SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST LAND REGULATIONS

The sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, who was at the commencement of the present war, and has since continued to be a British subject, or a subject of an allied or neutral country, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion Land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for District. Entry by proxy may be made on certain conditions. Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of land in each of three years.

In certain districts a homesteader may secure an adjoining quarter-section as pre-emption. Price $3 per acre. Duties—Residence six months in each of three years after earning homestead patent and cultivate 50 acres extra. May obtain pre-emption patent as soon as homestead patent on certain conditions. A settler after obtaining homestead patent, if he cannot secure a pre-emption, may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3 per acre. Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

Holders of entries may count time of employment as farm laborers in Canada during 1917, as resident duties, under certain conditions. When Dominion Lands are advertised or posted for entry, returned soldiers who have served overseas and have been honorably discharged, receive one day priority in applying for entry at local Agent's office (but not Sub-Agency). Discharge papers must be presented to Agent.

W. W. CORY, Deputy Minister of the Interior.

FLESHERTON

A deeply impressive memorial service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning, in memory of the late Richard Wilcock, who fell in defence of his country in France on August 1st. The honor paid the deceased soldier, and the sympathy felt for the throng of friends from this comberaveid widowed mother and family was shown by the immense throng of friends from this community and neighboring villages, which crowded the church, and many were unable to get within. Two brothers, Thomas, in the west, and Will, in France, were the only members of the family absent. The pulpit, organ, and the deceased's chair in the choir, were prettily and appropriately draped with military emblems and the flags of all the Allies, and Dick's chair also contained a beautiful bouquet of lilies. His rich tenor voice in the choir, which will no more be heard, added greatly to the praise part of the church services. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Belfry, was assisted in the service by Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, the recent pastor, who preached an impressive and comforting sermon from Philip. 1:21—"For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." This, the speaker believed to be true of the deceased, and in applying the text to his life referred fittingly to his steadfast Christian character, his faithful service to his church, and high sense of duty to his God and to his country, which led him to offer himself in service in the present great conflict for liberty and justice. The choir rendered a touching number, and Miss Richardson and Miss Trimble sang sweetly "The Hand that was Wounded for Me," a favorite of the deceased's.

Murray—Lowndes.—A quiet, but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. George Lowndes, Echo P., Brantford, at 10:30 o'clock, a.m. on Wednesday, August 15th, when their second daughter, Edna Rose, was married to Dr. E. C. Murray, L.D.S., of Flesherton, the ceremony being conducted by the bride's father, assisted by her brother-in-law, Rev. G. C. Raymer, M.A., B.D., of Caistorville. Mr. Fred Lowndes, brother of the bride, played the wedding march. The stately bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, looked charming in a very dainty gown of white lace with piquet lace trimming. Her travelling costume was of brown gabardine cloth with stylish hat to match. After the wedding breakfast, the happy couple, accompanied by Miss Shirley Murray, motored to Flesherton, being entertained in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Morton, Wareham, before coming to their new home here, where they will be at home to their friends after September 15th. We extend hearty congratulations. The bride received valuable and beautiful wedding gifts.

Bellamy—Wilson.—The home of Mrs. T. W. Wilson here was the scene of a quiet marriage at 10 o'clock on Monday forenoon, August 20th, the 39th anniversary of the marriage of the bride's mother, when her youngest daughter, Mary Burton, became the bride of Mr. Charles J. Bellamy of this place. Rev. A. McVicar, B.A., pastor of Chalmer's church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her mother, looked very pretty in a dainty gown of silk crepe de chene. Her travelling costume was of brown silk with hat to match. The young couple left on the noon train for Owen Sound there taking the boat for a ten-days' trip up the lakes, after which they will reside here, in Mrs. Wilson's cosy residence, Collingwood street. The bride is one of Flesherton's clever and popular young ladies, and your correspondent joins in the good wishes of her numerous friends for happiness in her wedded life.

Mr. John Beeroff is yet in Owen Sound hospital, where he was operated on for an abscess on the bowels. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Piant, 4th line, who were married recently, were given a pleasant surprise on Thursday evening last, when about 50 of their neighbors and friends assembled at their home and gave the bride a very generous kitchen shower. Refreshments were served by the ladies, and an enjoyable evening was spent with the young couple.

