To Sharpen Skates

Why pay out money for having your skates sharpened when you can do it yourself? All that is necessary is a good rat-tail file and a piece of tin. Bend the tin around the file as shown in the sketch and then apply the file to the edge of the skate blade, as is also shown. You can get a file for a small sum—less than the sharpening of the skates cost. And one file can be used to sharpen skates as long as you live.

Is "Mona Lisa" a Copy?

Another "Mona Lisa," varying considerably from the Leonardo which was stolen from the Louvre, is in the possession of Mr. Eyre, an Isleworth collector, and its discovery has aroused considerable interest in art circles.

It is a picture of extraordinary interest, and shows the columns on either side mentioned by Vasari, the early Italian art historian. These columns are also shown in a drawing by Raphael of the "Mona Lisa."

Vasari described the portrait of Leonardo as having "so pleasing an expression and the smile so sweet that while looking at it one thinks it rather Divine than human," and the Isleworth champions contend that this can hardly be said about the Louvre picture, in which the expression has been variously described as enigmatic and enchantingly diabolical.

Removing Ink Stains

Ink can be removed from light colored fabrics by washing with milk, then with turpentine, rolling up the goods for half an hour and washing in water.

Separating Postage Stamps

In damp weather, or by careless placing, postage stamps sometimes stick together. When this happens, place them on a newspaper in a hot oven for a few moments. As soon as the stamps get hot the glue dies and by pressing between the finger it is readily broken and the stamps may be easily separated without the least damage.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS CAN NOT BE CURED BY LOCAL APPLICATIONS,

as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All druggists. 75c.

MAKE HUN POWER MORAL

Allies' Aim Re-stated by Henderson—Germany Conquers Own Allies

Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, a member of the British War Cabinet of five, made last week the following statement of the allies' aims in the war: "We mean by Prussian militarism the organized effort toward world domination by the illegitimate application of immoralized military power. We do not suggest that every form of militarism or use of force is wrong; even in civil life we regard force as necessary. What the allies contend in regard to Germany is that its great military powers are not subject to proper moral constraint; and that, despite what has gone on for nearly two and a half years, there has so far been no change in this respect, and no prospect of a change, so far as Germany itself is concerned."

"Suppose peace were made on a basis of status quo ante bellum. You must not forget that, while Germany has failed to conquer her enemies, she has conquered her allies. Germany has subordinated Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey wholly to her will. Middle Europe has become a political reality. It is impossible to return to a status quo as between Germany and her allies, and that reason alone would make it impossible to accept a status quo as between Germany and her enemies."

SENATE BACKS WILSON

Democratic Leader Warns Belligerents—No Second Note

Approval of President Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms from the European belligerents was voted last Friday night by the United States Senate at the conclusion of three days of stirring debate. Discussion had reached a climax during the day with a sensational declaration by Senator Lewis, chief spokesman for the Democrats, replying to Republican criticism of the President's course. Without referring directly to the submarine controversy, the Senator said the United States could not keep out of the war if it continued, and that America would not again accept misconception of orders or seal of any officer as an excuse for an injury to a citizen or property.

Following the Cabinet meeting on the same day Secretary of State Lansing announced that President Wilson had authorized him to say that the United States Government had no other note in contemplation, and that such information was being sent to all American diplomatic representatives abroad.

Many Soldiers Missing

Enemy Submarine Sank Transport Ivernia in Mediterranean

The following British official statement was issued last week: "The Ivernia was sunk by an enemy submarine in the Mediterranean on January 1, during bad weather and while carrying troops. At present four military officers and 146 men are missing." A supplementary report issued by the Admiralty says that 33 of the crew of the Ivernia and 120 men are missing. The Cunard liner Ivernia, a 14,278-ton steamer, had been for some time in the British Government service as a transport, having at various times carried troops from Canada and between British ports and the Dardanelles.

