Lesson IX.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 31, 1913.

Text of the Lesson, Ex. xix, 1-6; 18-21-Memory Verses, 5, 6-Golden Text, Heb. xii, 28-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

When the Lord spoke to Moses out of the burning bush at Horeb, the mountain of God, as he kept the flock "Whalebone" Jack McCauley left of Jethro, his father-in-law. He said too to him, "When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt ye shall serve God upon this mountain" (Ex. iii, 1, 2, 12). Now, after about three months, Israel is encamped at the mount of God, and Jethro came to him, bringing Zipporah, his wife, and his two sons, Gershom and Eliezer, the former signifying "a stranger there" and the latter "my God is our help" (margin of xviii, 3, 4). As they communed together of all that God had done for Israel, Jethro said: "Now I know that the Lord is greater than all gods, and he offered a burnt offering and sacrifices to God. Then Aaron came and Jack McCauley stepped out. He all the elders of Israel to eat bread whole day from morning until evening listening to the people's affairs, he said. "Thou wilt surely wear away; · · * this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone" (xviii, 18). And he sugrepeated gested a better way, subject to God's approval, which Moses accepted (xviii, 13-27). Having reached Sinai and Horeb in the third month, Moses went up unto God, and the Lord gave him a message for Israel, which has also a most important heart word for every believer, and first. "I bare you on eagles' wings." With this we must came squaring up. In the name of humanity and Sydenham he want- the process of teaching young eagles to fly. Then in Isa. xl, 31, the secret of flying; then in Luke xvii, 37, the eagle saints caught up to meet the Lord in the air. The words "brought you unto myself" (Ex. xix, 4) give the key to all His dealings with us. for their intention is even, and more and more, to wean us from all people and circumstances unto Himself that we may find our home in God and our all in Himself, living together with Him until some day we shall be ever with the Lord (I Thess. v, 10; iv. 17).

The words "a peculiar treasure unto me above all people" (5) indicate a high calling and privilege which Israel did not begin to appreciate, nor do we. See the repetition of the wonderful words in Deut. vii, 6, and the full realization in Mal. iii, 17, and margin, for only in the kingdom at His coming again shall it be fully seen. Note the transfer of some privileges to the church in Matt. xxi, 43; Tit. ii, 14; I Pet. ii, 9, and may He make us all willing to be set apart wholly for Himself (Ps. iv, 3). We are too apt to say thoughtlessly and hastily, as Israel did, "All that the Lord hath spoken we will do" (verse 8 and chapter xxiv, 8, 7), or as Peter said, not knowing himself or his weakness, "Lord, I am ready to go with Thee, both into prisone who should take axe in hand on and to death" (Luke xxii, 33). We one who should take axe in hand are slow to learn that in us—that is, in are slow to learn that in us—that is, in our flesh—there dwelleth no good thing our flesh—there dwelleth no good thing our flesh—there dwelleth no good thing and that we are not sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves (Rom. vii. 18; II Cor. iii, 5).

The rest of our lesson is a third day The Press (verses 16-21), but a morning story (verses 16-21), but story of thunder and lightning and fire and smoke and earthquake and a voice to Moses. "Speak thou with us and we Red Cross Dysentery Cure will hear, but let not God speak with us lest we die" (xx, 19), to which Moses replied, "Fear not, for God is Rexall Diarrhoea Remedy come to prove you and that His fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not" (xx. 20). Ten times it is written that God spoke to them out of the midst of the fire (Deut. iv, 12, 15, 38, 36; v. 4, 22, 24, 26; ix, 10; x, 4), and it is also written. "Our God is a consuming fire" (Deut. iv. 4). We shall understand this more fully in our next two lessons concerning the words that were spoken out of the midst of the fire, and we shall see the contrast between God speaking out of the midst

God speaking through Moses and not directly to the people is like speakseat.
