FLESHERTON

Hyland-Armstrong. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, February 2 at 1:30 when their youngest daughter Laura Adelaide, was married to Mr. Herman Masson, Hyland B. A. Sec. of Toronto, the Rev. James Dudgeon officiating. The bride, who was unattended was given away by her father and wore her travelling suit of bronze brown brocade, with bodice of brown chiffon, embroidered with gold, a small rose colored veil, and corsage bouque of violets and rose buds, and also wore a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom.

The wedding march was played by her sister, Miss Lillian Armstrong. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room under a canopy of smilax and carnations. The library was decorated with daffodils and the drawing room was done in pink and cream roses and smilax. After the congratulatory breakfast and the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hyland left on the afternoon train for their home in New York, going via Buffalo, and Detroit. The guests from out of town were—Mrs. and Miss Hyland, mother and sister of the groom, and Miss Vera Glenn, all of Toronto; Colonel E. F. Armstrong, of Cobalt; and Miss E. Limin, of Durham.

The drama, "The Minister's Bride," was successfully given by Markdale talent on Wednesday evening of last week. Notwithstanding wheeling over rough roads there was a good turnout, many coming a considerable distance to see the play, a synopsis of which was given at the beginning by Rev. Mr. McVicar. The large audience, which was comfortably seated in the high school, auditorium, was repeatedly convulsed with laughter at the humorous production which was very creditably put in by Mrs. Dr. Brown and her amateur actors. Nearly all took their parts well, but some of the characters were specially well rendered. Miss McDougall who visited the widow with her eighteen children to have them baptized, the young couple, who after ten years courtship called to get married; Mr. Crabbe, the comic and his wife; Mrs. Sharpe, with her curt retorts, and some others were all taking characters. The young minister and his bride, who were a fine looking couple, had a difficult time to play, receiving for the first time in their new home their numerous, criticizing parishioners. In one of the acts Mrs. Brown sang Mother Machree in a very pleasing manner. The play closed with a short program of solos, readings, etc., in which nearly all took part. The stage settings were quaint and fitting to the drama. The proceeds were $63.00.

Mr. T. A. Blakely got a cold bath at the planing mill a few days ago. While engaged in clearing away ice at the mill race, he went headlong into the rushing water, and was submerged long enough to make him feel it was all up with him before he got from his perilous position. T. A. says the very dip and warming up he got reaching home had the good effect of curing a bad cold.

Mr. W. A. Nursey, Supt. of public libraries, paid a visit to the library here on Tuesday of last week and gave an address in the town hall in the evening. We viewed with considerable interest the sun eclipse last week, which, though there was some snow in the air could be seen most of the time very well here. At a meeting of the executive of the Methodist Sunday school a few evenings ago, Mr. H. S. White was elected superintendent, to fill the vacancy made by the removal of Mr. Bunt.

Miss Holmes gave the Methodist Young People's Society and the Presbyterian Guild each a treat last week, with an instructive and deeply interesting paper on Mrs. Nellie McClung. Miss Marygrove Atheson, one of the High School students, gave a splendidly rendered reading from Sewing Seeds in Danny, which was appropos. At the annual election of officers of the County, Flesherton C. O. F., the following were elected:—C. R. Geo. White; V. C. R. Silas Shunk; F. S. S. J. Bowler; R. C. H. Carrington; Chap. Rev. J. Dudgeon; Treas. Fred Mathewson; S. B. John Boyce; J. B. W. Hawkin; S. W. B. White; J. W. Dave Adams; Physician, Dr. Bibby.

The officers elected in Flesherton Council, C. O. F., for the current year, are:—Chief, Councilor, T. A. Blakely; Recorder, Mrs. L. A. Fisher; Assistant Rec., Mrs. W. P. Crossley; Treas., Mrs. L. A. Fisher; Warden, Mrs. D. McTavish; Sec. Claudy Elkins; Prelate, Mrs. M. McDonald; Trustees, Herb Smith and Claudy Elkins; Auditors, T. A. Blakely and W. Trimble. Reeve McTavish's family who were all together over the week end, had a family picture taken on Monday.

Miss McWilliams, of Dundalk, visited a day last week with Mrs. Carter, who has been confined to the house for a short time. Mr. Jas. White, of Chatsworth, was home over the week end. Mr. G. Cattle, of Sulton, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Karstedt. Dr. Bibby was called again to Flesherton on Thursday last to attend the funeral of his father, who had been for many years a merchant in that place, and an official of the Methodist church.

