The Store That Sets The Pace

BLYTH'S CORNERS

It was uncommonly cold this Monday morning, and you felt it. Mr. Thos. Stewart is the latest valuable addition to the 147th Batt. from this township. Tommy will make a nifty soldier, and we wish him success.

The Normanby Township at its last meeting lately opened its heart and livened the tail by a donation of $10.00 to all recruits who have enlisted, the same to hold good as a sort of inducement to any and all who may see their way yet clear to enlist.

While it is true that our good old township has been somewhat indifferent to the pressing demands of the seriousness of the situation, yet so far as heroism is concerned it still "can do it," and it is doubtful if another township in the Dominion has produced as great a hero as the late Fred Campbell of this township, and for laurels bestowed none surpassed him. It is said of him during the severe fighting last June that the machine gun he was operating had its support shot away, and the brave fellow as an only resort held the muzzle of the gun on his back until his clothes were burned to the skin, and it was in this stooping position that he got the fatal shot in the hip which caused his death. Peace to his ashes.

Posters are circulated announcing several meetings to be held in this township. We presume the object is to increase interest in the recruiting campaign.

Miss Neila Marshall, who is attending the Normal school at Stratford last and returned this afternoon.

Mr. Andrew Marshall sold his handsome span of greys at the fair in Mt. Forest on Wednesday last. The price received we heard through unofficially, was $250.

Mr. Jimmy Blyth, of the Corners, purchased a fine Shorthorn bull from Mr. Cargill, of Bruce county, who is far famed as a stockbreeder.

Mrs. Pollock, who has been living for some time with her son-in-law Mr. James Weber, passed peacefully away on Saturday evening, Feb. 12. We are unable to give particulars, doubtless your Corner Concerns scribe will be in a better position to give an account of the deceased lady was a life-long resident of his township.

DARKIES CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McMillan, of Swinton Park, visited Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCannell. Mrs. McLean, of Priceville, spent the latter part of the week with Mrs. Flora McLean, Lambton St. Mrs. Tom McGirr and Mrs. William Young, of town, spent Wednesday last at Mr. John Weir's.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGirr spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Noble, of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harrison, of Egremont, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Jacques.

A number from this burg attended the funeral of Mrs. C. Williams. We extend sympathy to the bereaved ones.

A good crowd was present at Mr. Jim Atkinson's sale, and with an ideal day everything went off well.

Miss Mary McCuaig, Mr. Findlay, Top Cliff and Mrs. Will Brown of Bunessan, were visitors last week at Mrs. McLean's and Mrs. McCannell's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hargrave spent Sunday last in Hanover.

"Does your wife favor useful gifts?"

"Too much," replied Mr. Meek-ton. "Last Christmas she bought me a nice snow shovel."—Washington Star.

Auntie—Well, Tommy, what have you learned in school to-day?

DURHAM - ONTARIO

HOLSTEIN

Dr. Andrew Seim has returned from the war zone looking hearty. It was the delight of Holstein to welcome him on Tuesday.

It is expected that the three miles of wire expected to complete the Hydro line from Durham will soon be on hand, and then Holstein will reflect her light in the sky.

Dr. Marsh was unable to keep his Toronto appointment on Tuesday evening owing to an attack of lumbago. He is due to speak in St. Matthews church Montreal on Sabbath the 27th, Mr. Vicar memorial church on Monday evening, 28 Calvary church on Tuesday evening Feb. 29.

CORNER CONCERNS

Miss Agnes Allan has arrived home from her stay in Bentinck just in time to help with the children's concert. She was much impressed when away.

Campbell brothers at the Corners sold a horse a week ago for $175. Their fat cattle and hogs too, are much in the same class of goods. It not only pays to keep good stock, but it is a pleasure attending to them.

We are pleased to see Mr. Wm. Jacques home from Stratford hospital-looking well after the operation.

Mrs. James Tucker left on Friday to spend a week with her mother at Belgrave, and our better half left on Friday to spend a week with her parents in Toronto. As Mr. Tucker and ourselves live within a stones throw of each other we will have to make arrangements for entire secrecy.

Mr. Wm. Lawrence who sold his farm to Mr. Leohn McGirr has leased the old Leohn homestead west of Varney, and is busy moving his effects.

The Ladies Sewing Circle for Red Cross in this section is increasing fast both in numbers and efficiency. The hat, when passed around at their last meeting had a collection of $2.50. An autograph quilt is now being taken up and will be attended with their usual success.

See posters for program of children's concert on March 10th. They are making a big effort for its success. It is their day off at the front, so to speak. They are going to do their bit in the present war. Come and help them. Entire proceeds for patriotic purposes.

The death on February 12, of Mrs. Margaret, wife of the late George Pollock, removes another of the real pioneers of this neighborhood. As Margaret Chapman she first saw the light of day in the northern part of Ireland, and came with her parents to this country when quite young. At womanhood she married the man of her choice, and they began life on lot 22, con. 3, Egremont, where she lived until the death of her husband some fifteen years ago. The union resulted in a family of six: John, in the States, deceased at the old home, Thomas, deceased a year ago, Eliza Jane, Mrs. James McLaughlin, Durham, Martha, Mrs. James Webber, Normanby, at whose home she died, Annie, Mrs. Sam Wright, Chesley. Her two brothers, Thomas and Wm. Chapman, settled in the same neighborhood about the same time and lived their days out and like the deceased were all good citizens and neighbors. Anglican in religion. Rev. Mr. Morris performed the last sad rites at the home and beside the grave in Maplewood cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest.

WHY NOT FIX IT TO DRAIN OUTDOORS?

"Telephone, sir."

"What is it?"

"Your wife wants you at home at once."

"What's the trouble?"

"She has a tight gown, can't stoop, and the drip pan under the refrigerator is running over."

Louisville Courier-Journal.

LAKELETT BREEZES

Wedding bells are ringing. We wish the happy pair a bright and sunshiny day.

Mr. G. Lawrence is again in poor health. Hope he will soon be well again.

School section, No. 13, has secured the services of Mr. McIntosh to fill the balance of Miss Gambol's time, as Miss Gambol has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Ed. Pratt has finished drilling at Mr. P. Lawrence's and has moved to Mr. F. Lawrence's to drill.

Mr. Isaac Hooper has purchased Mr. Robert Baxter's farm. Mr. Baxter intends to secure a farm near Toronto.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Wm. Moore, of the 20th con. is again ill.

Several horses have been disposed of from our locality at the fairs lately.
