

DEATH OF JESSE EDWARDS

There passed away on Saturday, June 3, one of the older residents of Glenelg in the person of Jesse Edwards. Mr. Edwards was born in Wellington County on April 9, 1850, where he lived for a time. In 1877 he married Eliza Jane Britton, who predeceased him twelve years ago.

Mr. Edwards is survived by two sons, William, of Glenelg and Filas, of Owen Sound; four daughters, Mrs. James Trafford, Glenelg, Mrs. Robert Griffin of Hamilton, Miss Agnes of Hamilton and Mrs. Will Vickers, of Durham. He is also survived by three brothers: Hugh Edwards, of Grand Valley, Thomas, of Owen Sound and James, of Marsville. Three sisters also survive: Mrs. H. M. Tomkins, of Owen Sound, Mrs. M. Baxter of Marsville and Mrs. John Walker of Hamilton.

The funeral service was conducted on Monday by the Rev. Mr. Cameron of the Baptist Church. The sympathy of a large circle of friends is extended to the bereaved ones.

Interment was made in Durham cemetery.

DEATH OF MISS McLEAN

The death occurred on Sunday last at the home of her father, Mr. Neil McLean, here, of Miss Isabel McLean, after an illness of over six months from anaemia. Miss McLean was born in Bentinck Township, where she grew up to womanhood, but for a number of years has resided in Toronto.

Not feeling well, she came home last summer to recuperate, where she has remained ever since in the hope that the change from city to country would be beneficial, but about six months ago she contracted anaemia and passed away last Sunday. Interment was made Tuesday in the Rocky Saugeen cemetery, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Cameron of the Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Aird, Baptist pastor at Mulock.

Besides her father, Miss McLean leaves two sisters, Misses Julia and Tena McLean, at home, and four brothers in the West, one of whom, Neil, of near Sault Ste. Marie, arrived here Tuesday in time for the funeral. We sympathize with the bereaved family.

DEATH OF FRED REAY

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. Fred Reay, who passed away on Saturday last at the comparatively early age of 60 years. He was born at the old homestead near Vickers in 1862, where he attended the country school and grew to manhood. About thirty years ago he married Miss Sarah Torry of the same township, but leaves only one son 17 years of age.

Mr. Reay was an industrious farmer, an honest and upright member of the community, and a true and devoted member of the Methodist Church, in which he took a deep interest for the greater portion of his life. In politics he was a moderate and consistent Conservative, but never a narrow or bitter partisan.

Until recently he was strong and healthy, and always a faithful and hard worker. About three months ago he underwent an operation in Fergus Hospital for bladder trouble, the operation being performed on the first of March by Dr. Groves, assisted by Dr. Smith, his local medical attendant. It seemed to be a success, and three weeks before death, he came home apparently on the mend and making good progress toward recovery. He took a relapse, however, and for a week sank gradually, but rapidly, till the end came.

Besides his sorrowing widow and son, he leaves six brothers: John, Joseph, Henry, Christopher, in Bentinck; William and Thomas in Major, Sask.; also five sisters: Mary (Mrs. Thomas Wilson), in town; Jane (Mrs. William Torry), Hannah (Mrs. John Murdick), in Bentinck; Adeline (Mrs. Joseph Edmunds), and Ellen (Mrs. David Hopkins), in Major, Sask. One brother and one sister died a number of years ago.

Interment took place Tuesday afternoon in Durham cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Hardy, Rector of Trinity Church, who officiated in the absence of his pastor, Rev. Mr. Cole, who is attending Conference.

GRAND VALLEY HAD FIRE EARLY FRIDAY MORNING

Grand Valley escaped what might have been a costly fire had a few minutes more elapsed before its discovery. About half-past one o'clock, on Friday morning, a nurse in Dr. Campbell's house was awakened by a dull noise as if something had exploded, and the sound being repeated she called a patient who also heard the noise. Investigation showed the attic full of smoke, the fire having originated in some waste clothing against the chimney. Fire had started in floor and rafters, but was soon extinguished by a few pails of water. It was thought the explosions were caused by revolver cartridges. Four or five patients were promptly removed from the building.