Greece Playing False

Telegraphing from Athens under date of Friday, January 5, Reuter's correspondent says: "Bolsterous scenes at Paros yesterday evening resulted in the withdrawal of the French naval detachment stationed in the Town Hall there. This is regarded in Athens as an ill-omen of future developments. The Greek Royal army is only awaiting orders from Germany to attack the allies," said M. Diomedes, former Minister of Finance, in Paris on Sunday. M. Diomedes is on a special mission for Eleftherios Venizelos.

Canadian Fish For Tommies

The British authorities have completed arrangements for giving the British troops a regular ration of Canadian fish. A weekly ration is planned, and orders will be placed at once for several million pounds of frozen fish from Canada. The new demand will further stimulate the industry in all parts of the Dominion. New Zealand and Australia have also arranged to give their men in hospital a weekly fish ration through the Canadian Fish Supply Department in London.

CANADIAN AIR CORPS

Practical Steps Taken to Organize Twenty Squadrons

Lieut.-Col. Hoare of the Imperial Aviation Forces leaves for Canada this week. The Treasury has sanctioned the establishment of twenty reserve squadrons for the air service of Canada, and, accordingly, under Col. Hoare, five officers with flying experience, four technical experts, and two with special knowledge of aviation building are proceeding to Canada. The Imperial Government is paying all expenses. Sir David Henderson, Chief of the Air Service, wrote to Sir George Perley recently: "I am very glad to be able to tell you that the Canadians in the air corps are doing very well, and in every way do credit to the Dominion."

The scheme for an all-Canadian flying corps, upon which Col. Grant Mordein has been working for the past year, seems to be disposed of by the announcement. The establishment of a training school and a factory in the Dominion are the two chief objects in view. The Canadian scheme really reached a deadlock on account of the financial proposals, as the Treasury refused to find the bulk of the money, but this will be forthcoming since the organization is Imperial. At present, when daring exploits are performed by Canadians, the credit does not go to the Dominion, but Sir George Perley has now arranged with the director of the corps to keep him informed of such cases. Col. Grant Mordein is submitting a bulky report to Gen. Turner in hope that the scheme may be made thoroughly Canadian. He asserts that his recommendations have been approved by the Royal Aerial Services as workable. The scheme now announced is fathered by the Imperial Munitions Board.

DOBRUDJA EVACUATED

Teutons Captured Braila—Russians Retired Without Loss

The Danube port of Braila, Roumania's chief commercial centre, was captured by Mackensen last Friday. Troops of the Danube army advancing from the south and west united with the Bulgarian forces on the Dobrudjan side of the city to effect its capture. German and Austrian battalions broke through the Braila bridgehead position and in a desperate house-to-house struggle captured Gurgutei and Romanul, two towns within all of the River Danube, from its source to its mouth, came into the hands of the Teuton force.

Petrograd reported on Friday: The Russians have evacuated the province of Dobrudja. Following the capture of Matchin and other important positions by the Teutonic forces, Sakaroff's troops began the retirement toward Braila. The evacuation movement was carried out by the Czar's forces without loss, according to the latest reports received here and made public by General Maurice, Chief Director of Military Operations at the London War Office.

The Russian forces in Central Roumania took the offensive along a fifteen-mile front southwest of the Sereth on Saturday and threw the enemy back at several points. The counter-attack, which was launched on a line running from Fokshany south to Fundeni, midway between Buzeu and Rimnik-Sarat, succeeded in piercing the German front near Obilechti, Berlin admits. Two other Russian attacks along the Moldavian front were successful. A surprise assault won trenches from von Gerck's troops in the Otuz Valley, and the points northwest of Fokshany, near Kapatung, lost to the Germans on Friday, were restored.

