The Presbyterian garden party on the manse grounds on Tuesday evening was a social and financial success. The weather was extremely warm and the tables and refreshment booths were well patronized. There was a good program and a large attendance. The proceeds were $100.

According to the new license regulations a physician may prescribe only six ounces for internal use, but a pint may be obtained if the patient is to be bathed. The prescription may be filled only once, and must be filed for reference. We feel as though we need a bath.

Mr. J. C. Capper, who has been employed by the Northwestern States Portland Cement Co., at Mason City, Iowa, for the past eight years, as assistant superintendent of their plant, has resigned his position there. Mr. Capper has since accepted the position of general superintendent of a large plant in Alberta at a substantial increase in salary. Before leaving Mason City, he was presented with a gold watch by his fellow employees as a token of their esteem. Mrs. Capper and children will leave Mason City for their new home near Edmonton, shortly and will visit en route with her sister at Rosetown, Sask. Mr. Capper has many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his success. He is a son-in-law of Mr. Wm. Saunders of this town.

Several of the soldiers were home from Camp Borden over Sunday.

The ladies of the Red Cross Society intend serving tea on Dr. Jamieson's lawn on Thursday, July 20, from 6 to 7.30. Admission 10c. All are welcome. Should the weather prove unfavorable, the tea will be served the following night.

The Business football club had a very successful picnic in Mr. John Beaton's grove on Friday afternoon and evening of last week. We had been expecting a report of it from our correspondent, but we presume the hot weather has prevented him making the exertion.

Commencing Tuesday evening next, a new serial motion picture play, "Neal of the Navy," will be put on at the Happy Hour theatre. To start the story off right, Manager Willoughby has decided to admit everyone free on Tuesday evening, with the exception of the one-cent war tax.

A horse belonging to the cement company wandered on to the C. P. R. track and is now lying in a paralysed condition near the overhead bridge. It is not known whether he was struck by the train, or otherwise injured, but it is likely he will have to be killed. We understand action will be instituted against the railroad company for having defective guards.

We were in Chesley Monday and congratulate the town on the neat, attractive and business-like appearance it presents to the visitor. It has a population of about 2,000, and there are said to be few, if any, vacant houses or business places. It is well and substantially built, and everything seems to show an air of thrift. Manufacturing is brisk and there are none who need be idle. They have only one hotel, which is said to serve the public well. The people are genial and harmony seems a prevailing characteristic.

The Orangemen of Durham and Glenelg went to Dundalk yesterday, but the attendance was small compared with other years. Mr. R. Aljoe, who is in his 91st year, went to the station to see the boys off, and before the arrival of the train, took a hand at the kettle drum in the boys' band. He was a drummer boy in the rebellion of 1837, and his hand still retains its cunning. The boys' band, under the command of Wm. Hewitt, and marshalled by Thos. C. Ritchie, in uniform is a natty and attractive aggregation of 15 or 16 well conducted young lads. The life and drum music they furnish is quite creditable to themselves and their instructor, and quite an acquisition to the enjoyment of the day.

Mr. R. J. Pollock, of the 10th concession of Sullivan, a man of about 76 years of age, living with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Turner, was found dead in his bed on Monday morning. The Saturday previous he had been engaged in mowing weeds, and complained a little of a pain in the region of the heart. For some years, since he was run over by a land roller and had some ribs broken, he often complained and nothing more than usual was thought of his complaints on Sunday night. On Monday morning he was found dead. Dr. Morgan of Chesley was sent for, and before issuing a burial certificate advised calling in Coroner Hutton. Dr. Hutton went over Monday afternoon, ascertained a few particulars, and as there appeared to be nothing irregular in the circumstances, decided an inquest was unnecessary and issued a burial permit.

HOMENEAL

O'HARA—MEAGHER.

St. Basil's church, Toronto, at 3 o'clock on Tuesday morning July 4, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, when the marriage of Miss Agnes Meagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meagher of Pricville, to Mr. E. J. O'Hara, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Hara of Oakville, was solemnized by the Rev. Father Hayes. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. J. P. Meagher, was attired in a dainty gown of white chiffon taffeta and forgotte crepe, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The presents were numerous and costly. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant, to the bridesmaid a gold ring and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. Miss Ethel O'Hara, sister of the groom, attended as bridesmaid in a gown of mousseline satin, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Andrew Meagher supported the groom. After the ceremony a reception for the immediate relatives was held at the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. J. J. Henry, 1 Henry St. Later, Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara left for Niagara, Buffalo and other points. The bride travelling in a navy blue tailored suit with black hat. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

NORTH PERTH GOES LIBERAL

The North Perth bye-election held on Monday resulted in a victory for the Liberal candidate, Wellington Hay, of Listowel, who defeated "Farmer John" Makins by a majority of over 550, turning a Conservative majority of 1,100 two years ago into a big minority for the Hearst candidate. Different reasons are given for the turnover, but we leave these for discussion by the big papers, whose business it is to wrangle over such political disturbances. Both candidates, we understand, were personally popular, and the big change must have been the result of a real or imaginary political grievance in the opinions of the electors.

EDGE HILL.

