On Monday of last week we made a trip to Toronto, and were delighted at the excellent crops all along the line. Grain ripened so rapidly that we noticed in many places the hay had to be abandoned in order to take care of the grain crops. Scarcity of harvest help is apparently general.

Dr. Strang, who has been connected with Goderich Collegiate Institute for 46 years, during the greater portion of the time as principal, has resigned his position, to take effect at the end of the present year. He has been teaching continuously since January, 1864. It seems to us he taught in Owen Sound prior to going to Goderich.

We congratulate Mr. Nelson E. McGuire of Egrement, and Miss Emma Ritchie of Glenelg, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ritchie, on Wednesday of last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. M. Whaley, in the presence of only immediate friends and relatives. The young couple will reside in Egrement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Latimer left last week for Toronto, where they intend to remain. They have been residents of Durham for about 17 years, and carry with them the best wishes of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Latimer have a kindly feeling towards Durham, and their reason for moving to the city is that they may be with their daughters, who have good positions there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mistele, of Rodney, returned yesterday morning, after spending a week with their son, Mr. H. G. Mistele, manager of the Royal Bank branch here. They made the trip by auto, and the distance registered was 107 miles. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harris, who enjoyed a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Mistele.

JOHN MCGILLIVRAY

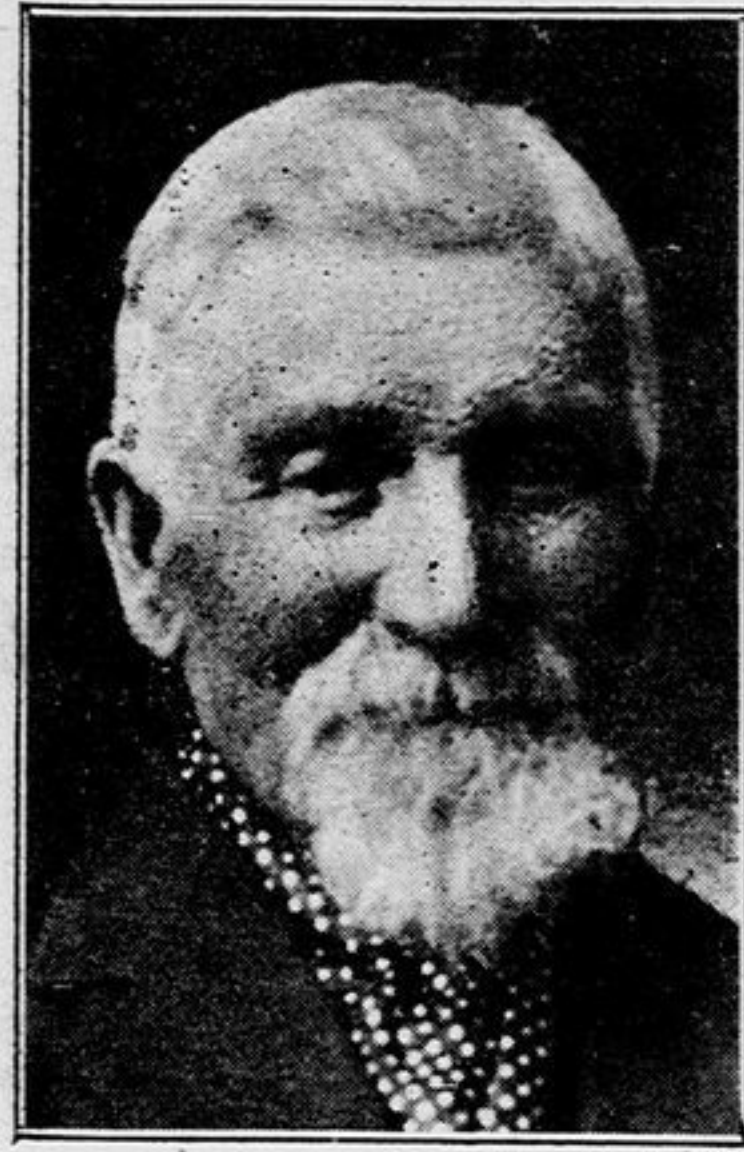

After an illness of two months, Mr. John McGillivray of Bunesan, passed away on Saturday, August 18th, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Andrew Ford, of Durham.

