* IRWIN &amp; Ivers and Proprietors.

DURHAM, DECEMBER 25, 1913.

THE PARTING OF THE WAYS

A recent issue of the Toronto Star reports a man buying a farm near Chesley because Chesley had a High school. There is no doubt about it, people nowadays of all classes, prefer to locate in or near the towns with the best educational facilities.

If Durham wishes to get rid of its higher educational advantages it will lose not only the 90 or more High school students, but also all chance for an influx of population that would naturally prefer a High school town. If we get rid of the High school, our educational standing and our educational prestige, over less favored towns are sure to be lessened and our own boys and girls who have sufficient ambition to scale the educational ladder will be forced to go elsewhere to the benefit of the school town.

In view of the vote to be taken at the municipal election on the High School By-law in January, we hope that all eligible voters will give the matter their most serious and careful consideration, and not show an indifference to the town's welfare by marking a ballot that will retard the town's educational growth.

We are at the parting of the ways. Our schools have been improving for years; to vote out the High school will be a downward tumble.

A poor man's child has as much brains as a rich man's child, and often more, and it isn't right to deprive the poor man's child of brain development by taking away the High school privileges.

A good High school will increase population by bringing in a good class of citizens who are interested in the education of their children; the want of a High school will drive good citizens to other places that are better favored educationally. A High school is not only an intellectual but a financial benefit to a town. By all means let us hold what we have and get more.

Many young people have gone out from this town, and are doing well, their success being due in a large measure to the excellence of our schools. By all means let us keep on progressing. We are at the parting of the ways.

A poor man can better afford to pay a few dollars a year extra than to deny his children the benefits of a good education. A rich man can afford to have his children educated elsewhere, whereas the poor man's child often possessed of better intellectual equipment, will be deprived of the privilege. Every poor man should vote for a High school. And the most of us are in the poor man's class.

The rich man, from selfishness, meanness or indifference, may vote against the High school. The poor man should vote for it from selfishness, if he has no higher motive. The poor man has just as good a right to be selfish in securing a cheap way to educate his children as the rich man has in denying him that right, to save a few dollars on his own taxes. Every poor man should vote for a High school, and every rich man should vote the same way.

THE HON ROBERT ROGERS

All the insults hurled against the Hon. Robert Rogers by the Liberal press had the effect of increasing Morrison's majority in the by-election contest held a week ago last Saturday in Macdonald, Manitoba. When the whole of the party forces are levelled against one man, it is strong evidence that the slandered man is about all right in his opinions. If we take the Liberal press as the basis of our judgment on "Bob" Rogers' political merits we'll have to come to the conclusion that he's a very bad man. The Conservative press will show him up as a fairly honorable citizen. It may be that his own party gives him too good a record. One thing is certain, that

COULD NOT EAT— FAILING FAST

Captain On Great Lakes Restored To Health By "Fruit-a-lives"

For thirty years, Captain Swan followed the Great Lakes. He has now retired and lives at Port Burwell, where he is well known and highly esteemed.

H. SWAN, ESQ.

PORT BURWELL, ONT., May 8th, 1913.

"A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by Constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years, I have taken 'Fruit-a-lives' and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that 'Fruit-a-lives' have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking 'Fruit-a-lives' according to directions, any person with dyspepsia will get benefit."

H. SWAN

"Fruit-a-lives" are sold by all dealers at 50¢ a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size 25¢, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

A man is fairly good at least when he comes in for a lot of adverse opposition criticism. It has always been so, and is likely to remain so.

THE CHOIR CONCERT

The Methodist choir concert held on Thursday night was a brilliant musical success and was listened to attentively from first to last by a highly appreciative audience.

Miss Rita Irwin is the organist of the church and the recognized musical director of the choir, and being the daughter of Ye Editor, we are handicapped to some extent from saying as much as we might say under different circumstances. We believe, however, that few local programs in this community have been better received and more fully appreciated.

A good leader is necessary to the success of any undertaking, but in this case not only the leader but every member of the choir is deserving of the highest praise for the excellence of the program and the efficient manner in which every number was presented.

To this we must add a word of praise to the audience for their excellent attention, which must ever be regarded as an important factor in the success of a concert from the throne at the opening of parliament next month.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the Surrogate Court of the County of Wellington.

In the matter of the estate of Mary McLean Hunter, late of the City of Guelph, in the County of Wellington, widow, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to Ontario Statutes 1911, Cap. 26, Sec. 55, that all persons having claims against the estate of the said Mary McLean Hunter, who died on or about the 14th day of May, A. D. 1912 are required to send by post, prepaid or otherwise, to J. P. Telford of the Town of Durham, Solicitor for the administrators, on or before the 15th day of January, 1914, their names, addressed and descriptions and a full statement of nature of their claims and the held by them, duly certified, and that after the said day the administrators will proceed to distribute the assets of the estate among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice.

Dated the 24th day of December, A. D. 1913.

The Toronto General Trusts Corporation, Administrators, by their Solicitor, J. P. Telford.

The soloists never appeared to better advantage and every one did well. Miss Mabel Latimer excelled herself in "Pilgrims of the Night," and nothing could be sweeter than "O Little Babe of Bethlehem," as sung by Mrs. Miss Barclay, was a well-rendered, classical number, and few city

"Nazareth" as it was presented by Mr. Giles. To do justice to the program is beyond our descriptive ability, and time and space forbid a personal reference to each individual performer. If there was any weakness at all, the weakness was in the organ.

The proceeds amounted to $53.

THE MUNICIPAL POT

The municipal pot has hardly commenced to simmer, and whether nomination will bring out any hot stuff or not is still hard to predict.

The question is occasionally asked as to the probable personnel of the board for 1914. We are not in a position to give a positive answer.

We are under the impression that Mr. Calder will again stand for the re-election, and although some small effort has been made to get a man to oppose him there is no positive information to be given out, and it isn't likely there will be anything definite until after next Monday night, when a whole group of candidates, good, bad and indifferent will be nominated for the honors.

It should be the desire of every good citizen to elect good men to handle the finances of the town.

Too often, we regret to say, the nomination of municipal candidates, and the subsequent voting, are not considered with sufficient seriousness. Often a self-constituted aspirant to office is altogether unworthy of support, yet the most veritable nonentity, put
