Miss Irene Murphy of Mt. Forest visited her friend, Miss Lulu Mitchell, last week.

Mr. W. Clinton of Maxwell visited his brother here on Monday.

Mr. Bert Best has gone to the west for the harvest.

Ceylon village again suffered by fire about 5 o'clock on Thursday morning last, when Mr. James Radley's hotel was destroyed, with nearly all of the contents. The fire started upstairs, it is said, from an overheated stovepipe and when discovered had made much headway and spread so rapidly that but little could be saved from the building.

Inspector Halbert had a resident near Ceylon before Magistrate McMullen and McTavish here last week and the evidence being sufficient to convince the magistrates that the charge was well founded, a fine of $20 and costs was imposed.

A Markdale livery horse caused some excitement on Thursday afternoon last. Taking flight at an automobile the animal dashed across the street, colliding with a telephone pole, where it broke away from the buggy, which was left badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell, centre line, have the sympathy of numerous friends in their bereavement by the death on Thursday of their eight months old son. Interment was made in Mt. Zion cemetery.

Good progress is being made on Mr. W. Henry's fine new residence, which will be an ornament to the village.

A cow belonging to our friend, Mr. Jas. Speer of Faversham had a remarkable tumble last week. While feeding on the bank of the river she fell backwards over the rock to the water below, a distance of about 25 feet, but boss got up from her bath apparently little the worse and as if she intended continuing her usual supply of milk to the family.

Three auto loads, conveyed by D. Henderson of Toronto, J. A. Boyd of Markdale and Geo. Mitchell here, had a pleasant day picnicking and fishing at Heron's pond last Thursday.

Mr. W. H. and S. Hemphill received word on Sunday of the death of their aged aunt at Kleinburg. The former and sister have gone to attend the funeral.

Mr. Chapman, undertaker, conducted another funeral from the House of Refuge, Markdale, on Monday. This is the third death recently at the Refuge.

Among those from this locality who left on the harvesters' excursion for the west on Friday were: A. Stewart, H. Lever, G. Davis, W.J. Talbott, A. McRae and B. Best.

Mr. W. J. Meads met with a big loss on Monday by the destruction by fire of his barn on the old San Henderson farm on the Durham Road. The building contained about 12 tons of hay and 100 bushels of oats. Three horses were in the basement, one of which escaped injury, but the others were so badly burned before being rescued that it is doubtful if they will recover.

In the effort to get them out, Mr. Meads' son had a close call, being almost suffocated by smoke. There was $1,000 insurance on the building and $500 on the contents but the total loss is estimated at over $2,000.

The fire broke out about mid-day and is a mystery as there was no one about the building.

SAME FAMILY NAME.

An Irishman was seated in a railway carriage next to a very pompous looking man, with whom he commenced a conversation in a rather free and easy manner.

At length the pompous one said: "My good man, reserve your conversation for one of your own equals. I would have you know that I am a K.C." The Irishman jumped up and held out his hand. "Begorry, shake!" he exclaimed. "Oim a Casey meself." — Boston Transcript.
