

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor

DURHAM, OCTOBER 12, 1916.

PATRONIZE THE HOTELS

Since the money-making part of the hotel business has been legislated out of existence, it is the duty of all who believe in the necessity of houses of public accommodation to patronize the hotels where at all possible. They should not only patronize them, but pay them for all services they may receive. Where a hotel has in connection a shed or a stable for the accommodation of the public, that shed or stable should be used and paid for. In this connection, we do not think it fair to use church sheds or other places of the kind, so long as the hotels can furnish the accommodation. There are people, however, who would go out of their way to get free shelter for their horses rather than pay a small fee for the use of a hotel shed. We need hotels, and we must expect, under present conditions, to pay more than formerly for the services rendered. Only when the hotels are taxed to their limit should other places be sought. The hotels are under heavy expense, and no person can deny the need of them. Like any other business, they have overhead expenses that must be met by the owners, whose only source of revenue, now, as always, is derived from public patronage.

PUT TO THE TEST.

A preacher at the close of one of his sermons said: "Let all in the congregation who are paying their debts stand up." Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now, every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception, a careworn, hungry-looking individual, clothed in an ink-spotted last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only man not able to meet his obligations?"

"I run a newspaper," he answered, "and the brethren here who stood up are my subscribers, and—"

"Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.

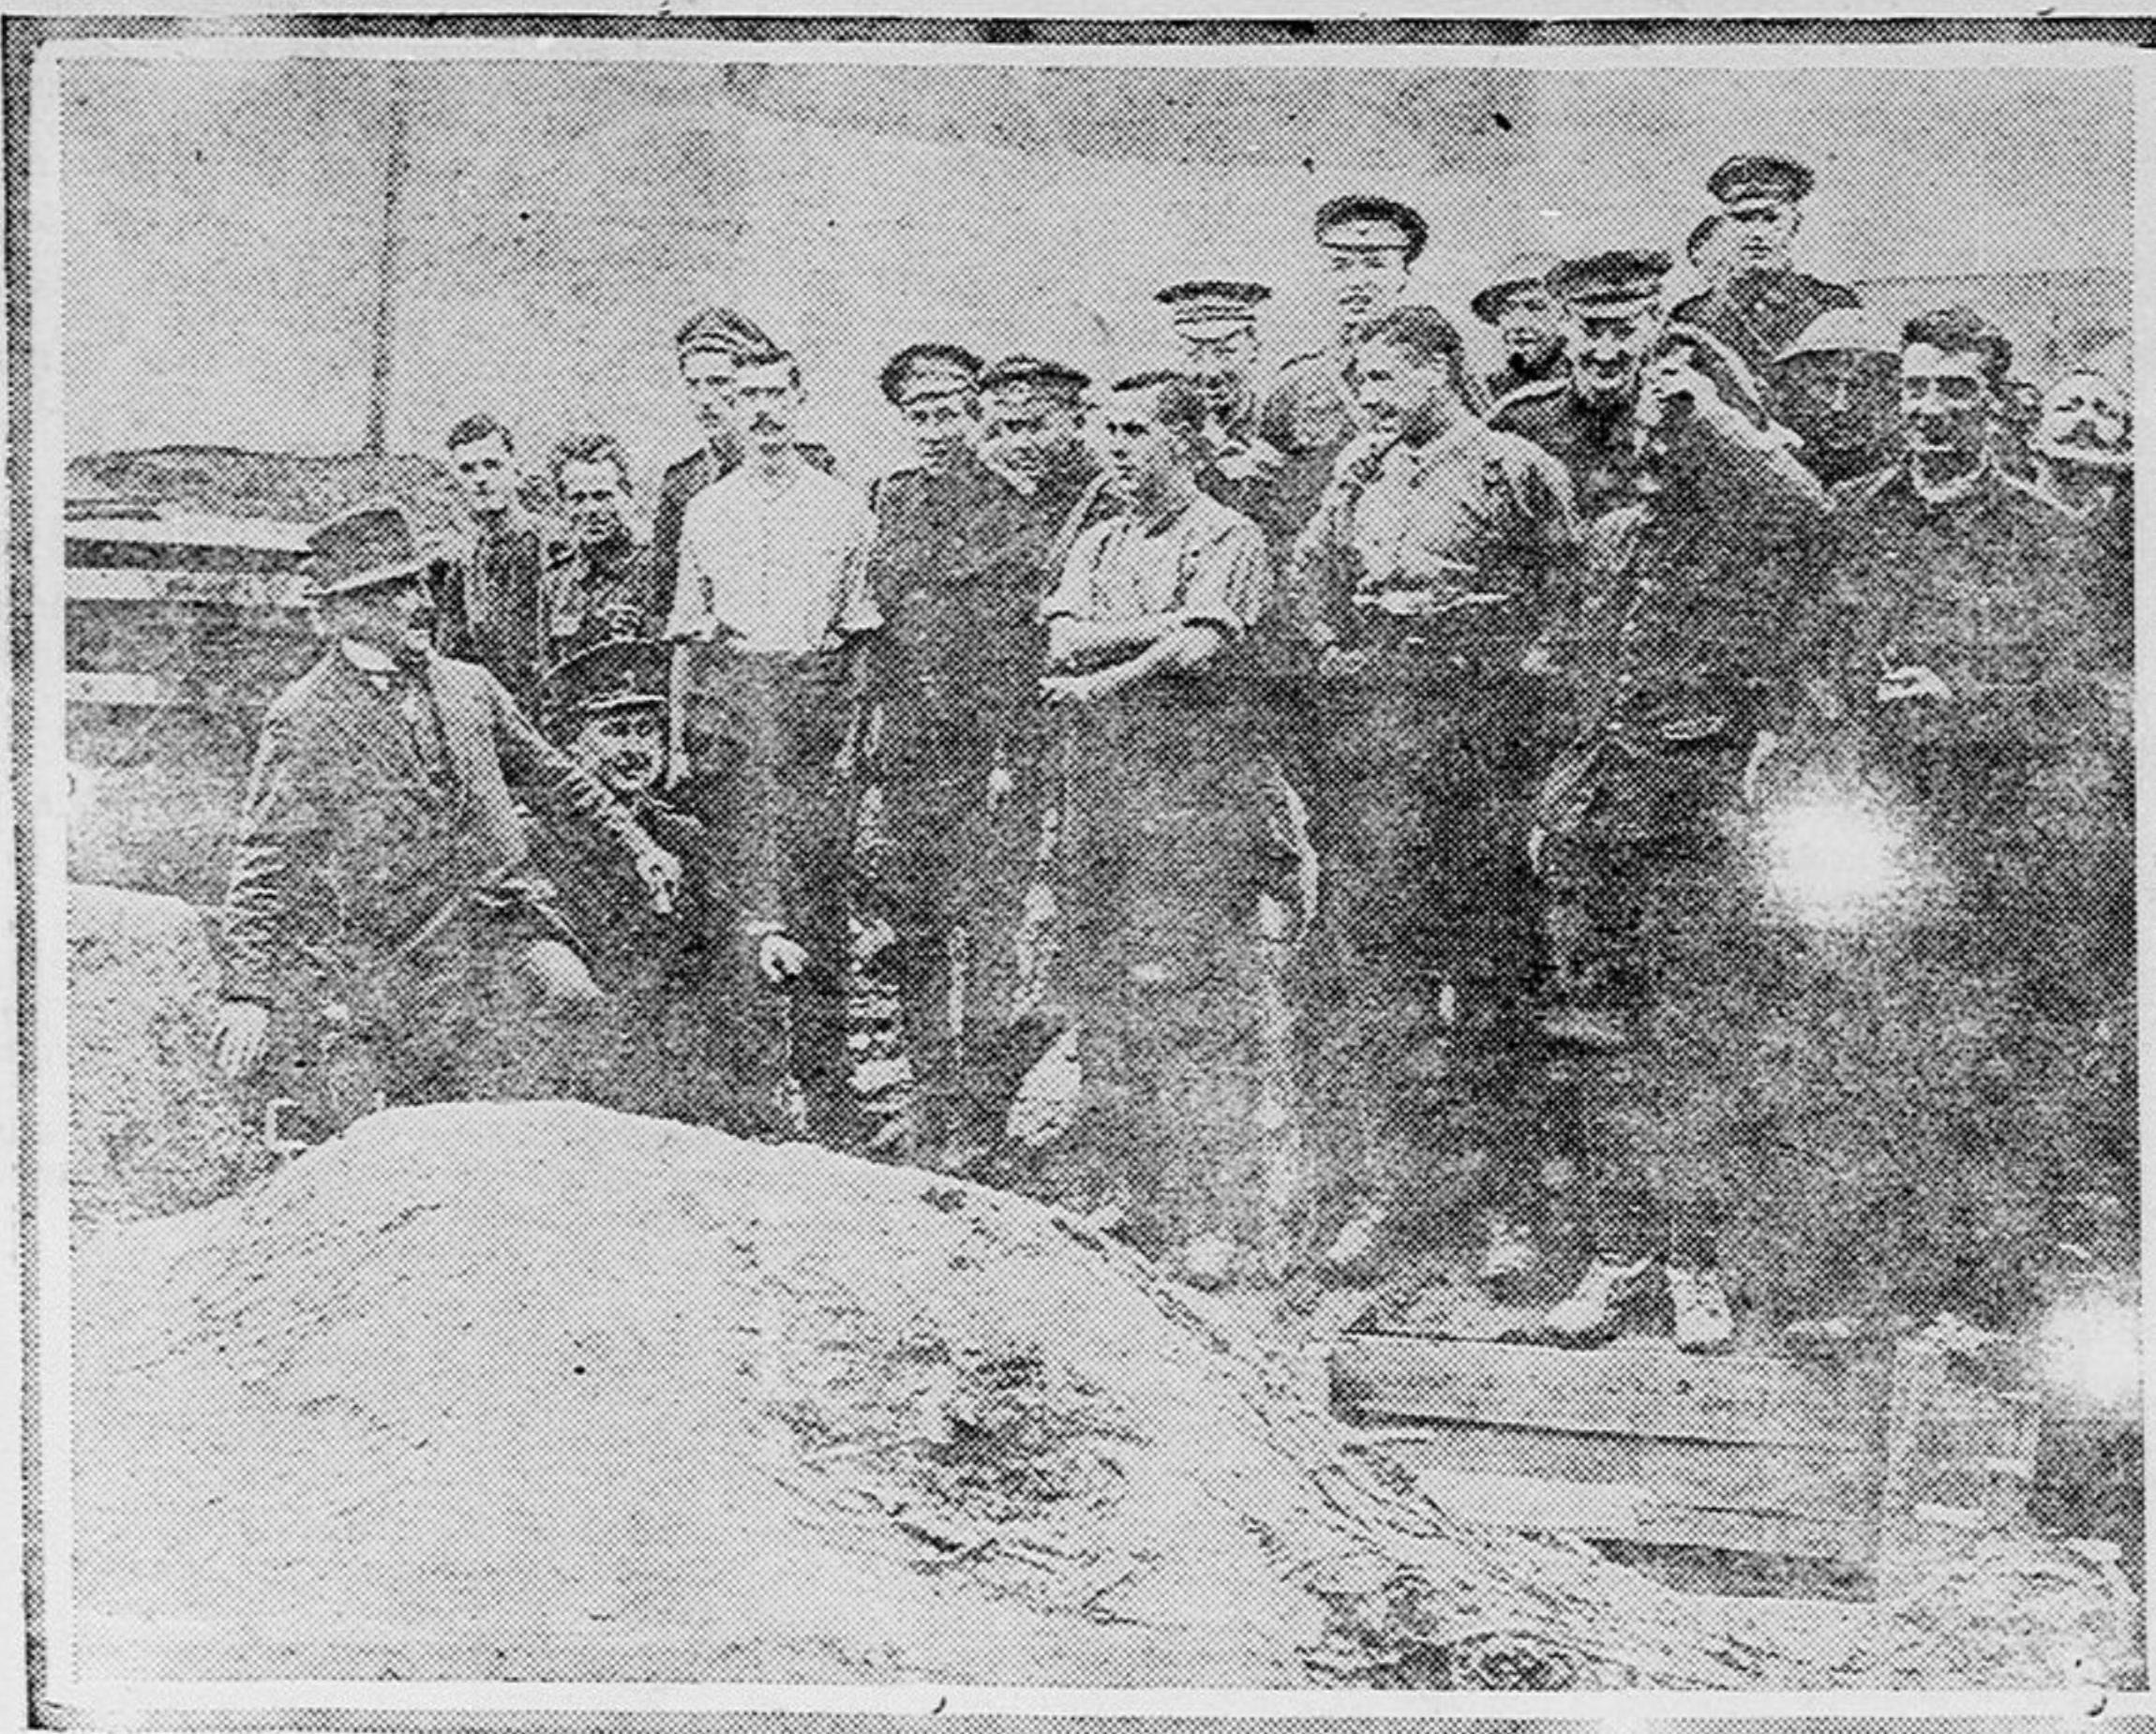

If this question were asked in your congregation what would you do—stand up or sit still? Look at your label now.

FLESHERTON.

