The Women's Institute held a birthday party at the home of Mrs. C. Ritchie on Thursday of last week. Each one was supposed to pay, as an admission fee, as many cents as she was years old, and though we have not heard the sum taken in at the door, it should amount to quite considerable if they all told the truth. A woman, however, is privileged to fib when it comes to a question of age, and those who filched ten or fifteen coppers off the admission fee would be only asserting one of "woman's rights."

Bruce county did honor to her warrior sons on Saturday, June 3, the King's birthday, when colors were presented to the 160th Overseas Battalion. Premier Hearst, a former Bruce county boy, officiated at the ceremony. A presentation of $500 was also made to Lieut.-Col. Weir for the use of the battalion, in addition to $1,700 already collected for that purpose. An extensive program of sports was carried out during the day, as well as military demonstrations, combining physical exercise, bayonet exercise, machine gun and signal work. The battalion goes to London in the near future.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION

The South Grey Temperance Association, under the auspices of the Dominion Alliance, met in convention in the town hall on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Delegates were present from Markdale, Dromore, Varney, Mullock, Hanover, Dornoch, and other points in the riding. In the absence of Rev. W. W. Prudham, the president, Mr. J. W. Blyth of Varney was elected to the chair, who opened the proceedings by asking Rev. Mr. Wylie to engage in prayer.

The Rev. John Bailey, one of the Alliance field secretaries, explained very ably and fully the various provisions of the recent Temperance Act of the Hearst Government, which he characterized as the best temperance Act in the Dominion, especially eulogizing those parts which deal with the difficulties of obtaining liquor for private consumption, the limitations of the place where it can be consumed, the severity of the fines for violation, entrusted for its enforcement.

He was followed by the Rev. John Ross, D. D., of Toronto, who spoke of the withdrawal of the people from the liquor traffic, emphasized that the temperance Act was not so much a Government measure as a law by the people, so that it is now our law, and urged the necessity of all law-abiding citizens to do their utmost to enforce our law.

Rev. Mr. Cotton dealt with the necessity of thorough organization of every nook and corner of the constituency, in order to be prepared for law enforcement.

The following officers were elected: President, J. W. Blyth, Varney; 1st vice-president, W. J. Sharp, Holstein; 2nd vice-president, Dr. Smith, Dornoch; 3rd vice-president, V. Damm, Aytton; 4th vice-president, President W.C.T.U., South Grey; secretary-treasurer, C. Ramage, Durham.

Convenors of municipalities.—A. Bell, Durham; Dr. Staples, Hanover; W. J. Armstrong, Dundalk; H. Ford, Neustadt; A. McDonald, Bentinck; J. R. Philp, Egremont; J. Cooper, Normanby; H. Abbott, Proton, R. T. Edwards, Glenelg.

At the mass meeting in the evening, which was presided over by Mr. C. Ramage in his usual efficient manner, there was a fair attendance, the chief attraction for many doubtless being Mr. Ruthven McDonald, of Toronto, who has not been forgotten by Durhamites, although it is 27 years since this prince of singers was here. Each number was heartily encored. Tastes differ, but the consensus of opinion probably awards the palm to his "Bury Him Deeply Down," the fate to be meted out to the liquor traffic. Miss Alice Ramage proved a very acceptable accompanist.

The speakers of the evening were the same as in the afternoon, with the addition of Rev. B. H. Spence, the energetic Alliance secretary, who traced the development of temperance legislation in Ontario and the Dominion from the day of small beginnings up to the present when, under local option privileges more than two-thirds of Ontario is already dry, and pointed out that less than one-third of the province will be affected by the new Act when it comes into force on September 16.

The chief speaker of the evening was the Rev. John Ross, D. D. of Toronto, who is so enthusiastic for temperance reform that he is giving his splendid services gratis in order to help the cause along. In an able and eloquent address he forcibly set forth the forces at work culminating in the Hearst Temperance Act, paying most glowing tributes to the Premier for the stand he had taken, and characterizing the legislation as the best Act on the statute books of the province. The favorable public opinion which made the measure possible was not due, the Dr. stated, to mere sentiment, but to deep conviction due to increased knowledge of the demoralizing and destructive character of the trade. As the light was turned on the traffic, which could only exist in the dark, was driven out. With knowledge had come unity of action, which materially strengthened the forces and greatly accelerated the progress of temperance reform. In concluding a magnificent address the Dr. said the axe in the form of the present Act was laid at the root of the tree, but it would be necessary to make use of it to achieve success.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

WAR PICTURES IN DURHAM

Pictures from the firing line are coming to the Happy Hour theatre on Friday, June 9, under the auspices of the Durham Red Cross.

To-day, everybody is talking war. Our parents, relatives and friends have gone to fight for the Allies. At the Happy Hour theatre, "The War in Europe" will prove a revelation of the work these fighters do and the conditions under which they are living while changing the map of Europe. These pictures, taken in a half-dozen different countries, show the war in all its different aspects. During the show it is as if you had received a military pass and, under strong escort were traversing the line of battle, seeing the big guns in action, the cavalry charges, the armored automobiles, and aeroplanes, hand grenades, mortars, gas masks, and all the other new and terrible aids of modern warfare.

Here you see the immense army of Gen. Joffre, the Russian legions, the Italian cavalry, the Canadian and British troops, the heroic Serbians, the noble Belgians, and the Teuton hordes.

Performances at 4.15 p.m., 7.30 and 9.30 p.m., will enable everybody to witness this great spectacle.

This is the 675th day that the British Empire has been at war with Germany.

An incendiary fire occurred in Mt. Forest on Sunday morning when Jas. Leader's blacksmith and wood-working shop were destroyed. All the wood-working tools were burned. The loss is covered by insurance.

The Canadian Corps Commander, Sir Julian Byng, sends the following message: "I am proud of the Canadians under my command, their behavior has been magnificent. I have never known a fiercer or more deadly barrage nor have I seen any troops fight with more earnestness, courage and cheerfulness. Any slight penetration of our line cost the Germans dear."

The casualty list in Monday's papers contained the name of Lieut. H. C. Young, who is reported missing. Though his residence is given as Toronto, the fact that there is a Lieut. H. C. Young of Hanover leads to the impression that this may be him, as he went overseas some months ago with a draft from the 31st, and may have been attached to a Toronto regiment.
