THE SOUL OF THE AUTO.

What a pleasure these days, if you have the leisure, to sit down and watch the various autos as they pass by, and study their temperaments, says any more than are two are alike, any more than are two women. Then they glide along more gracefully and silently than in the early stage. The old, cantankerous, peevishness and downright viciousness have gone. But far more than a dull, dumb, driven brute remains. Your enthusiastic motorist will tell you that handling his car is as soul-stirring as holding the reins over a spirited horse. And he is about right that the car is rated inanimate counts for little. There is nothing more alive than a sail boat—or fuller of personal whims that must be observed and met. And much the same sort of wheedling, the same sort of tact, are required to get the best out of an automobile. The motor "she's a lady," unquestionably, and surely not less so on those most infrequent occasions when she exercises her right to the last word, and calmly refuses to budge an inch.

ZAM-BUK PROVED BEST.

Ambulance Brigades Adopt It.

Zam-Buk has now been selected as the balm to be carried by the members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. This is further proof of its superiority.

Mr. G. W. Pyatt, of 15 Southview Avenue, Toronto, Superintendent of the Riverdale Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, writes: "Both in personal use and in first-aid work I have proved Zam-Buk to be of great value. I have used it for the past five years, and do not believe there is any other balm to come up to it."

Mr. Geo. H. Westmore, of 127 Yonge street, Toronto, Divisional Superintendent of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, also writes: "I am pleased to report that the members of this Brigade use Zam-Buk when on public duty, and find it very useful. It is a wonderful healer. Personally, I constantly use Zam-Buk in my calling as a chiropodist, and find it very helpful in healing sore feet, and as a dressing for corns and bunions after treatment and extraction."

Surely a balm that is worthy of a place in the wallet of an ambulance officer should find a place in your home! You may not require it to-day or next week, but as accidents don't give warning, be prepared. Zam-Buk is compounded on the latest scientific lines. It is at the same time soothing, healing and antiseptic; keeps good. Zam-Buk is a sure cure for skin diseases, eczema, piles, old sores, cuts, burns, poisoned wounds, ringworm, abscesses, sprains, scalds, boils, ulcers, blood-poison, etc. 50 cents at all druggists and stores. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. There is nothing "Just as good."

WHEN IS A MAN DRUNK?

The question often arises at cases against Indian listers or in local option cases, as to whether the accused was really drunk. Some experts believe that if a man is able to walk he is sober. Others say that if he can count his change he is all right. Others more tolerant still have the idea that if it is possible for the merry-go-round to move an eyelash or a finger he is not drunk. A former police judge in Washington, on the other hand, says, "When a man takes one drink, he is that much drunk."

MEAFORD BRICK COMPANY IS SUED FOR DAMAGES.

An action for $50,000 was entered at Osgoode Hall last week by J. O. Sharp, against the Meaford Brick Co. Mr. Sharp, who is a former manager of the company, claims that he had a three-year contract with them. Of the amount claimed, $11,500 is for salary, $17,000 for percentage, and the balance damages to his business reputation.

PRICEVILLE.

For some time this noted place was not heard from; not that the residents changed their ideas that some other place was better, and left. No! they are all here yet and doing as well as they can, everyone attending to his or her duties. So we take the blame for not reporting for some time back.

The heat of summer, we presume, is past, and the drizzly, cold fall will be on in a few weeks and then the necessary preparations for winter use must be looked after.

The busy season for threshing is on, and till 7 o'clock in the morning and 7 in the evening will make a good long day. Two or three moves will be made in that time, as the general run is from three to six hours' work in each barn, with very few exceptions, who may have 8 or 10 hours. Colin McLean threshed for his cousin, Colin McLean. It is said 700 bushels of oats were threshed after supper, which would be after 4:30 o'clock in the evening. We notice the Traverston writer boasts of threshing six bushels a minute where he attended last week. He didn't say he was attending boxes, or we might put it down for a fact, but we are going to tell him that some years ago, when everybody was younger than they are to-day, that we attended boxes for an old horse-power machine owned by Jim McDougall and Bob Fisher, and while testing their ability, with Jim McDougall at the feed board, and the proprietor timing us with his watch, and the test was 7 big bushels a minute. Now, Mr. Traverston this is a fact, and if doubted, ask Donald McDonald, teacher, whose grain it was, and he will vouch for the correctness of the statement. But we may add that the oats were an extra good crop.

