SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IX.—First Quarter, For Feb. 27, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts vi, 1-7—Memory Verses, 2, 3—Golden Text, Gal. vi, 2—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Increase of numbers, even in ordinary church membership, does not always tend to increase or even continuance of peace, especially if it means pleasing more people, as is often the case, though it should not be so. Pleasing people is not the business of the preacher or the session or the vestry or the committee; not pleasing men, but God, like the apostles in the last lesson. In our lesson, while the number of the disciples was multiplied, troubles multiplied also, for some were neglected or felt that they were in the daily ministrations. Today some people are not happy if they think the pastor seems to neglect them in his pastoral calls or in not noticing them after church or on the street, and no committee can rectify this.

The twelve decided, wisely or unwisely, certainly for their own comfort, that they could not attend to this business of serving tables, but must continue to give themselves to prayer and Bible study and teaching the Word. When compared with some other lines of service that of prayer and teaching would be to many a delightful preference, but ordinary service must be attended to also and often requires more grace. The preacher's wife may need more grace and patience for the housekeeping than he does for the preaching, but any kind of service needs a special anointing of the Holy Spirit.

A committee of seven Spirit filled men of honest report was chosen for this special ministry, the first two of whom we shall become better acquainted with as we go on in our studies. Stephen, the first of the seven, occupies the prominent place in this chapter and the next, while Philip is the most prominent in chapter viii. We do not hear of Peter again until chapter viii, 14, and that is the last mention of John in the Acts except in xii, 2, where he is mentioned as the brother of James, who was killed with the sword. It is possible that some others may have wished that they had been among those chosen as apostles, but here are two of seven seemingly ordinary men honored above some of the apostles. It is well to remember that the Spirit gives to every one severally as He will and to be content to fill any place be its service small or great.

It is written of Stephen that he was a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, full of faith and power; that he did great wonders and miracles among the people, and they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake (verses 5, 8, 10); also that by the word of God the number of the disciples in Jerusalem multiplied greatly, and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith (verse 7). In chapter v, 24, we heard the high priest and others wondering where unto this movement would grow, and we still see it growing even unto this our day, but it does look as if we had now come almost to the completion of the growth of His body, the church. The one thing to do is to be full of faith and the power of the Spirit and faithfully and fearlessly witness unto Him and His salvation and His coming again until we are called out of the body or up in the air to meet Him. The power of Stephen in overcoming those who disputed with him (verse 10) was in accordance with our Lord's assurance in Luke xxi, 15, "I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist."

This and similar assurances, such as Ex. iv, 12; Jer. i, 7-9; John xiv, 13, 14; xv, 7, are all for us today if we will stand for Him as Stephen did, for His eyes are still looking for hearts that are whole toward Him, that He may hold strongly with them (I Chron. xvi, 9, margin). If we stand for Him and with Him, as Peter and John and Stephen did, we must expect to know something of the hatred of the adversary as they did, for we cannot know the power of His resurrection without knowing also the fellowship of His sufferings (Phil. iii, 10). Those who could not gainsay nor resist the truth of God in the power of the Spirit by the mouth of Stephen could hire men to falsely accuse Stephen and make him out a liar and a dangerous man to be about.

That is one of the wiles of the devil which he has practiced so long that he is very skillful in it. He tried it even upon our Lord Himself, and we cannot hope to escape, for as the Lord Jesus was persecuted, so must His followers expect to be (John xv, 20). To these false accusations before the council we do not read that Stephen made any reply (verses 11-14). Like David and like the Lord Jesus, he was dumb before them (Ps. xxxviii, 13, 14; 1, 2; Matt. xxvi, 62; xxvii, 12, 14). It is a great victory when one can keep his mouth and his tongue at such a time or at any time (Prov. xxi, 25). Although Stephen was outwardly in the presence of the council, his heart was in the presence of God, and it was seen in his face (verse 15). God was watching over His word and blessing it to the salvation of many, including a great company of the priests.

FLESHERTON

Major E. K. Richardson, M. D. of Toronto, who some time ago offered himself for overseas service either as a medical or artillery officer, was about two weeks ago authorized by General Logie to organize and take charge of a new battery at once, with his newly chosen officers. Recruiting was begun, and in a little over a week upwards of 240 men had offered themselves, being about 100 over strength. The number required were selected from the best of the men and are reported engaging in their work with great enthusiasm, already taking a good lead on the three older batteries. The new battery is known as the 48th Depot Battery and will train at Exhibition Camp, Toronto, probably till next fall, when Major Richardson expects to go with his battery. The Major, who is the well-known son of Mr. M. K. Richardson, of this place, has been in medical practice in the city for a number of years, but will have to give it up for the present.

