

FLESHERTON.

On March 23, Mr. Fred Taylor, eldest son of Mr. Thos. Taylor of Mt. Zion and Miss Lillian Wright, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright of Wareham, were joined in wedlock, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride by Rev. Peter Tiller of Maxwell, in the presence of about 25 guests.

Mr. Oliver Turner, near Eugene, who recently purchased a farm on the 9th concession of Artemesia, from Mrs. J. H. Jamieson of this place, and got possession on the 1st of April, met with a great loss last week by the destruction by fire of the fine brick residence on the place, together with the furniture it contained.

Sergt. Jamieson, who was in Toronto taking a special course in bayonet exercise, etc., completed his course and returned to Owen Sound last week, calling at his home here. On Friday he was sent out here again after a deserter, Pte. Hamby, whom he escorted back to barracks.

Mr. Joe Alexander has returned from Dundalk to resume his old position with M. Scully & Co. in the produce house.

Rev. W. G. Fortune, a representative of the Dominion Alliance will speak in the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Mr. Will Buchanan, Meaford road and Mr. W. McLeod of Swinton Park, students in the high school here, have enlisted, and went to Owen Sound on Monday for their medical examination and uniforms.

Mr. Sam Henderson has returned from Toronto, where he was employed the past three months.

Mr. Geo. Mitchell spent the week at Toronto and Alliston. Mrs. Mitchell is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wilson spent part of last week in the city.

Dr. Charlie Ottewell, one of the abattoir inspectors in Toronto, cannot be fooled, we notice, on an equine flavor. In a Chinese restaurant he visited last week, the city papers reported horse meat detected, with which the palates of patrons were being regaled.

Mr. Robt. Wheelan has gone to Toronto and taken the position of street-car conductor. Being one of Erin's loyal sons, we yet expect to hear of him enlisting with the Irish regiment.

Mr. M. Segal of Toronto was here the end of the week buying horses, but not many were offered, and only three bought. We understand Mr. Segal purposes making regular trips.

Councillor C. H. Munshaw met with a severe fall on the icy sidewalk, which has since given him some distress in the head, but the injury is passing away.

companied by Mr. Jas. Harrison, who also went to Owen Sound for further examination on his knee, which has troubled him recently.

Miss Leta Blakely has returned from visiting at Corbetton with her aunt, who returned with her and made a short visit.

Pte. Harry Frost of the Sportsman's Battalion, Toronto, was a visitor here on Monday. Harry was formerly on The Advance staff here and went to the city two years ago.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid have installed a phone in the home of their acting secretary, Mr. Jos. Blackburn. It will doubtless prove a great convenience for him in his work for the congregation.

About fifteen of the soldiers were down from Owen Sound over the week-end. Among those to their homes here were T. C. Blakeley, L. Brothwell, H. LeGard, W. Davis, C. Adams and H. McAuley.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wickens are moving from their old home to Mr. Sam Irwin's house on the old Charlie Irwin farm.

Mrs. Wes. Breen was ill last week with tonsillitis, and her little daughter, Ida, has also been quite sick, but we are pleased to learn both are improving.

The Women's Institute had refreshments and a pleasant social time at the close of their meeting last week.

Miss Muriel McTavish is visiting her aunt at Markdale this week.

Miss Mary Wilson of the Presbyterian Guild is announced to give a paper at the Methodist Young People's missionary meeting this Monday evening.

It is tapering down towards spring weather, gradually but surely.

While engaged with a number of others on Friday last, hewing timber for Mr. Con. Becker's new barn, Mr. Henry Seim met with a serious and painful accident by another man's axe coming in contact with his hand, cutting the finger cords severely, and taking several stitches to sew up the gaping wound.

Sorry to report the serious illness of Miss Maggie Marshall with bronchitis. She is under the doctor's care.

The committee on private bills in the Ontario Government certainly were a credit to their trust and country when they refused to take any steps in changing the name of the city of Berlin, Ont.

To our way of thinking, the idea was decidedly narrow and childish, and instead of promoting harmony would, we think, have quite a tendency to make matters worse.

Rev. Dr. Marsh of Holstein lent Rev. B. M. Smith, our popular pastor, who is still unwell, a helping hand on Sunday, and preached very excellent and inspiring sermons to Amos and Knox congregations.

Knox church congregation on Sunday drafted a letter to Rev. B. M. Smith, expressing for him in his recent severe illness, and assuring him and Mrs. Smith the best wishes of the congregations.

you both that all here to-night are glad you are staying in the community, and we have met here not only to spend a pleasant evening, which we have so often spent before in your hospitable home, but just to give you a slight reminder of your first moving since taking up house keeping.

Mr. and Mrs. John Park's latey. Miss Lou Trumph was visiting at Mr. John Park's latey.

Mr. G. H. Brigham and his sister, Miss Catharine, of Louise, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brigham, on Sunday.

We heard of one man ploughing last week, but we think he was only making mud, as the land is not fit to work yet.

Mr. Thos. Brigham-intends to wind up with the saw mill work this week.

We noticed in the Hanover Post a short time ago about the death of Garfield Schaefer, which occurred while working in a factory at Hamilton. We were acquainted with the deceased, and know him to be a fine and popular young man.

Mrs. Frank Wise spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. A. Bailey, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Falkingham of Durham were visiting friends in this part lately.

Miss Maggie Firth is visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. Arthur Edge has purchased a new low-down steel-wheel farm truck.

Several have tried the plough, but the ground is scarcely ready yet.

Mr. John D. McFayden has purchased a 17-tooth cultivator from the Massey-Harris agent, Mr. A. B. McLellan.

Mr. A. J. Greenwood has engaged two McDonald brothers, of Priceville, to assist with the spring work.

We are now getting our mail in the afternoon and subscribers of morning papers receive them on the day on which they are printed.

Our mail courier has been disposed for several days, and his place is taken in the interval by Mr. John Morrison of Durham.

Last week was noted for the number of wood bees—one every day, and two on Saturday. Messrs. J. G. Firth, H. Williams, W. G. Firth, D. Edge, W. J. Ritchie, and Adam Anderson had their wood cut with the circular saw, the six logs being completed in five days.

On the other day Mr. W. A. Williams had his wood cut with the cross-cut, four or five saws going steadily all afternoon.

The ladies of this neighborhood are to be congratulated on the zeal and enthusiasm with which they are continuing their Red Cross sewing bees. They met last week at the home of Mrs. H. Williams and made 10 shirts, and 24 pillow cases, besides taking a cash collection of $3.

vray visited friends in Durham last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whitmore spent last Sunday with their parents here.