Miss Maggie Firth is visiting at London with her brother, Mr. J. W. Firth.
Miss Ethel Greenwood, who was teaching near Tara, is home for the summer vacation.
Misses Maggie Edge of Toronto and Alix Edge of Lindsay are holidaying at home.
Mr. Arthur Edge is having a 12x30 concrete silo built this week. Mr. Smith from near Allan Park has the contract.
The trustees have engaged Miss Sadie McDonald of Durham as teacher in S.S. No 3 for the ensuing year.
Miss Eliza Patterson is the guest of Miss Cassie McNally this week.

The most successful picnic in the history of Edge Hill Union S.S. was held in Mr. Wm. Edge's bus on Monday afternoon. The weather was very favorable and the attendance considerably above the average of former years. A short program, consisting of recitations and vocal and instrumental music was given. One of the best numbers was the flag drill by 11 girls, which was performed with wonderful precision under unfavorable conditions, as the platform was a little too small. Another pleasant number was the reading of a complimentary address, and presentation of a beautiful brown Betty silver deposit tea set to Miss Mortley, the retiring teacher of S.S. No. 3, by her pupils. The address was read by Miss Kate McNally and the presentation made by Miss Ethel Anderson. Miss Mortley has taught most successfully in No. 3 for the past three years, and there is general regret on the part of both pupils and parents at her leaving. Miss Mortley replied very briefly, thanking them for their gift. Tea was served after the program and then there were a number of keenly contested and interesting foot-races, followed by a game of baseball, which concluded a very pleasant afternoon. The managers of the booth did a big business, and their supplies were pretty well sold out. The collection amounted to over $12 and, with the proceeds of the booth, will make a net sum of over $22 to go to the patriotic fund.

The war situation continues to look favorable, but even yet we needn't look for a walkover. The Germans are being pressed on all sides, but they have a few kicks left, and occasional reverses need give us no surprise. The Allies are constantly gaining and success is certain, but how soon we don't know.

THE ORANGEMEN AT CHURCH

Over a hundred Orangemen attended service in a body on Sunday morning at the Methodist church. They were addressed by the pastor, Rev. E. S. Moyer, who took for his subject the words, "Be ye angry, and sin not"—Eph. 4:26.

The sermon was delivered in the characteristic earnestness of the speaker, who admonished charity or love, rather than hatred, in all things. It is our duty to hate sin, but we should love the sinner while we protest against his wrong-doing. The true soldiers in the trenches are not those who hate their opponents, but those who hate the principles for which they contend and protest against those principles. The Orangemen, he said, governed by the principles of their constitution, do not hate the Roman Catholics, though they may have reason to protest against the teachings which interfere with personal liberty and the principles that all claim as a right. The Constitution of Orangemen teaches equal rights to all and special privileges to none. It is not the Orangemen alone, but all true Christian subjects, have the right and duty to protest against an unjust interference, whether from Catholics as a Christian denomination, or from any other source. He laid special emphasis on the right to protest, and referred to this right as "the origin of our word Protestant." The sermon was moderate throughout, but delivered with a true spirit of earnestness. The earnest attention of the large audience is an evidence of their general appreciation of the speaker's admonitions.

The choir rendered good music for the occasion, and the male quartette, Messrs. Mistele, Glass, McCrae, and Saunders, was highly enjoyed by all. The National Anthem at the close was taken up with much fervor by the choir, and heartily joined in by the congregation.

ROY CALDER IN ENGLAND

The following letter from Roy Calder, son of Mr. Wm. Calder shows the happy mood of the young man who is now in training and doesn't know a worry. He enlisted in the service of his King and country, knew the sacrifice he was making before he did it, and when the time comes for action he will be on hand to do his bit. We wish him every success and hope he may return uninjured: Dear Mr. Jackson,—I just received your very welcome parcel and it certainly was appreciated. At the time I was in Larkhill doing our firing and had no Old Chum with me and was craving for a good smoke. I certainly appreciate being remembered by you. It makes a fellow feel good to know that he is not forgotten when he is on the Empire's errand. I just read a letter from Sid Baker in The Chronicle. It is the most vivid picture of the front that I have ever seen. Of course we both are in C.F.A. and see things in the same light. We had a fine experience on our trip to Larkhill. We had to sleep at our guns, with the heavens as our roof and the cold ground for our pillow. Many nights I woke up feeling water dripping on my face. Our Colonel would not allow his men or officers to sleep otherwise, and, believe me, we had some good laughs to see those officers get soaked. We never minded it at all. It is funny how a fellow gets in this way. I have not had a worry in my head since I joined the colors.

NOT GOING TO SEE THE FIREWORKS

In a letter received recently from his son, Fred, who is in the firing line, Mr. John Kelly is assured by the young soldier that he won't go to the Toronto Exhibition any more to see the fireworks. To him, now, the pretense of the world's great show to make a war racket would be a mighty tame affair. Mr. Kelly didn't tell us anything about it. He never does tell us anything, but this remark about the fireworks has oozed through the censorship and here it is. We hope Fred may enjoy the real pyrotechnic display and come out from it as safe as he would from the grandstand at the exhibition.