Another of our young men to enlist is Mr. Cliff Blakely, who is giving up his business here for his king and country and goes this week to Owen Sound to become a member of the Grey Battalion. P. E. Fred McTavish came home from Owen Sound hospital on Saturday for a short visit. Fred has made a remarkable recovery and says he will return soon to his former position in the ranks. His friends are pleased to see him so safely over his injuries. Mr. Robert Richardson, Toronto line, is reported ill with pneumonia. Mr. Chas. Stewart got a nasty blow and cut in the face last week from a binding pole on the wagon with which he was hauling lumber, in Owen Sound. Mr. Chas. McTavish, who visited his parents here, left on Monday for his home at Regina. Mr. H. Lowick, who is visiting here from the west, took in the soldiers excursion to Durham on Friday, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Agnes Henderson, and Miss Olive Henry. Mr. Lowick was born in Durham, and commemorated this visit investing in a $550 buffalo robe, which indicates the scarcity and high value now of the bison pelts. Master Kendall Boyd goes to Toronto this week to take his exam in music. Ptes. Geo. Patton, and Harmon Hales, were home from Owen Sound over the week end and Pte. Norman McDonald visited his uncle Mr. Mark Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstadt returned some days ago from their visit to Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

TRAVERTON

'Tis fun to hear the February winds howl. Teacher W. R. Wallace visited the parental home in Normanby over the week end to bid his brother James goodbye, as the latter joins the 14th Grey Battalion on Monday.

Lorne McNally left on Friday last for Stratford to enter the employ of the G. T. R. as fireman. Lorne has had a desire for years for railroad life and being gifted with plenty of muscle and natural mechanical talents, will soon be promoted.

Ivan Edwards, our third eldest, left mid Monday's storm to enlist in Owen Sound, provided he is successful in passing the medical examination. He isn't very husky in size, but there is plenty of spunk in him. The year 1916 will see weddings galore in old Glenelg. Several are to take place soon and some are of considerable interest to a wide circle.

This old township looks with pride and pleasure on the coming union on Wednesday of Mr. Percy Hunt and Miss Maggie May Arrow's union. Both were born and grew up in this vicinity and are held in highest esteem. Percy has prospered in the west and is being heartily congratulated on winning a maiden. This whole community unites in wishing them every joy and prosperity.

We had the ill luck of losing a valuable, ten year old mare on Thursday evening of last week, as her mate, in playful mood broke her hind leg in the barnyard. There is nothing else to do but end her sufferings by a rifle ball. Polly wasn't very big but she was game every time and a nice driver to boot. Oh, yes, farming isn't all sunshine.

A goodly number attended the big Recruiting Demonstration in Durham on Friday last and we'll venture to say seldom have they been more closely packed in a building. We congratulate the promoters on its great success, and consider most of the speakers were timely in their utterances, but we'd like to give the Bruce man a pointer or two on what would be more appropriate to speak before an audience of many nationalities. Reeve Catton of Durham, won many complimentary remarks, and so did Mr. Wm. Ramage for his song, "Tommy Atkins." The tact and pleasantry of the chairman added much to the success of the meeting.

The February meeting of our council fathers is always a happy one. Though cold without, it is always cosy within the hall and the geniality and companionship of the officials, coupled with the clerk's sunny humor and strong pot of tea, leaves most pleasant memories. The auditors found treasurer Edge's books in good shape, and in presenting their report, congratulated the members on the good financial standing of the township and the reeve on being elected chairman of the finance committee at the county parliament. The appointment is significant.

We are pleased to report Mrs. Wm. Timmins as recovering from her recent severe illness.

BUNESSAN

Mr. Charles McArthur, who has been very sick the past couple of weeks, is on the mend we are glad to relate. Miss Eliza McCormick, of Castor, Alberta, who has been visiting this winter at her sister's in Walkerton, called on old neighbors in this burg last week.

Mr. Wm. Edwards had the misfortune to lose a colt on Sunday. Miss Katie McFarlane went to Toronto a couple of weeks ago, and expects to remain for some time.

Mrs. Rieps, of Sask., Mrs. Sutherland, of Stratford, and Mrs. Anderson, of Niagara Falls, are at present visiting her sick father, Mr. C. McArthur.

A snow storm is raging to-day. Monday, the worst this winter, but as we need the snow we must not complain. Our mail courier failed to make his rounds.

Miss Winnie Bennie is getting along fairly after her severe illness. Wedding bells are ringing.

POLITICAL CATCHWORDS

Theodore Roosevelt's designation of Mr. Wilson as a Byzantine logothete may turn out to be another addition to the vocabulary of the man on the street. It has not, to be sure, the quick and easy applicability of hyphenated American and big stick, but it may take its place beside Cleveland's innocuous desuetude. If it really takes hold it will do President Wilson more damage politically than his re-marriage.

For it is these phrases, and not the academic arguments, however nicely phrased, that convince a democracy. Any one who wants wealth or power in the United States must perforce can something. It holds good from music to phrases, and, although reformers like B.L.T. succeeded in isolating a few and immuring them in jars, there seems to be plenty for general use. Caned phrases are, for that matter, used almost exclusively. Any one who wants to be articulate beyond a small circle of illuminati must embalm his ideas in this fashion. It is thought dispensed in candied pills. The allopath in ideas does not get very far.—The Tribune, Chicago.

Of course Germany has won a lot of things, but the trouble is she somehow can't get time to enjoy them.—Chicago Herald.
