Farmers should have printed stationery just as well as business men. Try a small lot for a start, and see how you like it. We'll give you 100 note heads and 100 envelopes, neatly printed, for $2.00; 250 of each for $3.00, or 500 of each for $4.00. We can give cheaper kinds, but don't recommend them.

On Friday evening, June 16, the Rev. T. H. Ibbott, Ph.D., of Holstein, will give a lecture in the Presbyterian church, Durham, illustrated by 250 limelight views, on the great European war. A program, by local talent, will also be provided for the occasion. This interesting evening is under the auspices of the Presbyterian Guild, and the proceeds go to the Y. M. C. A. fund for our soldiers at the front. Admission 20c. and 10c.

The annual meeting of the South Grey Farmers' Institute will be held in the Public Library, Durham, on Friday, June 16, 1916, at 2 p.m. This will be the winding up of the Institute under its present organization, and in its place the South Grey Board of Agriculture will be organized along somewhat different lines. Officers for the Board will be elected and arrangements made for carrying out the season's program. All are invited to attend. J. W. Blyth, President, G. Binnie, Secretary

News reached Owen Sound on Thursday from Ottawa advising Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Danard of the death of their son, who was killed in action in Flanders. He was 24 years of age, born in the township of Derby, near Owen Sound, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawrence, Sr., of town, and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Lawrence of Egremont, left here on the first of June for an auto trip, and returned safe and sound on Friday last. They visited Hamilton, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and other places.

Miss Mary I. McKechnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKechnie, is recovering in Guelph from a compound fracture of the leg, sustained by accident on the 24th of May. She was attending the commercial college and had just succeeded in passing her examination with honors.

R. R. Long of Listowel will offer for sale by public auction at the G. T. R. Yards, Durham, on Saturday, June 17, at 2.30 p.m., 15 head of young cattle, 25 choice calves, 10 choice cows. Terms made known on day of sale. This is positively the last chance. D. McPhail, Auctioneer.

A picnic under the auspices of the Varney Grange will be held in Carson's grove on Tuesday afternoon, June 20. Mr. R. H. Halbert, president of the U.F.O., will deliver an address. A good musical and literary program will be provided. Everyone invited, and everybody welcome.

Philip Bilstein, a resident of Hanover for the past 25 years, passed away on Friday as the result of an accident. He fell down a trap door in the rear of a store of his son-in-law, Louis Klemmer, and fractured his skull. He died in a few hours, without regaining consciousness.

On Monday night an auto occupied by Messrs. J. G. Wilson and V. Hahn left the road about half way between here and Allan Park and upset and injured both occupants. Mr. Hahn was pinned beneath the car and had a couple of ribs broken. He is, however, recovering nicely. Mr. Wilson escaped with a few minor bruises.

A letter from E. H. Kinnee of McKay, B.C., reports crops looking well, but men scarce, on account of the thousands of enlistments. Sam. Firth, he tells us, is home guard at the internment camp at Vernon, B.C. He tried, out was rejected for overseas service. Sam. Lawrence has gone overseas. Mr. Kinnee will accept thanks for remittance, hereby acknowledged.

A joint memorial service was conducted in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening in honor of the late Lord Kitchener. Rev. Moyer of the Methodist church, preached an appropriate sermon, and was assisted in the service by Revs. Wylie, of the Baptist church, Whaley, of the Presbyterian church, and Archdeacon Hill of the Anglican church, who conducted the morning services at Trinity church in the absence of a fixed pastor. The offerings were to be given to the patriotic fund.

The daylight saving scheme is being adopted in many cities of the Dominion, and will be adopted more generally in future years from May 1 to October 1. It means the turning ahead of the clock one hour, and going on with business as usual. Among the Canadian towns now trying the plan are Winnipeg, Halifax, Ottawa, London, Hamilton, Fort William, Guelph, Edmonton, Regina, Saskatoon, Medicine Hat and Moncton. The train time is the same as formerly and it will seem strange for a time to leave home at 8 o'clock to catch the 7.15 train.

Potatoes $1.75 a bag while they last at John McGowan's mill.

Miss Shaw of Porterville, Calif., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Langdon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold a sale of home-made baking in the vacant store in Calder's block, on Saturday afternoon, June 24. Ice cream and other refreshments will be served.

Mr. Geo. McDonald has been confined to his bed since Monday. Feeling unwell, he came home from Egremont, where he was engaged in bricklaying. The doctor was called in and diagnosed his trouble as a slight stroke of paralysis.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, now in session in Winnipeg, are discussing union with the Methodist and Congregational denominations. First poll taken on Tuesday resulted in a vote favorable to union of 333 for, and 103 against.

Mr. Bert. Saunders is nursing a sore hand. Over a week ago he cut his thumb while working at a spindle carver in the furniture factory, and neglecting to attend to it, blood-poisoning set in, hence the enforced rest. He is recovering nicely now and will be able to resume work in a few days.

