The subscription to The Chronicle will be $1.50 a year after the 17th of November. Up to that date renewals or new subscriptions for 1918 only will be accepted at $1.25. On and after Monday, the 19th of November, the $1.50 rate will be charged. All disposed of so can save 25c. by paying for 1918 on or before the 17th of November. Everybody knows why the price had to go up.

The Y. M. C. A. campaign to raise $1200 in one day has been eminently successful, and the committee have exceeded their objective. It was feared from the start that the goal would not be reached, after last week's canvass for the British Red Cross. At time of going to press, this Friday, it looks as if the donations would run well up to $1500.

As the Proclamation bills simply had to be out this week, and it fell to our lot to do the work, the paper had to be delayed, and is late in consequence. The nominations take place here on Monday, the 19th of November, and the election will be held on Monday, the 17th of December. Mr. Thos. Scott, of Singhampton, Osprey township, is the Returning Officer.

Mrs. David Sharpe, an aged lady of the town, and a resident here for many years, was taken to the House of Refuge this week. For years she has been living alone, had few comforts, and was often destitute of the ordinary necessities of life. It is a great blessing to have such institutions, and we hope the evening of the aged lady's life may be surrounded by many new comforts.

A number of the official board members of the Methodist church motored to Zion on Tuesday evening to meet the official members of that appointment, for the transaction of the business of the regular November meeting. After the close of the session the visiting members were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards, secretary of Zion church, where Mrs. Edwards and daughter had prepared a most satisfying luncheon, to which, needless to say, all the men did justice.

A report, said to have been started in Hanover, was circulated in town Monday evening to the effect that the flags in Hanover and Owen Sound were at half-mast, word having been received that the units to which were attached the former 147th Battalion, had been wiped out in the fighting on the Ypres salient. Not much credence was placed in the story generally, but to reassure those who had relatives in those units, a telephone message to Hanover elicited the information that there was absolutely nothing in the rumor.

Word has been received here that Alex. Turnbull, who is in service at the front, was recently promoted from private to corporal and awarded a Distinguished Conduct Medal for bravery in a hand to hand fight, in which he killed a German soldier and saved the life of an officer. Corporal Turnbull was a resident of the vicinity of Dornoch, and attended the High school here a few years ago, previous to going to British Columbia, where he answered the call for overseas service. He is a nephew of Mr. Thos. Turnbull, who lives a mile or so up the gravel.

A wrecked aeroplane was taken through here Monday, en route to Camp Borden for repairs. The machine had been wrecked between here and Walkerton, and a truck sent to take it home. This became disabled near Priceville and was towed in to the Ford garage here. Another truck was despatched from Camp Borden for the aeroplane, and instructed to tow the disabled truck back to camp as well. They left here Monday noon, and we'll venture to say the return trip was no picnic. The editor of this paper had intended getting an aeroplane next summer, but as he can't afford to purchase trucks to bring the thing home, he has changed his mind, and will be content to ride in a Ford, or run the wheelbarrow.

JOHN ROBERTSON DEAD.

We regret to learn of the death in Ottawa on Monday of Mr. John Robertson, after an illness of several months, from paralysis. He was about 50 years of age, and spent the greater portion of his life in this town, where he was well-known as an efficient and obliging tailor, and a favorite with all his acquaintances. He died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Marshall, where he remained since leaving here some months ago. Two sisters, and one brother, Mrs. Marshall, Miss Annie Robertson, and Mr. Archie Robertson, remain to mourn his death.

He was highly esteemed by all, and his death is regretted. Interment takes place from Mrs. Park's residence to Durham cemetery, on Friday afternoon at two o'clock. We have not full particulars.

We have a stock of ground feed wheat on hand that we are offering for the next few days at $40 per ton, sacks included. If you need feed, buy now, as we have only a limited quantity to offer at this price.—The Rob Roy Cereal Mills Company, Limited.

C. H. Cowan, of Toronto, was in town for a few days last week investigating the circumstances surrounding the recent burning of Mrs. Murdock's house, south of the town. Mr. Cowan is deputy fire-marshall, and is engaged at this work continually. In a conversation with The Chronicle, he stated his opinion that the house had been fired by lightning, as reported previously in these columns. Owing to the large number of fires in the past couple of years, the department is becoming more strict, and investigates nearly every conflagration with which it comes in touch.

Mr. Norman McDougall, whose family lives on the south line, Glenelg, and who, up till recently has been a constant resident in that neighborhood, but has been lately working near Brantford, was stricken with an attack of appendicitis and came to Durham on Monday night on his way home, still suffering from the disease, but his condition was such that Dr. Hutton, his physician, detained him here, and an operation was performed at the local hospital here by Dr. Groves, of Fergus, assisted by Drs. Hutton and Jamieson, on Wednesday morning. His condition is grave, and hopes for his recovery doubtful.