There was general regret at the loss of an esteemed citizen on Friday evening when the news was received that Mr. C. H. Munshaw had passed away in Toronto. Suffering with an abscess in the head, he was taken to the hospital where with the hope of saving his life, an operation was performed, but this time the malady proved fatal. About 15 years ago he underwent a similar operation, which then prolonged his life. In charge of undertaker Chapman, the remains were brought to his late home on Saturday, from where the funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to the public cemetery, and was very largely attended. Service was conducted at the house by Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, during which a quartette number was effectively rendered by Messrs. Murray and Duncan, Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Trimble. At the close of the service the Masons took charge and with the impressive burial service of the order committed the remains to the tomb with craft honors, the members of the lodge here being joined by a good representation from the sister lodges at Markdale, Dundalk and Owen Sound, Rt. Wor. Bros. W.H. Wright and D. Rutherford being present from the latter place. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings, among which was a square and compass design from Prince Arthur Lodge, and a wreath from Georgina Chapter, Owen Sound. Among relatives from a distance were Mr. C. Page, Welland; Mr. H. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. F. Barth, and Mr. and Mrs. Pither, Toronto. The deceased, who was nearly 40 years of age, was born in Flesherton, and lived here all his life, associated with his father for some time conducting the well-kept Munshaw House. His kindly disposition and inoffensive manner won for him a host of friends, and his popularity was shown by the leading vote he polled at his election to the village council, where he served with much zeal and faithfulness. He took a deep interest in village matters and was for many years a member and moving spirit in the Band organization. For a number of years he was active in the A.O. U.W., but recently withdrew. He was a member of the I.O.F., and an enthusiastic Mason, being a member of Georgina Chapter at Owen Sound and a past master of Prince Arthur Lodge here. A little over five years ago he was married to Miss Eva Parker, daughter of the late W. C. Parker, who survives him, together with his aged father, now in very poor health, and two sisters, Mrs. G.B. Welton of this place, and Mrs. W. Hill of Markdale, all of whom have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow. Among the large number from outside who attended the funeral were Hon. Dr. T. S. Sproule, Hon. I. B. Lucas, Dr. Ego, Dr. McArthur and Editor of the Chronicle, Markdale, Dr. McWilliams and Editor Colgan of Dundalk, Dr. Lane, Priceville, and Dr. Rozzell of Maxwell.

Messrs. Cole and Duncan representatives of the Gideon society, supplied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday and explained the helpful Christian work being done by their organization. Mr. Scobie of McIntyre preached a good sermon in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Mr. Stewart, chairman of Owen Sound district, will conduct anniversary services in the Methodist church next Sunday. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McMullen, near Ceylon, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Wednesday evening of last week, when, by neighbors and friends, a fowl supper was given at a farewell to seven of the young soldiers who were home on last leave. At the home of Mr. Geo. Lawlor, 8th con., there was also a farewell to the young soldiers leaving that community. The soldiers of the 14th Battalion home from Camp Borden on last leave last week, were given a touching farewell on Wednesday evening when the high school auditorium was filled to overflowing with a sympathetic audience. Headed by the band, and accompanied by the Boy Scouts, the young soldiers marched to the high school, where a splendid exhibition of bayonet fighting and physical drill was given, and in prize addresses were delivered by Rev. McDonald, Rev. McVicar, and Mr. M.K. Richardson. Miss Aveda Henderson sang, "Where is my boy to-night?" very sweetly, and rousing patriotic songs were given by Messrs. Murray, Holland, Sullivan, and Duncan. Reeve McTavish occupied the chair. At the close the ladies of town served refreshments and a pleasant time was spent. On Thursday afternoon the band and a big crowd again turned out and accompanied the boys to the station, where farewells were given, and many tear-dimmed eyes were seen as the long train pulled out. There was a good representation of exhibitors from here at Faversham and Priceville fall fairs last week and many prizes were secured. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Parliament of the 8th concession, Artemesia, received the sad news last week that their eldest son, Pte. Earle, had been killed in action in France. Deep sympathy is felt here for the bereft family. Another son is at the front. Born—At Toronto, on Sept. 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thurston a daughter; and at Glenora, Man., on Sept. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns, a son. A shooting match was held at Mr. L. Badgerow's, 4th line, on Saturday, and at Mr. Guy Orr's on Monday, and a large number of birds were secured by the gunmen. Flesherton and Markdale high schools joined in a successful field day on Friday afternoon. The ideal summer weather contributed greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. A baseball match between the two schools was won by Flesherton, which also won out by 37 points on the whole program of sports, which was well contested throughout. In the evening a good entertainment was given, the Markdale visitors contributing a pleasing dialogue, two choruses and a solo rendered by Miss B. Walker. Flesherton gave one chorus a reading each by Marjory Acheson, and Murray Cornfield, and a solo by Mr. Herb Sullivan. Mr. Donald McVicar occupied the chair. A collection in behalf of the Red Cross was taken up. Judge Widdifield held court of revision on Artemesia's voters'
