

E
LYTH'S CORNERS.

Between harvesting a good crop and building a character, we got badly side-tracked, and as most correspondents usually get busy near the close of the year, well try and butt in.

The entertainment held in Watson's school on Friday night was quite a success, financially and otherwise. Dr. Jamieson occupied the chair quite ably, and in his opening remarks gave a lot of encouraging information regarding the war, and although the war expenditure of Britain is now about $25,000,000 a day, her great resources are not much more than tapped yet. He also forewarned his hearers to be prepared to help sustain the maimed soldiers and those depending on them for years after the war ceases, but thought a great, young, growing, prosperous country like Canada should not feel the strain much. The troop of entertainers, Messrs. Bell and Falaize, and Misses Irwin, Walker, Graham and Wylie, excelled themselves in their various parts, and each and all were the recipients of many hearty encores. The business part and object of the entertainment was to organize a ladies' sewing circle for the soldiers, which was accomplished, and will meet on Friday afternoon next at Mrs. Geo. Sharp's. Mrs. Matt. Barber very timely saved the ladies of this neighborhood from a bad impression by calling the chairman's attention to the fact that although the ladies were not working under an organized head heretofore, a great amount of sewing and knitting had been done for our soldiers. The proceeds of the evening were $16.75.

Thursday evening of last week, the ladies of Knox church held their annual thank-offering service. Mrs. Whaley of Durham addressed the meeting, basing her remarks on the life and actions of Jonah, and applying them quite forcefully to the excuses and actions of everyday life. Mrs. Whaley is a mild, but convincing speaker, and her arguments are well balanced by sound reasoning. At the close, Mrs. Whaley was given a hearty vote of thanks, moved by J. Watson and seconded by D. Leith. The evening was one of the roughest of the season, and many were deprived of the privilege of being present, nevertheless, the few ladies present whacked up about $16.

Mrs. John Thompson, who has been on a visit to her son, Wellington, and wife, at Biggar, Sask., returned home on Saturday, looking well.

Mr. Louie Wettkaufer and sons, who were so unfortunate as to have their saw mill burned about six weeks ago, nothing daunted by the great misfortune, have another building erected and are having the machinery placed in position this week. Louie is an enterprising chap and is well deserving of liberal and hearty support.

Miss Maud Thompson, professional nurse, who has been spending her holidays at the old home here, returned to Toronto Monday. Knox church has undertaken to raise $200 for the British Red Cross. Their first collection on Sunday amounted to $122, and seven more well filled envelopes were deposited in the plate on Sunday.

Miss Florence McIlvride won one of the five prizes offered by The Sun on a farm life write-up.

Mr. Geo. Baker, who has been employed by Mr. Geo. Seim for the past two years, has engaged with Mr. John McGowan of Durham as teamster. Just another instance of the defeat of the farmer to compete on the labor market, hence farm production not keeping pace with consumption. Mr. McGowan will find George a capable man.

The Sunday school entertainment in Knox church Tuesday night was a great success, numerically and financially. The house was packed with a very appreciative and orderly audience, and the excellent program was rendered by the school children under the guidance and direction of Miss Clark, teacher in the public school, who deserves much credit for the excellent way in which the young people were trained. Rev. Dr. Marsh excelled himself in his excellent address and Miss Ritchie of S.S. No. 2, Egremont, the only other outsider, delighted the audience with a couple of fine vocal selections. The report of the school, as given by the superintendent, Mr. Wm. Allan, was highly satisfactory. The aggregate attendance for the season was about a hundred and the average was over eighty. The school was self-sustaining, the prizes being purchased from the school funds, and in addition a contribution of over $40 was given to missions. They also expect to donate ten or fifteen dollars to the Red Cross.

The federal government has decided that business firms' contributions to patriotic funds shall be deducted from their business taxes payable.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

They felt their knees grow weak under the weight of their suddenly inert bodies.

"But, Mrs. Brood, he wants you!" came almost in a groan from the lips of Mr. Riggs.

She lighted a cigarette. "If he wants me, Mr. Riggs, let him come and get me," she said sending a long cloud of smoke toward the ceiling as she lay back in the chair and crossed her feet in absolute, utter contentment.

"He will come, my dear old friends—oh, I am sure that he will come."

"You—you don't know him, Mrs. Brood," lamented Mr. Dawes. He's made of steel. He—"

"He will come and unlock the door, Mr. Dawes," said she, serenely. "He is also made of flesh and blood. The steel you speak of was in his heart. It has been withdrawn at last. My friends, he will come and get me—very soon, ring for Jones, please."

"Wha—what are you going to do?" Mr. Dawes had the temerity to ask.

"Send a cablegram to my husband saying—" She paused to smile at the flaming logs, a sweet, rapturous smile that neither of the old men could comprehend.

"Saying—what?" demanded Mr. Riggs, anxiously.

"That I cannot come to him," she said, as she stretched out her arms toward the east.

THE END.
