnic held in councillor Fred Brown's bush. The numerous games were heartily entered into by all.

Miss Hazel Allen, of East Mountain, visited Miss Elva Lever, the beginning of the week.

Rev. J. H. Douglas, of Toronto, supplied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday. The pastor will return from his holidays for next Sabbath.

Mr. Will Buchanan, of Vandeleur, supplied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday evening, and in his first pulpit attempt here his earnest gospel address received close attention. Mr. Buchanan is a promising young man for the ministry.

Rev. Mr. Dudgeon conducted communion service at Eugenia on Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Armstrong has returned from visiting her son at Meaford, and Mrs. Hickling from visiting at the Soo.

Miss Carrie Sullivan is home from Montreal on her vacation.

Mrs. Hanbury and Mrs. Moody, of Dundalk, were visitors at Mrs. R. H. Moore's on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trimble have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruby, to Judge Breen, of Cadillac, Mich. The marriage will take place in September.

Mr. Frank Marcellus, B.S.A., of Guelph, who occasionally visited his brother here, was married on Thursday last to Miss Harriet G. Decker, of Pickering.

MR. J. C. CRANE VICTIM OF GAS EXPLOSION. With his head, face, neck and arms a mass of burns as a result of a gas explosion in his office yesterday forenoon. Mr. J. C. Crane, the well known real estate man, lies in the hospital here in a somewhat critical condition. Mr. Crane had come down to his office above George Spragge's grocery store about eleven o'clock, and although he detected the odor of gas, he was unable to find out from whence it came. About half past eleven he went into his vault to get some papers and as it was dark he struck a match to light the gas jet in the vault. Immediately there was a tremendous explosion which shook the whole building, and Mr. Crane was hurled back, his head and shoulders enveloped in the burning gas. He was not unconscious, however, and was able to crawl out into the hall and call for help. Mr. C. S. Cameron, whose office is on the same floor, and who had heard the report, immediately rushed to the aid of the injured man, whose hat, coat and shirt were all blown off. Mr. Cameron at once pulled off Mr. Crane's burning clothing and extinguished the blaze, while Miss Breen, who had also heard Mr. Crane calling for help, telephoned for Dr. Murray. Doing what he could to relieve Mr. Crane's suffering until the doctor arrived, Mr. Cameron then rushed into Mr. Crane's office, where a brisk fire had started after the papers in the wooden pigeon holes in the vault. He found that the gas jet had been left partly turned on and the gas had evidently escaped until it filled the vault.

When Dr. Murray arrived he found that Mr. Crane had received severe burns. The skin on his face, neck and hands was burned to the raw flesh, while his hair, eyebrows and moustache were burned off. His chest and arms were also blistered and burned. The doctor immediately ordered his removal to the hospital. At present, the doctors are hopeful for his recovery, although he is not yet out of danger.

Mr. Cameron, in speaking to 'The Sun' of the accident, said when he came down to his office about nine o'clock he smelled gas in the hall and he made a search to find out if the jets in his own office were leaking. About eleven, Mr. Crane came in, and about half an hour later, he heard the explosion. At first, he thought it was outside, but on hearing Mr. Crane calling for help, he realized that it must have been in Mr. Crane's office. When Mr. Cameron looked in the vault, the jet was partly turned on and he thinks the jet had been left burning and some one had closed the door. Then, when the oxygen in the air was all exhausted, the gas light had gone out, but the gas still escaped and filled the vault. The moment that Mr. Crane struck the match the whole thing burst into a flame.

The explosion was heard downstairs and in some of the adjoining buildings, although little or no damage was done to Mr. Crane's office.—Owen Sound Sun

Swat the Fly!

It Is the Most Dangerous Animal on Earth!

When bacteriologists inform us that the average fly carries on its body 1,250,000 germs, says Farm Dairying, surely we should feel a just cause for grave alarm.

HOUSEFLIES AS CARRIERS OF DISEASE.

Flies spread tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, summer complaint and fevers of babies by carrying disease from one to another.

Keep everything clean and there will be no flies. Don't let flies have a place to lay their eggs. Keep covered all places where young flies may be hatched. Put screens at windows and doors. Where is dirt there are flies.

The Supercool.

We know the man who cannot swim a stroke, but loves to float. Upon the summer sea and thinks it smart to rock the boat. Though over his untimely grave, Beneath the billows cool, We drop the tribute of a tear, We class him as a fool.

But now that we have learned at last The trick of how to fly And soar above the fleecy clouds And navigate the sky, When far below us spreads the strong Of valley, hill and plain, What shall we call the passenger Who rocks the aeroplane? —Miss Irving in New York Sun.

"Talesman" in English Law.

A talesman, according to English law, is a juror summoned to fill a gap, and formerly, at any rate, this was often done by taking any suitable person who was present in court. "Tales de circumstantibus" ("such of the bystanders") were the first words of the order directing this process. Good Pickwickians may remember that, as only ten special jurors were present on a memorable occasion, Mr. Serjeant Buzfuz "prayed a tales," whereupon two of the common jurymen, one of whom was the unfortunate chemist, were pressed into the service.—London Standard.

A Pertinent Query.

The old gentleman looked Perley in the eye. "Can you support my daughter in the style to which she is accustomed?" he demanded. "No, colonel, I can't," replied Perley, "but let me ask you, sir, could you have done so at my age?"—Harper's Weekly.

The Lure.

"You're wanted at home, father." "Who says so?" "Mother." "Did she say anything else?" "She said if you didn't come at once she'd come and fetch you." "Come on, boy, let's go home."—Fly
