It is announced that Major-General a distinguished English soldier, will for a rush as soon as the weashortly succeed Lieut.-General E. A. H. Alderson as Commander of the Canadian troops at the front and Major-General Sir Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia for Canada, probably will also take an active command. Lieut.-General Alderson has been in command of the Canadian troops since the arrival of the first contingent at Plymouth, England, in October, 1914. It is understood he will now take the post of Inspector-General of the Canadian forces in England. Major-General Byng, K.C M.G., served in the South African War with distinction, and has splendidly maintained his reputation in the present war.

Rome announced on Tuesday: Attacks by the Austrians against the Italians in the Marmolada, Falzarego in the Mediterranean late in April and other sectors were repulsed. The bombardment in the Adamello region continues. Here the Italians have destroyed an Austrian defence work on Col. Topete.
