FLESHERTON.
 On Tuesday evening of last week about 50 neighbors and friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sharp to do honor to their son, Pte. John Sharp, who enlisted with the Grey Battalion and was leaving for camp at Niagara. A pleasant evening was spent and the young soldier was presented with a watch and the following address: "Dear John—Since we, your neighbors and friends have learned that you have placed your name on that great honor roll which calls you across the sea, we have assembled here to-night to bid you farewell, and ask you to accept this wrist watch before your departure. We see that you are willing to fight for the oppressed, and by this you show your true patriotism. We hope that while in a foreign land fighting the foe you will remember your boyhood days at the old red school. You are willingly giving up your pleasures in life and taking up all the risks, trials and troubles of a soldier for the good of others. Our sympathies go with you when you leave for the fighting line. While there, we hope as a brave soldier you will do your duty, and be one of those who will help end this dreadful war, returning an honored soldier, and able to tell the story of your battle for life in order to maintain England's glory. Signed—L. P. Thistlewaite, R. A. Best, Wm. Johnson."

The annual district meeting of the Owen Sound district was held in the Methodist church on Thursday and Friday last, with all the ministers of the district present, but being a busy season, lay delegates were few. Reports from the various circuits showed progress in almost every department of church work. Notwithstanding the heavy demands on the people on account of the war, finances were in good shape. Rev. J. W. Stewart, the chairman, congratulated the different ministers on their work and no words of condemnation were passed. One thing noticeable, there wasn't a candidate for the ministry. The young men who would be taking up the work, realizing a call to the service of their country, are mostly in the King's uniform. On Friday evening Rev. Hollinrake of Owen Sound and Rev. Owen of Chatsworth, gave addresses which were filled with spiritual truth, and enjoyed by all. Rev. Mr. Hollinrake leaves for the district this conference year, having accepted a call to Barton Avenue, Hamilton, his first charge on entering the ministry. Rev. Mr. Owen's time is up, and in all probability he will leave the district. Resolutions expressing the best wishes to both these brethren were passed at the closing session. The chairman will be assisted in the stationing committee by Rev. A. E. Owen. A few changes on the district may take place. Conference opens on June 7 in Carlton street church, Toronto.

Victoria day was an enjoyable holiday for many, who went abroad. Mr. W. Henry and family motored to Walkerton; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wright, accompanied by Miss Trimble and Mr. C. N. Richardson, motored to Owen Sound; Dr. Murray and daughter, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. White and Miss Lillian Hunt, motored to Owen Sound to visit the latter's sister, who is improving in the hospital; a load of picnicers went to Eugenia, and the young ladies took part in a baseball match, but were defeated by the Eugenia girls; Mrs. James Eaton and Mrs. Jamieson spent the day with the former's relatives at Swinton Park.

A severe thunder storm passed over here on Saturday morning, but fortunately little damage was done in the village. In the country, Mr. J. T. Best's residence at Sauguen Junction was struck, and one chimney demolished. A fine new barn, belonging to Mr. Wm. Humberston, near Kimberley, was struck, and burned, together with one horse, a colt, several head of cattle, a quantity of grain, and a number of implements. Mr. Humberston was ill in bed at the time. The loss will be very heavy, there being but $1,000 insurance on the building.