A Red Cross knitting tea was given at the home of Mrs. Wm. Davis, Toronto line, on Friday afternoon last, at which the proceeds were $6.

Mr. Samuel Thompson of the east back line was before Magistrates McMullen and McTavish here on Friday evening last, charged with abusing one of his own cows by dogging and chasing severely. Considerable evidence was heard on both sides, but the magistrates not agreeing on a conviction, the case was dismissed. Miss Hulse, of the high school staff here, who attended the teachers' summer course in Toronto, passed successfully in her physical culture exam. Miss Lulu Mitchell, who took the kindergarten primary course, was also successful in her examination.

Miss Hazel Henry, and Miss Laura Henry are in the city attending the millinery openings. The former will come to Mr. Hickling's, and the latter will return to her former position at Kempville.

Pte. Charles Thistlethwaite, who has been at the soldiers' convalescent hospital at London, is home for an extended visit.

Mr. Alex. McDonald, C.P.R. operator at Mactier, holidayed over the week-end with his wife here.

Mr. John Cairns, who has been living at Rochester, N.Y., is moving with his wife to Mactier, where he has taken a position with the C.P.R. He spent the week-end with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Treleven, of Hanley, Sask., left on Saturday for home, after two weeks' visit with the latter's brother, Mr. W. J. Caswell and family.

Miss Young, of London, holidayed the past week at Mr. Jas. Fisher's. Mrs. (Rev.) Belfry spent the past week with her father, at his summer cottage at Lake Simcoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, old friends of Rev. and Mrs. Belfry, on Rosemont circuit, paid a short visit at the parsonage one day last week.

Mrs. Andrew Bentham of Toronto is visiting her mother, and other relatives this week.

Miss Wilda Crossley is home from Toronto on two weeks' holiday.

Miss Annie Orr of Toronto, and Miss Lizzie Morton, of Wareham, are visiting Miss Shirley Murray for a few days.

Miss Switzer, formerly of the school staff here, but now teaching at Port Arthur, is on a short visit with Mrs. W. Miller and other old friends here, all of whom deeply sympathize with her on the death in France of her highly esteemed soldier fiancée.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodgson, and Mr. Tilley, of Thornton, visited over the week-end at Mr. W. Trimble's, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Trimble, to visit her daughter for a week.

Miss Clara Duncan is attending the millinery openings in Toronto, and will return to her former position at Kincardine.

Mrs. George Mitchell and daughter, Georgina, of Toronto, are visiting Mrs. Frank Cairns here.

Misses Jean and Sybil Collinson, of Saskatoon are on a holiday, visiting their parents at Cayton.

Mrs. John Wright of Wingham, visited Mrs. Wm. Wright, west back line, last week.

Mrs. T. Grainger of Markdale visited here part of last week.

Miss Victoria Herring, of Toronto, is visiting Mrs. McKinnon.

Mrs. D. McTavish, accompanied by Mrs. Herb Smith, of Owen Sound, left on Tuesday to spend a couple of months with her sons at Regina.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland have returned from an extended visit at Toronto and other points.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Ottewill were up from the city attending the memorial service of the latter's brother.

Mrs. Dudgeon accompanied her husband to visit old friends over the week-end.

THE WESTERN FAIR

September 7th to 15th

The management of the Western Fair of London, Ontario, are making every possible effort this year to eclipse all their previous exhibitions, good as they have been. They are giving special attention to the Live Stock and Agricultural departments. Two thousand dollars was added to the Prize List (which was a liberal one before), making this year's list the best ever offered, and exceedingly liberal in all departments. It is expected that there will be a large entry in all the live stock departments. Special classes in the horse department have been provided for farmers and their sons. Professional breeders and dealers have been barred from these classes and the farmers will have an opportunity of exhibiting against farmers. There are also plenty of classes for the professionals, with liberal prizes offered. Prize lists, entry forms and all information promptly given on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.

Which Was Will?

"No, mum," said the wounded man regretfully, "I never shot a German and I had a good chanst, too. The 'Uns was chargin' in close order. 'Shoot at will!' shouted our captain. 'Which one is he,' I asks; 'an' before anyone could tell me I got it in the chest.'"—Chart and Compass.
