Miss L. Terry of Mt. Albert spent from Friday till Monday in the village, visiting her niece, Miss De Guerre.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bogle of Pacific Junction, Iowa, called on several old acquaintances on Saturday. They are visiting Mrs. Bogle's mother, Mrs. A. Pollock.

Allan Robertson of Toronto is spending his holidays here.

As we write, we learn that Mr. D. Allan is undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. J. D. Main of Waterford spent a few days here on business and pleasure. He has returned his farm to T. McMillan.

Miss E. Sharp returned Friday after spending a month at Toronto, Swansea and London.

Mrs. Harry Strong of Lamoton Mills is here to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Eccles.

Mr. G. St. Leger and wife, of Toronto, and Miss Knight of Denver, Col. are guests of Mr. J. Durrant.

A pleasant re-union took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Eccles on Saturday evening.

The whole re-assembled family sat down together for tea. Robt. Eccles, their son, who now wears the King's uniform, was presented by the members of the family with a beautiful wrist watch.

The Ham Boy Scouts tried conclusions in baseball with the Scouts here, and were defeated by 6 to 14.

The football match resulted in a tie, one all in the evening. The hall was nicely filled. The artists performed well and kept the audience in good humor for two hours.

The trustees have enlarged the school grounds.

CORNER CONCERNS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Poole and two children, of Buffalo, spent from Saturday till Tuesday at our home.

Mr. Thos. Sirms, an old resident of this part, in fact a schoolmate of many of our young folks, accompanied by his better half, motor over from their home at Fargo, N.D., to spend a week visiting his sister, Mrs. Mead.

Mrs. Mabel Mead, nurse, in Toronto, accompanied them here from the city.

Mr. Jas. Tucker purposes taking a trip through Manitoba and Saskatchewan, and will leave next Monday. We all wish him a pleasant journey, as he well deserves it.

Mr. Frank Grasyby was on the sick list for a day or two last week. Mr. Wm. Marshall is also somewhat indisposed. The labor problem may have something to do with it. Every farmer is almost overworked.

Statute labor is being performed pretty generally in the township this week, and some neat jobs are being done.

Mrs. Wm. M-Fadden and Miss Maud Hamilton took in Zion picnic on Friday and report a pleasant time.

Mr. Lorne Allan was so unfortunate as to have his buggy badly smashed at the McGilvray garden party. It was caused by a horse breaking away, with a fence rail tied to it, and smashing into his rig.

Our picnic last Thursday was a very successful affair, despite the fact that it rained all forenoon. There was a good attendance and an excellent program. The performance by the school children delighted everybody and inspired the greatest confidence in the abilities of our teacher, Miss Emma Ritchie. Little Miss Gertrude Lawrence is a star singer. She also gave a good reading. Miss Lizzie Woods gave a solo, humorous in sentiment, and well sung. Messdames Watson and Lawrence sang a duet in pleasing style, and Misses Mabel and Margaret Mead sang a duet that was much appreciated. Mr. Wm. Allan acted as chairman. At the close of the program the Ladies Aid produced their autograph quilt. The tickets were put in a dish, shaken up by Mr. T. Sirms of Fargo, and Mr. John Lawrence, who can't read without glasses, was blindfolded by Mr. Peter Black, and drew out the ticket that made Mrs. Philip Lawrence the possessor of it. Tea was then served which, like the eatables, was of the best and in abundance. Everybody seemed well satisfied with the event.

Wednesday, the 28th, was possibly the most pleasant day we have had so far this season, and just an ideal day for the marriage of Miss Maggie Marshall. At five o'clock, the bride, leaning on the arm of her groom under an arch of evergreens, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Wm. Allan, Jr. Rev. Mr. Smith, pastor of the contracting parties, performed the ceremony, after which he made a few appropriate remarks, intended, of course, for the guidance of the happy couple more than the rest of the company. After best wishes had been extended by the large assembly present, all were seated on the lawn and a very dainty wedding supper was most heartily partaken of, after which the company enjoyed themselves in games, gramophone music, and chat, many old acquaintances recalling pastimes of youthful days. Lieut. Thos Allan of the 147th Battalion was home for the event, and Mr. Reid, of Flesherton, was also present. The bride looked most handsome in a dress of white liberty satin, trimmed with lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and carnations. The bride was unattended, but her two nieces, Misses Aitken and Watson, acted as flower girls. The bride has always been held in high esteem by all who know her, and the fine array of handsome presents testifies to the good wishes that go with her to her Normanby home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolt, of Hanover, visited their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Tucker, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Black are enjoying a visit of their daughter, Mrs. T. Grasyby, of St. Marys. Mrs. Archie Black, and Mrs. Wm. Black, of the same place.

BLYTH'S CORNERS.