METHODIST ANNIVERSARY WAS HELD LAST SUNDAY

Two weeks ago, and again last week it was announced in these columns that special music would be given in the Methodist Church last Sunday. The Methodist choir, we believe, is regarded generally as a good musical organization, and when anything special is announced in the musical line, the audience is seldom disappointed. On this occasion, however, the special music was to be furnished by the Twin City Male Quartette, of Kitchener and Waterloo. It was known, too, that Mr. H. G. Mistele, a former resident here, and a general favorite amongst music lovers, was one of the four taking part in the service. This, in itself, was a guarantee of the excellent music that might be expected, and further publicity was not necessary.

Mr. Mistele took first tenor, and the others were equally efficient in their respective parts. Mr. R. A. McGillivray took second tenor, and, by the way, Mr. McGillivray was a Bentinck boy, being born in the Fletcher neighborhood, where he attended school and grew to early manhood before his removal to Kitchener. To him, as well as to Mr. Mistele, the trip here was a real pleasure in the meeting of many of the friends of his early days. Messrs. J. W. Stoner, and G. M. Jones, were first and second bass, respectively. These two gentlemen appeared here for the first time, but the excellence of their work has made them many friends and a warm welcome awaits their re-appearance, and at any time.

Seldom has a Durham audience had a musical treat with such a fine blending of voices, and much praise has been heard on all sides by our best musical critics. Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray remained over till Monday to take a run out to see some of his old Bentinck friends, but the others returned to Waterloo Sunday evening, leaving here shortly before midnight.

Messrs. J. W. Stoner and G. M. Jones, who sang with the Twin City Quartette in the Methodist Church on Sunday last, were guests in town of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCrae.

DEATH OF MRS. WHITCHURCH

Mr. W. H. Whitchurch, was at Stratford last week attending the funeral of his mother, who died on May 31st at her home in that city. The Stratford Herald report is as follows:

"One of Stratford's pioneer residents passed away at her home, 148 Waterloo Street, South, on Wednesday evening in the person of Charlotte North, widow of the late Joseph Whitchurch, for many years a resident of Stratford. The deceased had been in ill-health for some time, but only serious for about two weeks. She was born in London, Ontario and came to Stratford as a bride in 1866. Since that time she has been a continual resident of the Classic City and was able to relate many changes which have taken place in the last fifty-six years. Her husband predeceased her ten years ago. One daughter and two sons survive, Mrs. E. Graham, at home; William H., in Toronto; and John G., of North Bay." Mrs. Whitchurch was buried on Friday afternoon of last week at Avondale cemetery, Stratford.

PRESBYTERIAN ANNIVERSARY

The anniversary services in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday and the lecture on Monday night by Rev. Mr. Henry of Deer Park Presbyterian Church, Toronto, were all well attended and all enjoyed. Mr. Henry had charge of the church here away back in 1894, and during his three months' stay here became well acquainted with the congregation of the time. Some are still living here and Sunday's visit was the occasion of many pleasant reunions, and the calling up of many reminiscences. Mr. Henry is a pulpiteer of rare excellence, commands a pleasing personality and a choice vocabulary.

For his lecture on Monday night, "A Pod of Peas" was the unique title of his subject, and to most, before they heard him, it was a sort of conundrum. It was an original topic and was suggested to the speaker by the luxuriant growth, development, beauty and fragrance of the sweet peas once grown in front of his own house.

From their beauty and fragrance, he caught the idea of doing things that might bring pleasure to the senses of those about him, and his line of thought was developed from several words beginning with the letter P. Taking many such suggestive words and elaborating on them for good or evil he made his address most interesting.

The words Pop, Poppy, Parachute, Parasite, Parrot, Pharisee, Pickles and Pepper were used in order and showed to possess many qualities of a worthless nature.

Amongst the worthwhile Peas were Push, Principle, Perseverance, Purity, Parasol, Pioneer and many others. The address was racy, interesting and instructive from beginning to end.

The choir gave a couple of well-rendered selections. A fine duet was given by Miss Bell and Miss Vaddie

Caldwell, and Mrs. Moore McFadden delighted the audience with an excellent solo.

Rev. Mr. Smith made a good chairman.