Mr. James Robertson, whose death notice appears in this issue, was well known to many of our citizens. He was born in town, served his apprenticeship in the printing trade in The Review office under the late Joe Townsend, and spent a number of years with the McLean Publishing Company in Toronto. He was about 50 years of age.

Some thoughtless person tied a horse to a young maple in front of F. Lenahan's residence, and the tree was girdled to such an extent that it isn't expected to live. It was pure thoughtlessness, and no evil was intended, but it is awfully annoying. It took years of care to bring the tree to its present development, but it was spoiled in a few minutes.

The South Grey Liberal convention will be held in the town hall here on Wednesday next, commencing for business at 1.30 sharp. Addresses will be delivered afterwards by Scott Davidson, M. P. P., H. H. Miller, and others.

Mr. A. H. Jackson has shown us a number of cards acknowledging gifts by soldiers at the front. Many of them were contributed by the Red Cross Workers through The Toronto News.

HON. J. J. FOY DEAD

Hon. J. J. Foy, K. C., L.L.D., member of the legislature for South-west Toronto, and former attorney-general for Ontario, died on Tuesday afternoon. Though he had been in poor health for some time, his death was not expected. He was born in Toronto on February 24, 1847. He was educated at St. Michael's College, Toronto, and at Ushaw College, England. He studied law and was called to the bar in 1871 and practised his profession successfully in his native city for 27 years. In 1898 he was elected as representative for South Toronto, then for North Toronto, and in 1914 for South-west Toronto, and held the position to the time of his death. Three daughters and two sons survive, both sons being in uniform, Capt. Jas. Foy with the 7th Battalion at Ottawa, and Edward, who went with the first contingent, was wounded at St. Julien and is now at Shorncliffe.

HYMENEAL

PICKEN—GRASBY.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Grasby, Bentinck, yesterday, when, in the presence of nearly 200 guests, their daughter, Mabel, was united in marriage to Mr. John Picken of Glenelg.

At six o'clock, the groom took his stand on the verandah under an arch of maple leaves, and immediately afterwards, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Mamie Mountain, the bride, led to the altar by her father, who gave her away, took her place beside him. She looked very pretty in her handsome wedding gown of white duchess silk trimmed with shadow lace, and bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

Miss Florence Kerr, dressed in silk voile trimmed with shallow embroidery, was bridesmaid, and the groom was ably supported by Mr. Earl Meade. Little Miss Isabel Grasby was flower girl.

Rev. Mr. Moyer, pastor of Durham Methodist church, was the officiating clergyman and spoke the words that made them man and wife.

The ceremony over and congratulations extended, the company sat down to a dainty wedding supper, after which the evening was spent in games and other amusements.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding presents, which left no doubt of the esteem in which she was held by her friends. The groom's gift was a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a pearl pendant, to the organist an amethyst brooch, to the flower girl a gold pendant, and to the groomsmen a gold tie pin.

Mr. and Mrs. Picken will reside on the groom's farm in Glenelg, and their many friends wish them much happiness and joy in their new life.

BLYTH'S CORNERS.

Wedding bells, wedding bells! Two at a clip.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Myrtle Caldwell to Mr. Norman Kerr, on Wednesday, June 23.

There have been not a few farmers who have hauled in varying amounts of hundreds of dollars for fat cattle in Durham this season, but Normanby still leads as Mr. Jas. Booth, near Ayton, sold some time ago 35 head of fat cattle for which he would, in all probability, realize over $3,500.

Most of our corn men have their corn in now, after a whirlwind hustle. We heard of one of our neighbors having to sow his over a second time. We fancy there will be a lot of corn sold for seed this year that is weak in vitality, and a considerable risk in sowing it.

Mr. Henry Seim entertained a large number of friends on Monday night with a hop, and other amusements.

Some of our farmers are somewhat unlucky in the foal raising industry in this section.

Miss Maud Thompson, professional nurse, gave the old home a brief call on Saturday night, but on account of pressure of work, returned the following Monday to Toronto.

Sorry to report Mr. John Leith on Sunday last sick in bed, but in all likelihood he is up by this time and going again. At all events, we hope so.

Miss Neila Marshall is home from the Stratford Normal school, possibly a full-fledged teacher. We hope so.

Messrs. Thos. Wallace and Jas. McIlvride are attending the assays in Owen Sound this week. Possibly they will be able to tell us all about the jail, if they ever get back.

Miss Elsie Blyth, teacher, has secured a position in the Hanover school, and has begun her duties. Our trustee board met on Saturday last to re-engage our popular teacher, Mr. McKee. An increase in salary was offered, with a week thrown in to consider.

We understand the annual picnic of the Grange will be held in Carson's bush on Tuesday, June 20.

Mr. Milton McNiece, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McNiece has offered his services for King and country, and has gone to the aviation school to learn to be an aviator. Milton is brim full of pluck and dash and we wish him success in his adventures in the air.
