WATCH YOUR WEIGHTS

Every householder should have a weigh-scale, accurately adjusted and easily accessible at all times. He should use it in all cases of suspicion, and in this way, perhaps better than in any other, he will be able to distinguish the honest from the dishonest dealer. Most dealers are honest, or presumably honest. Some will inadvertantly make mistakes. Some will do so deliberately and continue the dishonest practice as long as they can get away with it. We have a scale that is fairly accurate, and if cheated in weight we have a way of finding it out. TWELVE GREAT SERIALS IN 1917 State-wide prolibition was de-There are some we have never delightful secrets of the MRS. JAMES McGILLIVRAY. We refret to learn of the death of Mrs. James McGillivray of Glenelg. who passed away Monday afternoon after a brief illness of eight days' duration from pneumonia. She was a daughter of 1. The Youth's Companion-52 is the late Angus McInnis, and was born in Glenelg on the 12th of March, 1852. She spent her whole life in the township, where she was always held in the highest esteem by the community.

She married Mr. James McGillivray, who, with a family of three sons and three daughters, are left to mourn an affectionate wife and mother. The sons are, Norman and Stewart, M. Marshall, C. McGirr. Charles in Saskatchewan, and Robert, on the homestead. The daughters are Mrs. David Davis, in Glenelg, and Maud and Sarah at home.

The deceased was always rugged woman, till her last illness, and her death so unexpectedly has come as a shock to the community. She was a Baptist in religion, and a consistent and faithful member of the church.

Interment took place yesterday to Durham cemetery.

McWILLIAMS. The first snow storm of the season is now on, and will put a stop to the ploughing for a time. Miss Edna M. Ritchie is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Grtie Lawrence. Mr. Roy Lawrence is out with his gasoline outfit, running the clover huller for Mr. W. Jacques.

Mr. Joe Wilson, accompanied by a lady friend, spent Sunday even-ing with Mr. and Mrs. R. Watson. Miss Susie Tucker of Holstein was home over Sunday, and remained over for the entertainment on Monday night. Walkerton Creamery cream drawers have quit for this season. This year the creamery offered a prize of $10 to the one with the largest number of patrons on their route. The prize was awarded to Mr. G. A. Watson.

Ebenezer church held their Sunday school anniversary last Sunday. It was a success in every way. The weather was fine, the roads good for the season, and the attendance good at both services. Rev. Mr. Berry, a former pastor. had charge of the service both afternoon and evening. He has lost none of his old-time vigor. His services were very much appreciated. On Monday the Sunday school entertainment was held, it being one of the best held for some time. Rev. Mr. Bowes occupied the chair. The speakers were Rev. Mr. Berry, Mr. Falkingham of the Varney circuit, Mr. G. Lothian of Dromore, and Mrs. H. Mc-Lean sang a couple of solos, which were rendered in her usual pleasing manner. Miss Acheson of Proton also gave a couple of well rendered solos, which were much appreciated. Misses Gertie Lawrence and Edna Ritch sang. and sing beautifully together. Mr. and Mrs. T. Daly gave some fine wusi: with their autoharp and mouth organ. Master James and Hooper on their violins, accompanied by Mrs. Will on the organ, were an excellent number. Quite a few recitations were given by næmbers of the school, which were well rendered. The meeting closed with the NaBonel Anthem? Miss Acheson of Proton was the guest of Mrs. H. Tucker. Little Miss May Andrews of near Holstein is spending a week at the home of her uncle, Mr. W. R.

"Fruit-a-tives" Soon Relieved This Dangerous Condition

632 GERRARD St. EAST, TORONTO. "For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas In The Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart and I had pains all over my body, so that I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of Medicine but none of them did me any good. At last, I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone suffering from Indigestion".