At the funeral service of the late Mrs. Christoe in the Methodist church last week, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, improved the occasion with an excellent sermon from the appropriate text; "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in its season."—Job, 5, 26. "The blessedness of a ripe life," was the theme of the sermon which concluded with fitting application to the life of the aged Christian lady and member of the church who had passed away. Dr. Murray, R. G. Holland, and H. Sullivan, sang, "Crossing the Bar" and "Old Jordan's waves I do not fear." The pulpit and pew of the deceased was appropriately draped, and floral tributes were given by the Methodist and Presbyterian ladies. The pall-bearers were: John Breen, Thomas Grainger, R. J. Sproule, T. A. Blakely, Geo. Mitchell, and Robert Waller.

Dr. Murray, R. G. Holland and H. Sullivan, the popular trio, sang at a recruiting meeting at Kimberly on Tuesday evening of last week. The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porteous' little 7 year old son, took place to Salem cemetery on Tuesday of last week. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. McVicar.

Mrs. A. F. Wyville, who has been ill for a week with grippe and appendicitis, is now reported to be improving. Her sister, Miss V. Loucks, who also had grippe, is on the mend.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Malcolm Ferguson and daughter, who have been recently quite ill, but thought to be improving, have developed typhoid fever symptoms.

Rev. L. W. and Mrs. Thom, who came with the remains of the latter's mother, spent a few days with their old friends before returning to their home at Midhurst. Mr. and Mrs. Thom have a warm place in the hearts of their old friends here.

Mr. Frank Duncan went to Toronto on Monday to attend the Hardware Association meeting.

Rev. R. C. Kerr, of the Grey Battalion, is spending a week in this vicinity recruiting.

Mr. Geo. Richardson is spending this week in the city.

Notwithstanding the storm a number attended the Red Cross tea at Mr. Thos. Henry's and over $3.00 was received.

At the Up and Doing club's 15c. tea here on Saturday afternoon, over $10.00 were realized.

The Young People's Society in the Methodist church, paid the Epworth League at Inistogie a fraternal visit last week and supplied the program for the evening assisted by Rev. Mr. McVicar, who gave an address.

'ARETHUSA' STRUCK A MINE

The famous light cruiser, the "Saucy" Arethusa, has been wrecked by a mine. The following statement is given out by the Admiralty:—

"His Majesty's ship, Arethusa, commanded by Commodore Reginald Y. Tyrwhitt, C. B., struck a mine off the east coast of England, in the North Sea. It is feared she is a total wreck. About ten men lost their lives."

The Arethusa's displacement was 3,520 tons, and she had been used for patrol duty in the North Sea. She was armed with two six inch and six four inch guns and four torpedo tubes. She was 450 feet long.

The Arethusa was put in commission in 1913, and has made an enduring name for herself. The Arethusa was one of Admiral Beatty's squadron in the brilliant attack on the Germans in the Battle of Heligoland; she took part in the North Sea battle, and a torpedo from the Arethusa gave the death blow to the German cruiser Bluecher. The Arethusa also participated in the naval and air raid on Cuxhaven.

TOO PROUD TO FIGHT

Nine months ago, when the Lusitania massacre was on the lips of every American citizen, The Tribune said:—"The nation which remembered the Maine will not forget the Lusitania."

It is now clear that in so far as this was a forecast of the purpose and policy of Mr. Wilson's administration, The Tribune was mistaken. Not only has Mr. Wilson forgotten the Lusitania, but under the menace of further German assassinations he has consented to approve an agreement which permits the crime to stand for all time as an act of murder, uncharacterized and without disavowal.

Thanks to Mr. Wilson's course, "too proud to fight" has now been established as the controlling spirit of American foreign policy, and henceforth no nation will be restrained from murdering an American by the thought that such murder is regarded as illegal by an American administration.

In so far as he was able, Mr. Wilson has thus committed his country to the doctrine that there is nothing in national honor or national safety worth defending, and that peace at any price is the noblest and highest goal a statesman can seek.

Mr. Wilson has forgotten the Lusitania. The case now passes from his hands to those of the American people. It is for them to accept or reject what has been done in their name.—The Tribune, New York.
