On Friday evening last an elderly man, who gave his name as George Brooks, was found wandering along the road in Dunn township near the home of Mr. Judson Brown. As he was acting in a suspicious manner, the assistance of some young men who were at a party in the neighborhood was obtained, and he was taken into custody, brought to town and turned over to county constable Wm. Hamilton, who placed him in the lock-up. Brooks, who said his home was in Blenheim, had with him an old valise, and when this was examined it was found to contain a large sum of money in bills and drafts.

Mr. Joseph Brown, teller of the Bank of Commerce, was located, and with Brooks and the constable went over to the bank, counted the money and deposited it to Brooks' credit, the amount totalling $3,327.45. Some of the drafts had been outstanding for several months, and a number of the bills apparently had been buried at some time.

On Saturday, when Brooks was questioned, he explained that he was 60 years old, and that he had been living for some years with his brother on a farm at Blenheim, both being bachelors. He accounted for his possession of so much money by saying that he had sold some farms in the west. Apparently he was suspicious of banks, and seemed very much annoyed that his money had been taken from him and deposited. He said he had left Blenheim with no very definite destination in his mind, and was, as he thought, on his way back, but had lost his way. It was when enquiring as to his whereabouts that he aroused suspicion.

As it would not have been safe to admit him to start off again with so much cash in his possession, he was given a small amount for personal expenses, and arrangements made to have the bank transmit the balance to Blenheim. Apparently railways share with banks in his regard, for he preferred to walk home rather than spend money for a ticket on the train.

Allies Sweep 80-Mile Front

British Take Peronne, Bapaume and 60 Villages

FRENCH DRIVE 12 MILES

Greatest Advances on West Front Since the Marne—Over 900 Square Miles of France Re-won

A Despatch from London Sunday reads: The German forces have been compelled to surrender nearly 1,000 square miles of conquered French territory. The British forces continued their rapid advance on the heels of the enemy along a front of 45 miles, entering the German positions to a depth of ten miles in places. The important towns of Peronne, Bapaume, Chaumes and Nesle were captured, in addition to 60 villages.

Saturday night's report from headquarters in France read: "Bapaume has been occupied by our troops after stiff fighting with the German guard. The town has been systematically pillaged by the enemy. All private houses and public buildings alike have been destroyed, and everything of value carried off or burned. Our advance has proceeded rapidly during the day on both banks of the Somme. South of the river we have entered the enemy's positions on a front of about sixteen miles and occupied the villages of Fresnes, Horgny, Villers-Carbonnel, Barleux, Eterpigny, and La Maisonnette. North of the river, in addition to the town of Bapaume, we are in possession of the village of Le Transloy, Biefvillers, Bihucourt, Achiet-le-Grand, Achiet-le-Petit, Ablainzeville, Bucquoy and Esarts. We also hold Quesney Farm, 1,500 yards northeast of the last named village, and have gained the western and northwestern defences of Monchy-au-Bols."

Advance on Front of 45 Miles The text of Sunday's statement reads: "We have occupied Nesle, Chaumes and Peronne. Pressing back the enemy's rear guards, we advanced several miles during the past twenty-four hours to a depth up to ten miles in places on a front of approximately forty-five miles, from south of Chaumes to the neighborhood of Arras. An encounter took place yesterday between a patrol of eight of our airplanes and sixteen enemy machines, with the result that in twenty minutes' fighting the hostile formation was broken up. Two German airplanes were destroyed and two others driven down damaged. All our machines returned."

Glorious Day For France The official story of the French advance is told in the official reports: Saturday morning's report, chronicling the beginning of the offensive, stated that north of the Avre and between the Avre and the Oise French detachments continued to exert vigorous pressure on the enemy and during the night extended their progress on a front of 20 kilometres. The text of Saturday night's statement read: "Along the whole front between Andechy and the Oise (about 15 miles) the enemy, declining battle, abandoned under the pressure of our troops powerfully and skillfully fortified lines, which they had held for more than two years. To-day our advance movement continued rapidly. Our advance guard entered Roye, pursuing an enemy contingent, which blew up crossings and streets in the interior section. North and northeast of Lassigny, which was likewise occupied, we have reached at several points, and even advanced beyond the road between Roye and Noyon. In the course of our pursuit we made prisoners, who have not yet been counted."