He was born on April 1st, 1859, on the old homestead near Bunesan. On May 4th, 1900, he was married to Miss Gracie McNab, who died on March 17th, 1905. They had two children, Mary, who died in infancy and Johnnie, a boy of scarcely 15 years of age, who is left behind to sorrow.

Other immediate members of the family are his sister, Mrs. Andrew Ford, of Durham, and his brother, J. M. McGillivray, Major in the Salvation Army, now serving as chaplain with the Canadian troops overseas, at Shoreham Camp, England. He was unable to be present in this time of sorrow. His wife, who lives in Toronto, was present at the death and burial.

During Mr. McGillivray's illness he was faithfully visited by Rev. Mr. Wylie, of the Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Whaley of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. Mr. Moyer of the Methodist church, for whose kindness the relatives are deeply appreciative. Throughout his illness he bore his intense sufferings with Christian courage and fortitude and gave a clear evidence to all of his readiness to meet God. All who knew him respected him for his principles of truth and honesty.

The funeral service took place on Monday afternoon, the service at the home being conducted by Rev. Mr. Moyer and Rev. Mr. Wylie. He was laid to rest in Zion cemetery, the service there being taken by Rev. Mr. Moyer.

THE LATE JOHN ELLISON
A pioneer of Glenelg since 1854, who died last week in his 85th year.

JOHN ELLISON.

Mr. John Ellison, a pioneer of Glenelg, died last week at his home near Waudby.

He was born in Dumfriesshire, Scotland, on the 26th of September, 1832. In 1842, he came to Canada with his parents and settled at Brantford, where he remained till he grew up to manhood. In 1854, he came to Glenelg, and cleared lot 19, concession 3, E. G. R., and remained there to the time of his death. He was married in 1860 to Mary McEachern, who died in 1908.

He leaves a family of four sons, Sandy and William, in Saskatchewan, John and James, in Glenelg, and three daughters, Mrs. Charles Vaughan, of Loreburn, Sask., Mrs. George Torry and Mrs. Baker, in Glenelg. Two sons and one daughter died a number of years ago.

From a number of personal interviews with the deceased some years ago, we learned to respect him very highly. He was genial in his manner, a bright and interesting conversationalist, and for a man of his advanced years he was well preserved, both mentally and physically. Since his death, we have heard him highly spoken of by neighbors who have known him for years. He was a good Christian character, and a most devoted member of the Baptist church.

He died on Wednesday of last week, and the remains were laid to rest on Friday afternoon at Markdale.

MRS. R. B. WALKER.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. R. B. Walker, who passed away on Thursday, the 16th inst.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Marion Whiteford, was the second daughter of the late Wm. Whiteford. She was born on the 14th of December, 1851, at Allan Park, and spent the greater part of her life in that vicinity.

In 1872, she was married to the late Robert Walker, a teacher, who died sixteen years ago. A few years after the death of her husband, she moved to Durham, where she resided for the past ten years.

Though in fair health, she has not been rugged for a number of years, and for some time she grew weaker gradually, and death was not wholly unexpected.

Besides her only daughter, engaged on the Durham public school staff, she leaves four sisters, Mrs. Stephen, who lived with her for some years, Mrs. B. B. Moore and Mrs. W. H. Whittaker, of Victoria, B.C., and Mrs. J. L. Brown, of Van-kleek Hill.

The deceased lady was highly esteemed in the community, and particularly in the Baptist church, of which she was a devoted member. The remains were interred on Saturday afternoon at the Sixteenth cemetery, on the Durham road, near Hanover, her pastor, Rev. Mr. Wylie, conducting the services at the home and at the grave-side.

The Shoe and Leather Journal says:—"If local merchants did more advertising and less whining about departmental stores, there would be less to whine about. The brightest and most successful men in business to-day are those who have built up their trade through local advertising."
