Traverston.

(Our own correspondent.) Cold outlook. Wind in the North when Old Sol stepped over the equator.

Mr. Richard Doyle of Paris has been a visitor at the O'Neil homes the past couple of weeks, and has made a kitchen cabinet for each home.

Mr. J. H. Stewart attended an At Home at London Normal School on Friday and went from there to visit his parents at Springfield, Elgin Co.

Mr. Will Banks of New Ontario came down lately and is in charge of the Fallaise farms this season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Spencer of town were out to the Edwards homestead for a few days last week and gave some timely help with some "tickler" jobs that this crowd isn't much good at.

Messrs. Thomas Timmins and Charles McClocklin each sold young horses last week, while J. H. Robson purchased one.

Mr. J. J. Peart and son Oren have taken A. G. Blair's place on shares this year, the latter being unwell of late.

Though the wind blew cold and shrill, still it did not prevent a big crowd from gathering at R. T. Cook's sale on Thursday afternoon last.

While engaged in house cleaning on Saturday afternoon, the ladder on which Mrs. T. E. Blair was standing slipped on the smooth floor, and down came she and ladder, with her left arm under it, causing a fracture near the shoulder.

The Standard, of Plumas, Man., suffered a $4,000 fire loss on February 20. The plant, paper, stock and building were insured for $3,000.

PROPERTIES FOR SALE

We have for sale the following properties:

114 acres on the 2nd Concession of Glenelg; 60 acres cleared and in a good state of cultivation, about 20 acres bush, and the balance in pasture land; running water on farm.

Rough-cast 8-room house in the Town of Durham. This property is not equipped with the modern conveniences, but is a good home for somebody. There is a good cellar, and a large, good woodshed.

If you are interested in buying a farm or a house in town, consult us. The Chronicle Office, Durham.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. Joseph McCulloch of Peterborough was in town last week and gave us a brief but interesting call. It is many years since we last met him and we were glad of the opportunity to renew old friendships.

Mrs. (Dr.) Burnett, and son Jack, of Burlington, spent the past week as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Robertson, here.

Mr. Alex. Kearney of the Royal Bank, Bolton, was in town over Sunday.

Miss Effie Hunter is visiting Toronto and Hamilton friends.

Rev. Mr. McEwen of the Baptist Church here, preached at Dresden, on Sunday.

Mrs. Gordon Macdonald, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunter, for a few weeks, left Saturday for her home at Chatsworth.

Mrs. Tucker and son Harry, of near Priceville, visited the Burgess home here on Friday.

COULD HARDLY MOVE IN HER BED

Eight Boxes of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Completely Relieved Her.

MADAM RICHER

Labelle, P.Q., April 18th, 1922

"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me.

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months; could hardly move in bed, and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

Finally started in taking "Fruit-a-tives" and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

Madam J. RICHER.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Any man who makes the best of things gets them.—Wyoming State Tribune.