Since the war began, we have had many patriotic addresses in town, but there has been nothing more pleasing and inspiring than the address on Wednesday night by Capt. Best, who spoke in behalf of the Military Y. M. C. A. There was a good full attendance, but many who should be there were absent. A program was rendered, consisting of a solo by Mrs. Buchan, and Miss Blyth, a recitation by Miss Livingston, and a duet by Mrs. Stonehouse and Miss Caldwell. At the close, Mr. Catton was called on as a representative of the town, and advocated strongly the need of giving, and urged that the council be asked for a grant.

The town hall is now provided with a fire escape. For fifty years Durham audiences have escaped danger from fire or other mishaps in connection with entertainments, and nothing might happen for fifty years more. The law requires such an exit in case of an emergency, and the council, after much hesitation has granted the requirement. There were some who always sat in fear during crowded performances, but with the additional exit they can have greater ease of mind. The little steel stairway, for that's all it is, cost the town $225, and we hope they'll never need to use it. The council is perfectly justified in the outlay, in fact it was imperative to make it. None of the public buildings are too well provided with means of escape in case of accident.

DEATH OF MR. SAMUEL WRIGHT.

Mr. Samuel Wright, an old and highly respected resident of Durham up to 15 years ago, died on Saturday last at his home at Kincardine, at the age of 83 years.

Deceased was born in Preston, Rutland County, England, in the year 1834. When he was about 15 years of age, he came to Canada and lived in Toronto for a number of years. Near Toronto, he married Elizabeth Wakefield, who died in 1900.

After his marriage, he moved to Walkerton, where he spent some time. Subsequently he engaged in his trade as a brick-maker, in Hanover, and about 50 years ago went to the county of Huron, near Gormley, and remained there for twelve years. He came to Durham 37 years ago, and for 21 years conducted a brick-yard, up to 15 years ago, when he went to Kincardine and continued in his business as brick-maker. For the past seven or eight years he has not been engaged in active work.

The surviving members of the family consist of three sons and four daughters: Mrs. Nelson, of Toronto; Mrs. John Bryon, of Durham; Mrs. Calvert of Kincardine; Samuel, of Listowel; John, at Proton Station; Hepsy and William, in Kincardine. One son, George, and two daughters, Mrs. Ryder, and Lizzie, died some years ago, and two others died in infancy.

The deceased was a consistent and life-long member of the Anglican church, and the remains were buried in Durham cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, from Trinity church, where a very appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. T. H. Farr, of Kincardine, the pastor of the deceased. Rev. Mr. Dymond, the rector of the church here, assisted in the services. As far as we know, Mr. Wright was always a moderate Conservative.

We have known the deceased for a number of years, and like all others who have known him, we held him in the highest esteem. He was truthful, honorable and honest in all his dealings.

There were present at the funeral, Mrs. Calvert and son, Samuel, of Kincardine; his daughter, Miss Wright, of Kincardine; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, of Toronto; Mr. Wm. Wright of Kincardine; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wright, of Listowel; Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and two children, of Proton Station; Mrs. Wm. Wright and son, Charles, of Hanover; Mr. Thos. O'Neil and daughter, of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Traynor, of Mulock; Mrs. Matthews, and daughter, of Markdale; Mr. Binnie, and Mr. Nielson, of Proton Station; Mr. R. J. Ball, of Hanover; Rev. F.D. Goff of Thornbury; Mrs. D. Ferguson and Mrs. Albert Saul and son, Clifford, of Heathcote; Mr. and Mrs. Payne, of Allan Park; and Mr. Thos. McCue, of Kincardine.

DEATH OF M. K. RICHARDSON.

(By our Flesherton Correspondent.) Mr. M. K. Richardson, ex-M. P., and Registrar for South Grey, who had been in a feeble condition for several months, passed away at his late home here on Monday evening, November 5th, aged 78 years.

Mr. Richardson was a very highly esteemed resident of Flesherton for over 50 years, and his removal is felt to be a great loss to the place. He was a public-spirited man, always taking a deep interest in all that pertained to the welfare of the village and community, socially, educationally, religiously and otherwise. He was well-known throughout the county, and was always interested in the management of its affairs.

But few men possessed the gifts he was blessed with. He had fine literary tastes, a wonderfully well-stored mind, and was an effective and pleasing platform speaker. He had an affable manner, kindly nature and great, good heart, in short, was a cultured, Christian gentleman.

Mr. Richardson was born in Cumberland, England, in 1839. In 1863 he came to Canada and located in Toronto, where he was married to Miss Mary McFarlane, a devoted wife, of whom he was bereft a little over a year ago.

