Applicant must appear in person at Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for District. Entry by proxy may be made on certain conditions. In certain districts a homesteader may secure an adjoining quarter-section as pre-emption. Price $3 per acre. Duties—Residence six months in each of three years after earning homestead patent and cultivate 50 acres extra. May obtain pre-emption patent as soon as homestead patent on certain conditions. A settler after obtaining homestead patent, if he cannot secure a pre-emption, may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3 per acre. watched the workmen rearing a great mass of stone and wood which men do say the great King Solomon plans as a temple to the Lord. Come thou and see likewise, good Jether, what wonders there are in this great world. Leave thy stupid hills and come to Jerusalem. I set upon my journey to-morrow." "To Jerusalem!" the boy cried incredulously. "But my father will never give his consent." "Go then without it," replied Tola sarcastically. "Thy father is rich. Demand thou thy portion and go forth. Who knows what fortune may befall thee? The great King David was but a shepherd lad amid these very hills." "But if my father doth refuse?" "When my father failed to give me what I deemed my right I found a way to take them," cried Tola angrily, grasping the boy again by the arm. "And since he had put me to so much unjust trouble I took all that I found." Jether backed away from him in surprise and fear. "Then thou wilt some day suffer punishment for that theft," he said. "Does not our law say?"

TOLA, FRIEND OF JETHER. "Thy father is rich. Demand thou thy portion and go forth."

TENDERS FOR PULPWOOD LIMIT

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up to and including the seventeenth day of December next for the right to cut pulpwood and pine timber on a certain area situated in the vicinity of the Kapuskasing River in the Districts of Timiscaming and Algoma.

Tenderers are to offer a flat rate per cord for all classes of pulpwood, whether spruce or other woods. The successful tenderer shall be required to pay for the Red and White Pine on the limit a flat rate of $10 per thousand feet board measure.

The successful tenderer shall also be required to erect a mill or mills on or near the territory, and to manufacture the wood into pulp and paper in the Province of Ontario, in accordance with the terms and conditions of sale which can be had on application to the Department.

Parties making tender will be required to deposit with their tender a marked cheque payable to the Honourable the Treasurer of the Province of Ontario, for Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), which amount will be forfeited in the event of their not entering into agreement to carry out conditions, etc. The said Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) will be held by the Department until such time as the terms and conditions of the agreement to be entered into have been compiled with and the said mills erected, equipped and in operation. The said sum may then be applied in such amounts and at such times as the Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines may direct in payment of accounts for dues or of any other obligation due the Crown until the whole sum has been applied. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

For particulars as to description of territory, capital to be invested, etc., apply to the undersigned. G. H. FERGUSON, Minister of Lands, Forests & Mines. Toronto, September 19th, 1917. N.B.—No unauthorized publication of this notice will be paid for.

PREVENTION OF BRIBERY.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—In setting up the machinery for the operation of the Military Service Act, special care has been taken to select only officials of the most trustworthy character. In the operation of the Act, attempts at bribery are always possible, in Canada no less than in other countries. Attempt to bribe any member of an exemption tribunal or medical board, or a military representative, means a term of imprisonment of not less than one year and not more than five years. It will be very difficult for anyone so inclined to set aside the regulations of the Military Service Act by corruption.

Not all of the preparations made to guard against venality and unfairness in the operation of the Act can be made public, but it may be announced that attempts to bribe officials, in view of the check and supervisions to be imposed, will be an exceedingly hazardous business.

Furnishing a Substitute.

Bessie had a new dime to invest in ice cream soda. "Why don't you give your dime to missions?" said the minister, who was calling. "I thought about that," said Bessie, "but I think I'll buy the ice cream and let the druggist give it to the missions."—Christian Herald.

THE WANDERER.

Tola interrupted him with a mocking laugh. "Be not tiresome. That is the only law I warn thee to obey when thou doth meet my friends in Jerusalem. They are merry fellows, rich and free with youth and spirits. And when I shall take thee to the house of my good friend Nadina and shall introduce you to her daughter, Tisha, the fairest in all Jerusalem, shouldst thou preach to them they would never forgive me for bringing thee along. As for Tisha, I really think she might slap thy face." Jether turned toward him curiously and asked: "Tisha, didst thou say?"