The water in McLeod's mill pond is very low, and afforded opportunity to fix the dam at the bottom. Our mail carrier, Mr. Shortreed, makes his regular rounds, and is attending to his duties well. Jack Livingston is running on Artemesia side up the south line and down the old Durham road, Artemesia, while Dan McLachlin takes down Pomona line and up concessions 2 and 3, N.D.R., from Thos. Davis' to the town line. A great convenience is bestowed on all getting mail at their gates. Miss McAulay's sale in this town on Friday, the 12th, was fairly well patronized.

We notice a lot of corn standing yet, but we see it is somewhat singed with frost. So is buckwheat, and the sooner those two parts of the harvest are attended to the better. Arch McQuaig has 17 acres of corn looking well. We notice that Thaw, by all appearances, will be relieved from suffering the penalty of the law. If it had been a poor man who committed the deed, his bones would have been rotting in the ground years ago.

A few from here took in the late exhibition in Toronto, and probably they will enjoy themselves at our big annual show just as much. Those that were away on their holidays are all back, or will be in a few days. Miss Ada McLean, of Toronto, spent some weeks with friends at Top Cliff and Durham. Miss Sara McKinnon, of Toronto, who spent a couple of weeks at her old home on the south line, returned Monday, the 15th inst. Mr. Dan McLean, merchant, of this town, lost a valuable horse lately, by running against a cold, and breaking its neck. Cold, east winds, this Monday morning, September 15.

There died at her residence near Stone's settlement, Artemesia, on the 14th inst., Mrs. McLeod, relict of the late John McLeod, aged about 75 years. The funeral took place to Priceville cemetery on Tuesday, the 16th. Mrs. McLeod was a woman who was loved by all who formed her acquaintance. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church here. Rev. Mr. Matheson, her pastor, officiated at her funeral.

USELESS EXTRAVAGANCE. A patched shoe, a coarse jacket, a cheap garment that you can afford are admirable. Costly clothing for which you are in debt to the merchant, the dress-maker and the tailor, is a badge of sham in character. The boy or man, girl or woman, who lives beyond his or her income, and is always dragging a chain of debt, is pitifully weak. Fortunately these are days when, by the exercise of good judgment and economy, people may dress well at comparatively small expense. Children should acquire a habit of caring for their clothes, of folding them neatly when they take them off, or removing spots and stains and of so using their every day garments that they will look neat as long as they last. Vanity is a small, and weak sort of fault, not worthy of a sensible person, but decent self-respect is a thing to cultivate. Meanwhile, there is no harm in a bright ribbon, nor in a pretty gown or a becoming tie, but we need not emulate our ancestors who were always snubbing their juniors lest they become self-conceited.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

are just the right medicine for the children. When they are constipated—when their kidneys are out of order—when over-indulgence in some favorite food gives them indigestion—Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills will quickly and surely put them right. Purely vegetable, they neither sicken, weaken or gripe, like harsh purgatives. Guard your children's health by always keeping a box of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills in the house. They

ROOM FOR WEDDING REFORM.

The Ridgetown Dominion declares there is room for wedding reform in this province. At the time the average young couple start out on life's journey they need every dollar, yet the wedding is made a most costly affair, for not only the bride's family but for the young husband who is called upon to provide a suitable home for the bride and to assume constantly increasing burdens. Why not, asks the Dominion, have a simple, quiet wedding, and let him keep in his pocket the money that is simply thrown away in an attempt to follow the custom of what is called "Society." A suitable present is in order, but why make the "happy man" dip down into a pocket none too heavy for expensive presents for the bridesmaid, the maids and matrons of honor, the organist, the soloist, the best man, the ushers, and everybody who plays a part in the interesting drama. All this seems very foolish and unnecessary.
