

147th Grey County Battalion is Now 825 Strong

COMPLETE LIST OF OFFICERS AND MEN

From Every Part of Grey County Men Have Responded to the Call of King and Country. ---Grey Battalion a Thoroughly Representative Body.

A feature of this issue of The Chronicle is the publication of a complete list of all the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the 147th Grey Overseas Battalion who are now in training at Owen Sound. The list should be of special interest to the people of the county of Grey for the men of the Battalion are drawn from every municipality within the county and there is not a resident of Grey who does not personally know many of the gallant lads whose names appear on the roll. From every part of the county the men whose names are given herewith have flocked to the colors, and a look over the list will show that among both officers and men, the battalion is thoroughly representative of the county. The commanding officer himself, Lieut.-Col. McFarland, is a native of the county, having been born in the town of Markdale, which is just about in the centre of Grey County. The second in command of the battalion, Major Eaton, is a native of Owen Sound and so is Major Fleming, both these officers having first seen the light of day in the county town. While a few of the men are from outside points and have joined the battalion here, the entire unit as recruited so far, is entirely a Grey County organization.

It will be noticed that "A" and "B" companies are recruited largely from Owen Sound and the northern part of the county, while "C" company is representative of the south of the county. "D" company has not been organized yet but it will likely comprise the detached platoon which is now in training in Meaford together with all the recruits who enlist from now until the battalion has reached full strength. The men are drawn from almost every walk of life and include lawyers, ministers, farmers, civil engineers, clerks, fishermen, teamsters, laborers, students, book-keepers and practically every other occupation one has a mind to mention. Although the vocations of the men in the battalion vary greatly in civil life, in the cause in which they are now enlisted, they are animated by but one spirit and banded together with but one purpose, that of defending their freedom and their country's freedom to the last drop of their blood and crushing the power that has set out to dominate the world. A finer body of men has never been gathered together in Canada and when the test comes, these men of Grey will do credit and honor to their country and to the county from which they have come. The list should be preserved, as it will prove valuable for reference purposes during the coming months.
