 in a paper which read "Fruit-a-tives like walking on air." I bought some, and try it for a very short time, I felt better, and now I feel fine.

 My appetite, relish everything

FLESHERTON

A very pretty house wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening April 25, 1917, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 Thomas Lever, when their eldest daughter, Elva Mildred, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Charles H. Martin, a popular young man of East Mountain, Kimberley. The wedding took place at 5:30 p.m., the ceremony being conducted by Rev. James Dudgeon, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Harold, entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Emerson Wickens. The bridal party took their place beneath an artist-ically decorated evergreen arch.
 The bride was prettily attired in cream silk, enriched with silk embroidered net trimmed with pearl ornaments. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms, while the groom wore a bouquet of the same. The bride's bouquet was of carnations, sweet peas, roses and maidenhair fern. The young couple were unattended. After congratulations, about 60 guests entered the prettily decorated tea-room, and partook of a dainty wedding repast. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will reside at Eugenia.
 The presents were numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the young couple were held. Among those present from a distance were: Misses Nettie and Cora Martin, of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. J.
 Lever and son, Harold, and Mrs. S.
 Henry, of Markdale; Mr. and Mrs.
 Robt. McMullen and daughter, Mildred, of Duncan; and Mr. Nat. Caswell, of Proton Station.

In the High School competition for the best composition on "How can the Ontario High School Boy by working on a farm this summer, help himself, the farmer and the Empire," a number of the pupils here wrote, and prizes were awarded as follows: 1st ($5), Marjory Acheson; 2nd ($3), Clarence Fisher; 3rd ($2), Bessie McVicar.

The following pupils of the High school here were successful at the Easter exams, and will be given their certificates after three months work on a farm: Lower school—Marie Madill, Charlotte Porter, Elsie Caswell, Ruby Caswell, Mina Heard, Elda Parslow, Pearl Allen, Clarence Fisher, Lily Lever, Frank Bunt, Normal school—D. Wilson, H. Har-grave, L. Muir, M. McArthur, M.
 Knox, M. Legate, H. McLean, F. Parliament, W. Pattison, A. Allen, Jr.

 Matriculation—L. Muir, W. Harrison.

Dr. Murray and C. N. Richardson have each purchased a new Chevrolet car; W. Buskin, W. J. Boyd, W.
 Orr and Dr. McLean, each a Ford.

The fourth quarterly communion service for the year, the last in the pastorate of Rev. James Dudgeon, was held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning last. Miss Charlotte Rowe of Dundalk gave a well-rendered solo, and at the evening service sang sweetly again with a beautifully rendered violin obligato by Miss Hulse. Mr. Thos.
 Yellowless of Toronto spoke in the Presbyterian church in the interests of the Dominion Alliance, and gave an interesting address.

Messrs. Joseph and Frank Duncan, Mrs. J. M. Duncan and Mrs. W.
 Buskin were in Toronto over Sunday attending a memorial service for the late Gunner G. Scott, who was killed in action at the front.
 Gunner Scott was a grandson of the late John Duncan of Artemesia, and lived at Owen Sound before going with his parents to Toronto.

Mrs. Joseph Clinton of the Methodist church gave a very interesting paper on missionary work at the Guild meeting in the Presbyterian church last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fairley of Toronto are on a short visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson.

Mrs. Robt. Best is in Toronto visiting her son, who is in the hospital and, we learn, shows but slight improvement.

Mrs. A. S. VanDusen returned from Toronto on Saturday and reports her granddaughter, whom she visited, in a very critical condition.
 A party of oil men motoring here from Midland on Saturday evening met with a mishap near Rock Mills, where their car left the road and was badly damaged in the turn over. The occupants fortunately escaped much injury.

The oil men, who commenced drilling here a week ago, continue their operations, and representatives of another company are here now, who have secured options, and will commence drilling as soon as machinery can be placed.

Mrs. James Paton visited her sister at Swinton Park last week.

Miss Carlotta Rowe of Dundalk visited over the week-end with Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling.

Mrs. T. J. Fisher, and little son, are visiting her brother in the city this week.

Mr. Charles Hales, who has been absent nearly 14 years, returned on Saturday from Yuma, Arizona, to visit his parents. Charlie has seen much of our own west and the United States since leaving here, and his friends are pleased to see him back again.

On Monday evening of last week a large number of the young friends of Miss Elva Lever, bride-to-be, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart and gave her a kitchen utensils shower.

Mr. McKillop, Jr., who has been assisting his father here for some time, has secured a position at Chatham, and his wife will join him in their new home soon.

On Monday evening a large company of young people assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Lever and spent an enjoyable evening with the bride and groom, before leaving for their new home.

At the annual election of officers in the Young People's Society in the Methodist church on Monday evening, the following were elected: President, Miss Wallace; vice-president, Mrs. H. S. White; Bible study, Miss Lowndes; missionary, Miss Latimer; literary, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong; citizenship, Frank Thurston; social, Mrs. W. Moore; mus-

A Car of Proven Quality

THE Ford Car has been on the market twelve years, surely long enough to have proven its high quality. There is nothing experimental about it. Every part has stood the test of time and proven its stability with hard service. No other car has ever approached the durability records of the Ford.

No matter what price you pay for a car you cannot get one with a stancher chassis. Government Laboratory tests have shown that the different parts of the Ford car are superior to those in any other car. Ford Vanadium steel has never been equalled in strength.

If you want a car that can plough through deep mud, sand and gravel—that can cross fields, corduroy roads and ford streams—that can climb the steepest hills with ease—that will give the greatest mileage all the year round with the least expense and care—then there is only ONE car for you—The Ford.