In the fall of 1865 he settled in Flesherton, and succeeded in building up a large general business, from which he retired some years ago. In municipal matters, he filled the position of Reeve and County Councillor for a number of years, and in politics a Conservative. He represented South Grey in the Dominion House from 1900 till 1904. He subsequently became representative for the Children's Aid Society, a work in which he was deeply interested, and five years ago was appointed Registrar for South Grey, filling the position till the time of his death. In religion, he was a Methodist, and was a prominent official in the church. For many years he was Sunday school superintendent, and scores of young lives were moulded into usefulness under his influence and teaching. He was the oldest member of the Official Board, and a local preacher whose services were always appreciated. Fraternally, he was a Mason, a charter member, and the first Worshipful Master of Prince Arthur Lodge, under whose auspices the funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, when there was a good turnout of the craft.

An impressive service was held in the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Belfry, assisted by Rev. H. E. Wellwood, a former pastor, and Revs. McVicar and Quinn, of the village. Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" was effectively rendered by Messrs. Murray, Holland, and Sullivan, and at the house service, a quartette was rendered by Messrs. Murray and Holland, Mrs. Blackburn and Mrs. Trimble.

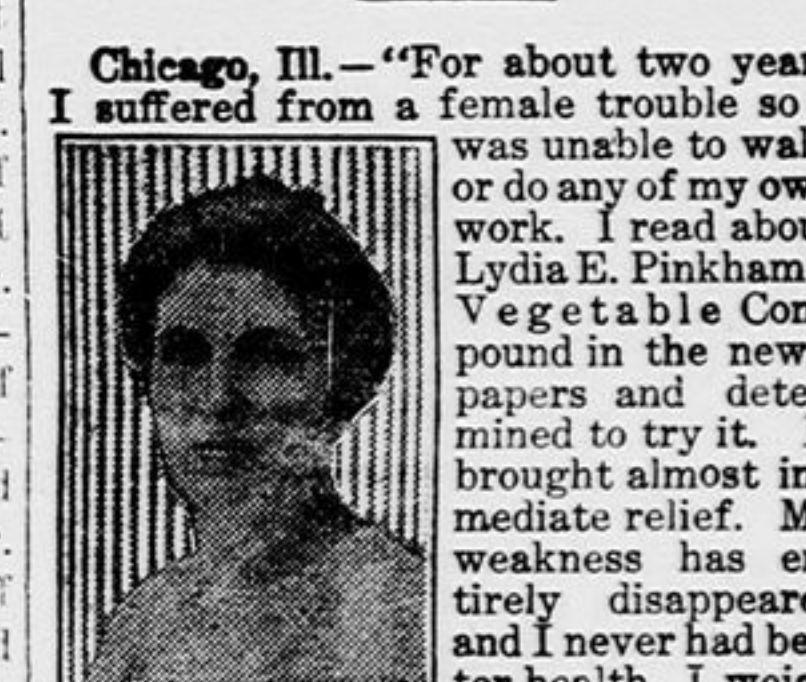

Two sons and four daughters survive, namely: Dr. E. K. Richardson, Toronto; Pte. Geo. B. Richardson, in England; Miss Maud Richardson, Flesherton; Mrs. Lucas, wife of Hon. I. B. Lucas, Toronto; Mrs. Webster, wife of Dr. Webster, Dean of Toronto Dental College, and Mrs. Frank Tate, Palmerston.

DEATH OF DR. CARMAN.

Dr. Carman, one of the prominent figures in Canadian Methodism for the past 50 years, died on Saturday evening last in his 84th year. No one was better known, and no one was more appreciated. He was a man of ripe scholarship, and endowed with a rare administrative ability, and great force of character. Before the union, he was identified with the Episcopal Methodist body, of which he held the position of bishop. He taught in a high school

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

Could Do No Work. Now Strong as a Man.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 165 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jos. O'BRYAN, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

and then became professor of mathematics in Albert College, which largely through his influence attained a university standing in 1866. He was deeply interested in social and moral reform.

4 Saved Two Fingers

The fingers were those of Mr. J. W. Besnard, of 539 Craig St., Montreal. He says,—"A falling beam badly smashed my hand. Two fingers were so severely crushed that the doctors said they would have to be amputated. Naturally I didn't want this, so decided to try Zam-Buk first, and by the time I had used $4 worth, the injury was completely healed. My fingers were saved!"

Just another illustration of the healing power of Zam-Buk. Accidents will happen. It may be your turn next. Better get a box and keep it handy. Accidents are less frequent than skin diseases, and remember this—Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, ulcers, skin diseases, and piles, as for cuts, burns, bruises.