"Aye, Tisha of Babylon, now the fairest maid in all Jerusalem. For her favors men would almost pay the ransom of a king, yet Tisha scorns them all and boasts that she will be won by love alone. Such a lad as thou, with wealth, youth, good looks—why, fair Tisha would worship thee." "Nay, I know naught of women," replied Jether hesitatingly. "I know naught of love save that I bear my mother and my cousin Naomi, and for any else I care not." "What an innocent fool thou art!" taunted Tola, with a laugh. "That youthful innocence will attract fair Tisha far more than gold shekels. What sayst thou, wilt thou come with me?"

Jether hesitated. From the distance came the sound of a silver trumpet. He heard it and started. "The trumpets call! I must away!" he cried. "I cannot answer now." Tola threw his mantle over his shoulder and rapped upon the table for the landlord. Old Ozen came from a room within, and Tola tossed him a coin. "This for thy reckoning, landlord," he said sharply. "As for thee, my good friend Jether, farewell. I journey toward Jerusalem." "Again the trumpet blew." "I am late. Already I fear my father's anger for leaving the sheep untended. My brother Gaal will once more taunt me with my neglect. One moment, Tola. Come with me, and I will ask my father for my portion and go with thee." Tola slapped him affectionately upon the back.

"Thou art a good lad, after all," he said. "Bring thy gold and come with me. I will await thee here while thou dost get thy portion." "I will come, portion or no portion," declared Jether firmly.

"What!" cried Tola in pretended surprise. "Wouldst live upon another's money?" "If my father deny me I shall earn my own money."

"Thou art a fool to spend thy days in labor, so that thy brother Gaal may have what is thine. Go thou, demand thy portion and join me. Thy father canst not refuse thee. And if he does, ask thy mother." The boy smiled at the mention of his mother. "My mother loves me," he said simply. "I shall hate to leave her, but when I come back, laurel crowned and rich, I will make my mother proud of me. Very well, Tola, I will go to my father. Come thou with me and wait a little on the road below, as my father hath a good memory for faces, and thou didst say that once when thou wert a lad he did wrongly accuse thee of theft."

Tola smiled sardonically. "Thy father Jesse is keen in spite of his years," he said curtly. "Perhaps it were better that I should not be there when thou dost ask for thy money. But spend no time crying thine eyes out on thy mother's breast, for we must start this night. Come, Jether! Get thy money, and then we start for Jerusalem!" "For Jerusalem?" repeated the boy excitedly. "For Jerusalem," repeated Tola, with a grim smile, "and Tisha," he added under his breath, with a little laugh—"Tisha." He chuckled again. Continued Next Week.

"Pocketing the Sugar."

Diners-out in London are regularly engaged just now in a practice which popularly is known as "pocketing the sugar." The idea is to lay up a supply of sweetening for a day when it may be harder to obtain or, on the part of non-sugar eating individuals, for friends who like more than they are allowed. The custom is practiced all over the city and in all classes of places where tea and food are served. German submarines lately seem to have been especially active against ships that happened to be carrying sugar, with the result that, while there is enough to go around, the supplies for the distant future are none too large. Tea and coffee are served with just the allowed weight of sugar, usually set alongside the cups in separate containers and usually consisting of halves or thirds of lumps. It is these pieces of lumps that most often are seen disappearing into the gold, silver, and leather handbags of the women and the waistcoat pockets of the men.

Sugar served for berries or other food is hard to pocket. Nearly always it is of the crude variety and very sticky; but collectors of sugar even carry off this kind with them; having a convenient envelope or a little cloth bag ready for it.

Lump sugar is much more popular, however, and in the mesh bags of women in London's streets and hotels the white cubes, or pieces of them, can be seen mingling with keys, treasury notes, odd change, powder puffs, and other things.

A new arrival in London who does not take sugar in his or her tea is sure quickly to be asked to "save up" for some friend with a so-called sweet tooth.

NOTICE TO SICK WOMEN

Positive Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt a change for the better. I took it until I was in good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with such good results."—Mrs. MILFORD T. CUMMINGS, 322 Harmony St., Penn's Grove, N. J. Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, backache, painful periods, nervousness and kindred ailments.

SIX MILLION GERMANS LOST IN THREE YEARS.

We can scarcely form a conception of the awful toll of war. A despatch from Washington, dated on Tuesday, says:—"The Independent Socialist Leducour, in a recent speech in the Reichstag, said, 'You have not, evidently, gentlemen, an exact conception of what war means. We have had 1,500,000 dead, three or four million wounded, of whom 500,000 are crippled for life, and two million absolutely invalid. That means six million men lost in three years.'"

To get a better idea of the magnitude of the loss, it would represent over three out of every four of the total population of the whole Dominion of Canada.
