NEWS NEEDS FOR THE HOME. Everyone in Canada is eagerly watching for world-wide and war news, and also no one is so apathetic as to be indifferent to the news of his own town and district. The Mail and Empire and The Chronicle constitute a combination of news that is worth while, and we have made arrangements by which we can offer them both—the two together—as one subscription one year for $5.25. The big city daily and your best local paper leave nothing to be desired, and contain all that is possible to know. Send or bring all orders to office of this paper.

NEW IDEA IN HOME PLANNING; Our architects are gradually learning that after all is said, and done the thing worth while is to make a home that is attractive, in which people will want to live, and to which they will return with delight. So says Louis C. Tiffany, founder of the Tiffany Studios, in the December issue of Harper's Bazar. Mr. Tiffany, himself, has a very beautiful estate at Cold Springs Harbor, New York, and from his description of it in this number of Harper's Bazar, you can gain quite a little valuable information on how to beautify and make attractive your home.

The sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, who was at the commencement of the present war, and has since continued to be a British subject, or a subject of an allied or neutral country, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion Land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for District. Entry by proxy may be made on certain conditions. Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of land in each of three years.

In certain districts a homesteader may secure an adjoining quarter-section as pre-emption. Price $2 per acre. Duties—Residence six months in each of three years after earning homestead patent and cultivate 50 acres extra. May obtain pre-emption patent as soon as homestead patent on certain conditions.

A settler after obtaining homestead patent, if he cannot secure a pre-emption, may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3 per acre. Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

Holders of entries may count time of employment as farm laborers in Canada during 1917, as resident duties, under certain conditions. When Dominion Lands are advertised or posted for entry, returned soldiers who have served overseas and have been honorably discharged, receive one day priority in applying for entry at local Agent's office (but not Sub-Agency). Discharge papers must be presented to Agent.

THE WANDERER.

"Nay, that I will not do," she retorted. "The last time thou didst say—Nadina quickly placed her hand over the girl's mouth to choke off any remark. The mother whispered a warning.

"Now, by our lady Ishtar, thou shalt do my bidding," she added sharply. The girl bowed her head in submission and saluted Jether by half kneeling before him.

"Thy Tisha stands before thee, Jether," she said obediently, and would have knelt, but Jether restrained her by taking her hand.

"Thou shalt not kneel," he commanded. "Thou art beautiful."

Tisha laughed, a melodious rippling laugh.

"Thy servant is glad if she pleaseth thee," she answered coquettishly. "I but do the bidding of my mother, for her word is law to Tisha. Still, on my own behalf, I would welcome thee to Jerusalem and bring thee wine and food after thy journey. Didst come far?" she added, after bidding the Nubians bring refreshments.

"From Hebron," explained Jether, seating himself on a divan and motioning to the seat beside him. Tola and Nadina, with a look of understanding, left them alone, and as they entered the house it could be seen that the two had once more resumed the argument as to the amount of Tola's commission for bringing the rich young Jether to this resort of pleasure.

"And stayest thou long?" inquired Tisha. "As long as thou dost make me welcome," replied Jether, for the boy had now lost his sense of awe as this beautiful girl sat beside him and cast smiling glances in his direction. The girl laughed and leaned slightly in his direction. A perfume delicate and sweet assailed his nostrils. He reached out and took her hand.

"So long as thou dost desire to stay so long will we make thee welcome," whispered Tisha, "thou son of Judea." The girl leaned toward him. Her head was tilted back. Jether's eyes filled with a mist. The odor of the perfume was irresistible. She laughed and showed her wonderful gleaming teeth of purest white. Impulsively the boy threw his arms around her. He felt her arms steal around his neck and clasp him tightly to her. They kissed, and in that kiss the soul of Jether for the first time in his life was bruised and tarnished by contact with the world.

FLAVELLE NOT THE ONLY ONE.

voices wail loudest are actually doing the same thing on a small scale, but the motive and spirit are the same. In this very town, 2-lb. cartons of sugar that were bought last summer and sold at a good margin of profit for 25 cents are now raised to 30 cents for no reason whatever but pure greed. Is this patriotic? Is this fair? Is this honest? With this, as with many other abuses, reformation must begin at home.—Listowel Standard.

HOLSTEIN. The anniversary services of the Presbyterian church here were held last Sabbath, the Rev. J. Little, of St. Helen's, being the preacher. A platform program was next in order, and the addresses were of high order. The proceeds amounted to $200.

A high class concert, under the auspices of the Holstein Public Library, will be given in the town hall, here, on Friday, December 7, commencing at 8 o'clock. The play "Jerry the Outcast," a drama of four acts, will be given, interspersed with music. If you don't want to laugh, why don't come, but if you do, why then come and enjoy yourself. The play is under the management of Mr. Bert Brebner, and it will cost adults only 25c., and children 15c.

Irwin Dickson, of New Liskeard, came to visit his parents, who are in poor health. He remained from Saturday till Wednesday. He contemplates moving to Toronto.
