The 1st. of February will see the commencement of a non-commissioned officers training class for 248th Battalion, now being organized in Grey county. This is an opportunity for every man to take the non-commissioned officers' training. Each man who enlists with the 248th Battalion will be eligible for this class. Training previous to the opening of the class will stand you in good stead when the test comes. It must not be said of the 248th that every man did not get his chance, because here it is. Remember, efficiency holds the key to promotion in the 248th Battalion.

Other agencies are at work to stop the importation of liquor into Ontario than the temperance boosters. An exchange has heard of the case of one lady in its place of abode who had ordered a case of the needful, and duly received the consignment. When opened it contained four bricks instead of four bottles. Another worthy soul also of the female sex, receiving the bottles all right but on drawing the corks found they contained nothing stronger than water. True it is that hope deferred maketh the heart sick but imagine these disappointments.