Take Entire German First Line "From the Avre to the Aisne on a front of more than sixty kilometres the advance of our troops continued during the course of the day. North of the Avre our cavalry this morning entered Nesle and we immediately sent out patrols in the direction of the Somme. There were several engagements with enemy rear guard detachments, who resisted feebly. The inhabitants of Nesle acclaimed our troops. Northeast of Lassigny we have up to the present advanced more than twenty kilometres in the direction of Ham. Further to the south our light cavalry detachments, moving along the valley of the Oise, occupied Noyon about ten o'clock this morning. Between the Oise and Soissons (Aisne sector) the entire German first line, as well as the villages of Carlepoint, Morsam and Nouvron Vingre fell into our hands. We have gained a foothold on the northern plateau of Soissons and occupied Crouy."

Austria Wants Armistice Despatches from Vienna say that the German Chancellor was received Saturday by the Austrian Emperor and Empress at the Luxemburg Castle, near Vienna. Political circles in Vienna, the despatch adds, are considering the possibility of entering into negotiations with the Russian Cabinet, with a view to an armistice. Emperor Charles is very anxious about the matter. The German Chancellor will leave Vienna Saturday night for Berlin and will immediately visit the German Emperor at headquarters.

Greater Need For Food Than Men The British Government regards the production of food of greater importance at the present time than the sending of additional men into the army. Chancellor Bonar Law said, in response to questions in the House of Commons, that the Cabinet had informed the War Office and the Board of Agriculture that this was its view.

An official of the Conference Committee of railroad managers in New York announced at 1 o'clock Sunday that the railroad strike was off.

A Spring Tonic

Substantial Proof by a Canadian Witness.

Beechmont, Ont.—"I feel it my duty to tell what Dr. Pierce's remedies have done for me. When I commenced taking them I was completely run down. I have taken altogether nine bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription,' together with the 'Pleasant Pellets' and can truthfully say that I feel like a new woman. I would certainly recommend these medicines to any one suffering as I did."—Mrs. Wm. PLUMLEY, Beechmont, Ont.

An imitation of nature's method of replacing waste of tissue, enriching impoverished blood and increasing nerve force is when you take an alterative extract of herbs and roots made with pure glycerine, without the use of alcohol, like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This vegetable medicine coaxes the digestive functions and helps in the assimilation of food, or rather takes from the food just the nutriment the blood requires.

Pure blood is essential to good health. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery not only cleanses the blood of impurities, but it increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and enriches the body with an abundant supply of pure, rich blood. It thus cures scrofula, eczema, erysipelas, boils, pimples and other eruptions that mar and scar the skin.

HOME GIRL BURNED TO DEATH

(Grand Valley Star.) A terribly sad accident occurred at Samuel Irvine's, Luther-Garafraxa townline, about five o'clock Sunday afternoon, when Hilda Pelter, a little English girl about 13 years of age, was burned so badly that death ensued in about 12 hours. Her apron caught in the stove door while putting something in to burn and in releasing it the whole apron burst into flames. The terror-stricken child ran outside, where the wind whipped the flames to a quicker blaze, and though the six-year-old son of Mr. Irvine threw water on the burning child, in a few minutes all her clothes, save part of her stockings and her boots, were burned off. The girl was still sensible enough to walk into the house and lie down on a couch, where Mr. and Mrs. Irvine found her a few minutes afterwards. A doctor was immediately on hand, but he could do no more than alleviate the victim's sufferings. The body, from the chin to the boot-tops, was burned to a crisp. She remained conscious to the last.