Very pretty and fashionable was the marriage ceremony of Miss Myrtle Caldwell to the man of her choice, on Wednesday last week. Shortly after four o'clock, from all directions, invited guests gathered, until at five o'clock fully 240 or thereabouts had assembled at the bride's home. Promptly at five o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Janet Kerr, the groom and groomsmen, Mr. John Kerr, took their places under a beautiful arch, followed by the fair bride leaning on the arm of her father, who gracefully gave her away. Miss Mabel Farrier made a handsome looking bridesmaid, and the solemn ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. H. Caldwell of Waterford. The winsome bride looked charming in charmesse attire. Georgeette crepe, rose-bud and pearls, Belgian blue giberdine suit and white hat, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses, white carnations and maidenhair fern.

The bridesmaid looked winsome, dressed in pale blue crepe de chene trimmed with lace, blue voile, and carried a bouquet of pansies and daisies. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a topeze and pearls, to the groomsmen a sapphire tie pin, to the organist a necklace set with pearls, and to the pretty little flower girl, Miss Lydia Caldwell, a gold pendant.

After the usual handshakes and hearty congratulations three large tables, apparently groaning under the weight of every good eatable were surrounded and heartily enjoyed and partaken of by all. During the signing of the register Miss Janet Kerr sang "When You Are Mine." The presents were exceedingly numerous, many costly, all testifying to the high esteem in which the bride is held. The happy couple left next day on a motor trip to various points and on their return will become residents of Varney, where the groom is engaged in a thriving business and a cozy home awaits them. To the happy couple we extend our warmest congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous life.

Miss Mary Hoeflin of Toronto spent from Saturday till Monday at the parental home at Orchard.

Our school trustee board have engaged our teacher at an increased salary of $25, in all $825. Mr. McKee is an able, conscientious teacher, and has given complete satisfaction.

Heartiest congratulations to Miss Neila Marshall, who received word on Saturday of having successfully passed the Normal exam. at Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCaul Marshall, who were happily wed on Wednesday last week, are also worthy of hearty congratulations. We know them both well, being all lambs of the same flock and bespeak for them a bright future. They returned on Tuesday from their wedding trip to Buffalo and Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Burd McNiece from the west are spending their honeymoon at the parental home of the former. We wish Burd and his winsome bride a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Mr. John McNiece is also home on a visit to his parents.

The anniversary in Knox church on Sunday was a season of real refreshing from the presence of the Lord. Rev. Mr. Whaley of Durham appeared at his best and his two rousing sermons must have left lasting impressions on the large congregation who listened with rapt attention at both services. On the following Monday evening the most successful entertainment and supper ever given was held. Rev. B. M. Smith occupied the chair and called off a lengthy and varied program. Rev. Dr. Marsh of Holstein, also Rev. Mr. Shauder, the new Evangelical minister of Aytou, each gave humorous and instructive addresses. The famous Aytou choir, about 15 in number, were present, and delighted the largest and most orderly audience ever assembled in old Knox with the rendering of their beautiful and inspiring anthems and duets. Misses Kerr and Mead, ably assisted on the organ by Miss Mamie Mountain, sang two beautiful selections and their audience spellbound by their exceedingly sweet singing. Mr. Peter Ramage, ably assisted by his sister, Miss Ramage, sang a taking was at his best and sang a patriotic selection of a patriotic nature.

Miss Mary McAlister gave a humorous recitation in her usual able and taking style. Mr. Wm Allan, always happy, made a few brief remarks. Mr. Chas Ramage, always looked for and may we not safely say, revered, at and around Knox, was the last, but by no means the least effective speaker, and zipped here and there along, fond memories of bygone days. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The Dornoch branch of the Women's Institute met at the hall in Dornoch on June 26, when Miss Duncan of Toronto gave a very interesting and instructive address on "The Girls of To-day."

She impressed it on parents to see to it that the rising generation be taught to be useful citizens in the future, that no matter how rich they might become, to be good cooks and good housekeepers were realities that should not be overlooked in their education.

A very interesting part of the program was a presentation to Mrs. Alex. Campbell, who has been secretary for the past three years. The following address was read by Miss McIntosh and a Rayo lam presented by Mrs. McIntyre. Dear Mrs. Campbell—We, the members of the Dornoch Women's Institute, take this opportunity of showing our appreciation of your great interest and untiring efforts in the welfare of this organization. As secretary of this Institute since its inception you have not only shown diligence and competence in the duties incumbent with that office, but your zeal and fidelity in the general work of the Institute has been a source of inspiration to us all. Your regular attendance at the meetings, often at great inconvenience to yourself, has been most marked, and to your tact and resourcefulness is due in no small degree any success which we, as a body, have accomplished. Feeling that this efficiency and live interest which you have displayed in the work is worthy of some recognition, we ask you to accept this lamp as a slight token of our appreciation of your valuable services and trust that you may be spared many years to enjoy the fruits of a successful, helpful life. Signed on behalf of the Institute—Mrs. J. Parke, Mrs. C. McIntyre, Margaret McIntosh. Mrs. Campbell, though taken by surprise, feelingly thanked the ladies for their kindness and expressed a desire that they keep as before to help the soldier boys.

The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.