Drive Through Palestine

British Far East of Suez—Turks Face Three Foes Anxiously

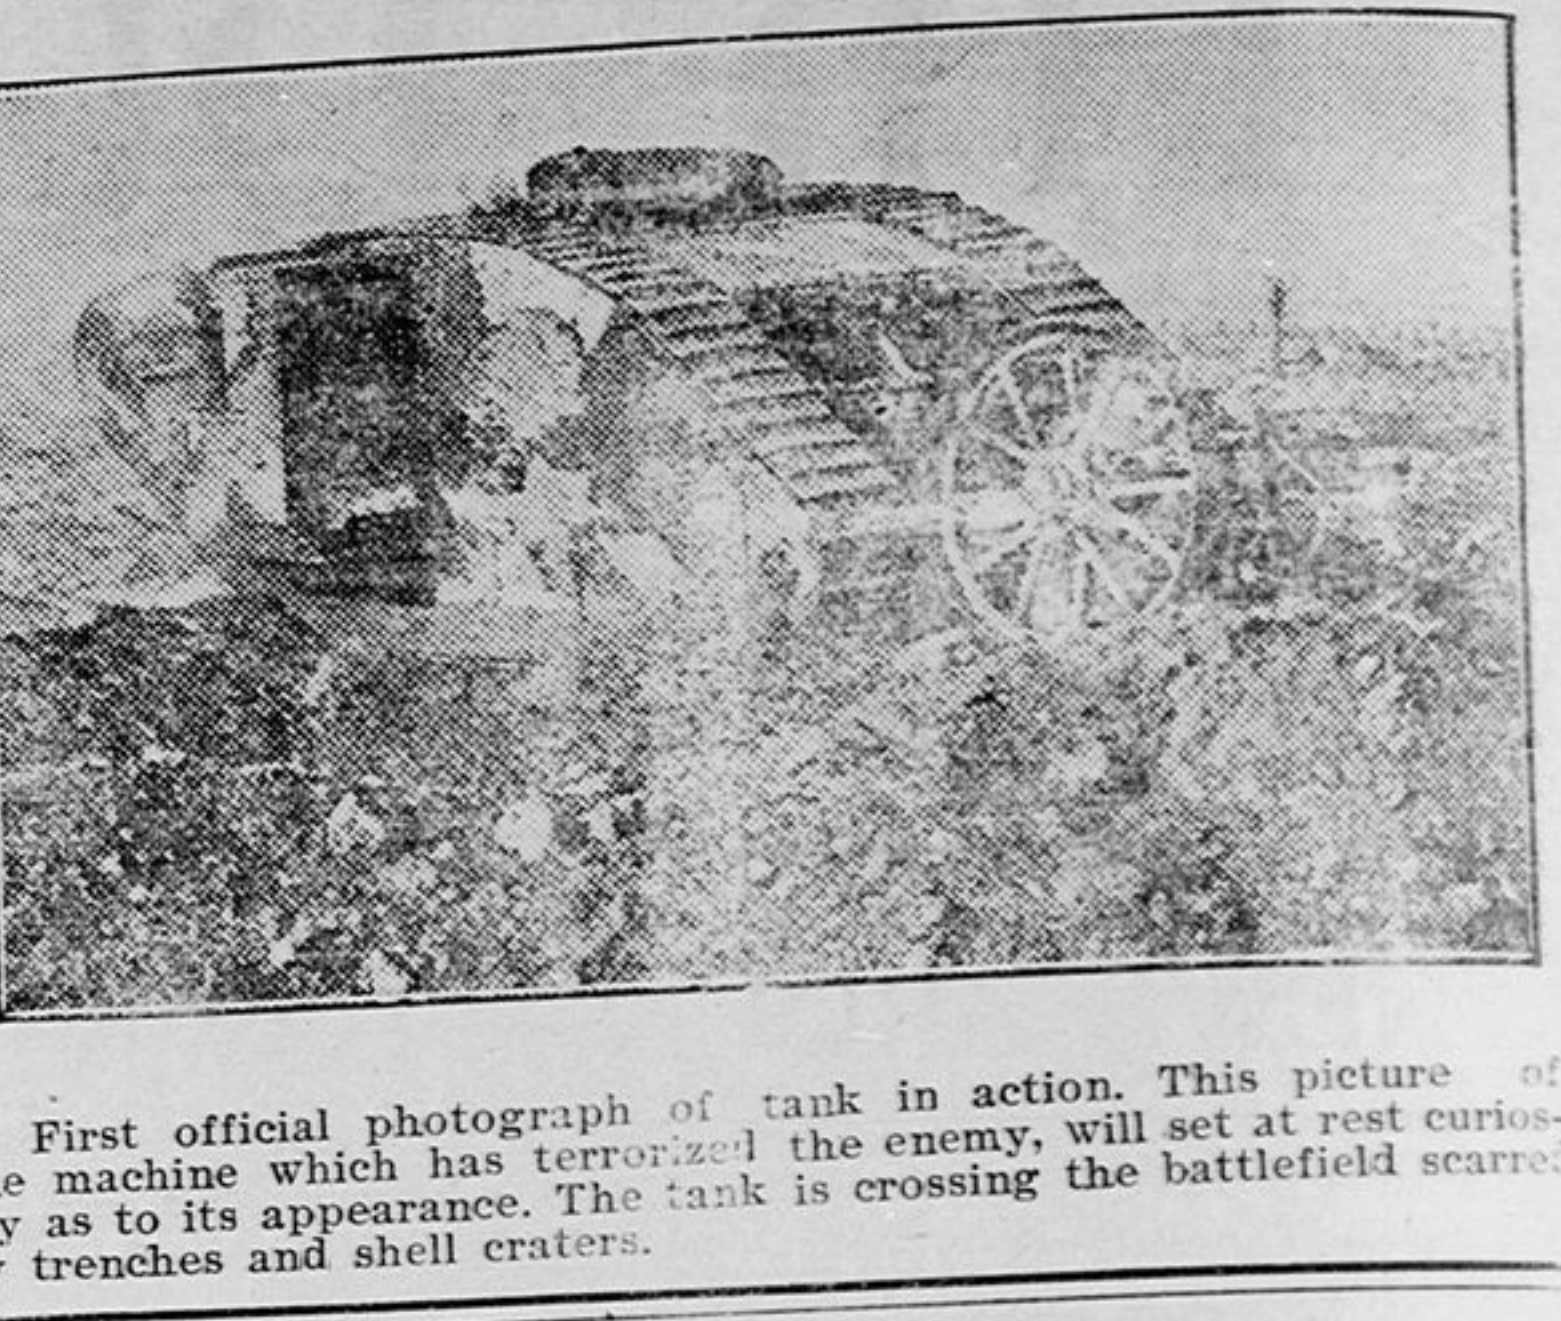

Official despatches received in Washington indicate that the British forces in the Suez region are preparing for a drive through Palestine. The object of this move is to join the Russian army that has moved south from the Caucasus, cutting the Baghdad railroad and ending Germany's dream of an Eastern empire. It is not permitted to reveal the nature of the despatches, but the conclusions are amply supported by the facts of the present military situation of the belligerents. The British forces at Suez recently captured El-Arish, 75 miles east of Suez, and have pushed on beyond there, farther east of Suez than at any time since the war broke out. The Czar's army in the north has been reinforced, and the Tigris army has been re-organized, and is pushing up the valley. Everything points to excellent chances of success if a combined effort from three directions is made against the Turks. The Turkish censorship has closed down tightly on all news from Palestine, particularly from the Lebanon district, where it is evident preparations are being made to resist such a move.

Huns Murder "North Wales" Men

An Admiralty announcement of another case "of callous disregard for the lives of non-combatants come to light," says that nothing further has been heard of the British steamer North Wales, proceeding in ballast from Hull to Canada, which a German wireless edspatch on November 10 reported as having been torpedoed. As only one piece of wood marked "North Wales" has been washed ashore, together with some bodies on the Cornish coast, it is presumed that the crew which took to the boats in the gales then raging were drowned.

Haig Leads 2,000,000

A special Havas despatch from the British front in France last week said: "General Sir Douglas Haig today commands the largest army group ever levied on her soil. The number of effectives in the British army in France on January 1 was nearly 2,000,000 men, completely trained and ready day or night to receive orders from their Commander-in-chief. This figure only refers to the British forces in France, and is exclusive of those employed in the defence of Great Britain, Ireland, India, Saloniki, Egypt, etc."
