BLYTH'S CORNERS.

March came in like a lamb. We will let Chronicle readers know early in April how it went out.

It was with feelings of regret we learned of Mr. Hughes of the Royal Bank leaving Durham. 'Twas a pleasure to do business with him. We wish him continued success in his new place of abode.

Mr. John McKechnie, who sold his farm recently to Mr. Thos. Ball is having an auction sale on March 9. Mr. and Mrs. McKechnie and family were splendid citizens and will be much missed in Knox church. We understand they will reside in Durham.

Mr. Levine of Durham gave us a brief call on Monday morning in quest of a horse to buy. There was too much difference of opinion between us, consequently, we didn't sell.

We had two or three vivid flashes of lightning, accompanied by thunder to-night, with a fierce blizzard of a snow-storm raging at the time, which certainly made it appear peculiar, the date, the 6th of March, also being unusually early for thunder.

The fierce wind and sleet storm on Monday blew a big square hole in Jimmy Blyth's mammoth new barn. We are sorry for Jimmy's mishap, as the roof was all done with metallic roofing, and quite expensive and somewhat unhandy to repair on account of it being slippery to stick on.

McWILLIAMS.

On Wednesday, March 3, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Watson, when their youngest daughter, Bertha, became the bride of Mr. Ralph Harrison. To the strains of the wedding march, sweetly played by Mrs. Carl Harrison, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, who gracefully gave her away in the presence of a large circle of friends. The young couple were unattended and took their places beneath an arch of evergreens and roses. The Rev. Mr. Bowes of Priceville performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. The bride was attired in a gown of white voile, with trimming of lace and insertion with bridal wreath and bouquet of ferns and white carnations. After the usual congratulations were over the guests sat down to a sumptuous repast, after which the evening was spent in music and social intercourse. The young couple were the recipients of many useful and costly presents, the groom's gift to the bride being a gold watch and fob, and to the organist a gold brooch. They will begin home-making on a farm not far from the bride's old home. We wish them every joy and happiness.

Mr. Pratt has finished Mr. Retben Watson's well and is now drilling one for Mr. W. R. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Aljoe, Mrs. M. C. Scott, Mr. S. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawrence, Misses Annie and Victoria Aljoe, all of Durham, attended the wedding at Mr. W. R. Watson's last week.

We are pleased to report Mr. Goldee Lawrence somewhat improved since last writing.

One by one the old landmarks disappear. We notice Mr. George Hopkins is taking down the old house once used by his Grandfather Hopkins.

Mr. Anthony Lawrence has purchased 25 acres off the end of the lot Mr. John McGirr bought from Mr. Will Lawrence.

The worst storm of the season arrived Monday, filling up roads in some places to a considerable extent.

The Grey and Bruce Mutual fire insurance company.

The above named company held its Annual Meeting in Hanover, on the 24th of February. A large number of policy holders were present, and all seemed pleased with the report presented. The Company wrote a larger number of policies in 1915 than in any previous year, and the year's losses aggregated a little over $8,000, which is an unusually large sum. These losses have all been paid and the Company still has in hand a very respectable cash surplus. A very gratifying feature is that for several years the Company has not had a lawsuit with any person, and has not put out one dollar in law costs. Every loss has been fairly investigated and fairly settled. In consequence the Company is in high favor with the insuring public and its business is constantly growing.

Mr. T. H. O'Neill was re-elected President and Mr. Arch'd McCuaig was re-elected to the Vice-President's chair. Messrs. T. H. Wilson and Duncan McLean retain their old positions as auditors. Mr. Herbert Brigham was elected a director of the Company, and Mr. Dougald McKinnon of Sullivayn was made a member of the Executive.

Through an oversight the name of Mr. Robert Grierson was omitted from the list of the Company's agents. Mr. Grierson is one of the most energetic and valued agents on the list and the oversight is regretted.

DELAYED

In the wee hours of the morn the suburbanite got off the train at the home station. Going to the telegraph office he sent this message: "Will not be at the office today. Am not home yesterday yet."—Jack o' Lantern.

Custom Sawing

I am better prepared than ever before to attend to patrons requiring lath, shingles, etc., and am also prepared to handle any quantity of Custom Sawing. Farmers or others having shingle timber to dispose of should see me before selling. I am prepared to pay the top price for any quantity.
