HOLSTEIN.

The service in memory of the late Wm. G. Dickson, who fell in action on the Somme front, was held at the Methodist church on Sabbath evening last, the Rev. T. H. Ibbott officiating. The church was filled with sympathizers from the whole neighborhood. Pte. Dickson was born in Normanby township on August 29, 1887, and remained on the farm till 1909, when he went west, where he worked at the carpenter work for three years, when he took an agency with the Singer Sewing Machine Co., with whom he remained till he enlisted. He remained family have the sympathy of the entire community. The secretary of the patriotic society has received a communication from the field comfort centre in England thanking the society for the supply of comforts sent, and also stating that as there are so many Canadians at the front now, it is difficult to keep them properly supplied. We believe that greater activity along this line would be a real encouragement to those at the front. Mrs. Quackenbush and little son, of Toronto, were the guests lately of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cameron. Fetter is soaring in price, and the patrons of our factory are receiving 40c per lb. for their butter this day. Mr. H. Lamont has always taken
