

Priceville and South
(Our own correspondent.)

The general cry is for rain, as the crops are beginning to suffer somewhat from the continual drouth. Seeding is done, with the exception of roots, but there aren't many turnips sown now, as there used to be some years ago. Seldom it was to be seen the promise of having an abundance of fruit.

The Rev. Mr. Jones is away to the Presbyterian Assembly at Winnipeg this week. The Rev. Mr. McCarten takes his place, if not called away to conference.

Mr. Dan. McInnis of Toronto, but formerly of Bunessan, visited for a few days with friends in Priceville and elsewhere.

Mrs. McCannel of Durham paid a flying visit to friends while seeing after the grave of her departed husband.

Mr. Duncan McDonald and daughter Louisa, paid a short visit here, looking after the fixing of the graves of their loved ones, gone some years ago.

We are a law-abiding people in town and country, consequently it is not necessary to discharge our officers for being too officious.

The farmers are beginning to complain that butter and eggs are getting too cheap, but we remember when butter was 8c. a pound and eggs 10c. a dozen.

Mrs. McDermid of Toronto, visited her sisters, the Misses McPhail, South Glenelg, and her brother, Mr. Hugh McPhail.

The U. F. O. were shipping hogs last Saturday from Priceville.

The sick people are beginning to get better.

Miss Agnes McPhail, M.P., attended at the Presbyterian Church a week ago Sunday, and acted in common with the others of her sex. She had many a hearty shake hands from her many friends here.

The funeral of the late Lauchie McFaggart, who died in Fergus Hospital during the second operation, took place on Tuesday of last week and was largely attended. His pastor the Rev. Mr. Jones, conducted the funeral obsequies. He was in his 23rd year and a favorite young man with all who formed his acquaintance. He was buried in McNeal's cemetery. The condolence of the locality is extended to his friends in their sad loss.

The Rev. Mr. McCarten preached a fine sermon to a crowded house in the Priceville Presbyterian Church last Sunday. The many friends of Mr. McCarten regret that he is about to bid them farewell, as he is attending Conference this week and his lot cast somewhere else. During Mr. McCarten's four years as pastor of the Methodist Church here, and elsewhere, he made many friends of all classes of the populace, irrespective of denominational differences and all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McCarten happiness wherever their lot may be cast in the future.

South-East Bentinck.
(Our own correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Jucksch of Durham spent a Sunday recently with Mr. and Mrs. William Vollett.

Mrs. Harry Caldwell and baby, of Normanby, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Langrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopkins and family visited lately with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Patterson of Varney.

Rev. E. Cameron visited his congregation in this community last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sharpe, accompanied by other W.M.S. members, of Knox Church, attended the Presbyterial meeting at Arthur last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald and family, of town, spent Sunday evening at Mr. H. Vollett's.

Welbeck.

(Our own correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh entertained a number of guests on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Goldsmith, in company with Messrs. John and James Connor, spent Sunday with friends near Hanover.

Mr. William Campbell has had his buggy painted and tuned up.

Mr. James Walsh has purchased a new Ford car and brought it home on Wednesday of last week.

We are sorry to report Mr. Hugh Riddell in poor health. We believe he has been forbidden to work any more this summer.

Mr. William Hodgson, Jr., and Miss Grasyby, spent the 3rd of June at the sports in Chesley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shackleton paid a call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Goldsmith one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Campbell spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. P. Sherk.

Rocky Saugeen.

(Our own correspondent.)

Mr. William Sackett of Toronto spent last week at the home of Mr. Lauchie McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ewen and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark.

The little girls from around here enjoyed the party given by Irene and Blanche McKechnie, of Glenroadin.

The remains of Miss Belle McLean, daughter of Mr. Neil McLean, of Durham, are being laid to rest in the Rocky cemetery to-day. Much sympathy is felt for the sisters and brothers, and more so for the aged father.

Miss Collinson is spending a while with her aunt, Mrs. Archie McKechnie, and helping her, as she has not been so well as her friends would like to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Livingston and two children of Glascott, spent Sunday with the former's aunt, Mrs. Lauchie McLean.

The road between the Rocky and Durham is in bad shape, as Mr. Peter Hepburn has a gang of men on the Saugeen hill and the steam shovel is working on Vessie's hill. They are distributing a lot of tile along the road.

Aberdeen.

(Our own correspondent.)

Miss Janet Clark is seriously ill with pleurisy, and Mrs. Neil Clark of Durham is waiting on her.

Rev. Mr. Sillars of Dornoch visited with Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald one day last week.

Rev. Hugh Cowan of Oakville, accompanied by his nephew, Mr. Hugh Dovenor, called on Mr. D. N. Clark, another nephew, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKechnie and family, north of Durham, spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. D. Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ewen and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark of the Rocky line.

Mr. D. Lamb reshingled the north side of his barn last week.

The farmers are wishing earnestly for rain.

On Tuesday, the school was closed on account of the funeral of Miss Bella McLean of Durham, who formerly lived on this line. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

Holstein.

(Our own correspondent.)

A. R. Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCall, and Mrs. George Fenton, motored to Patsey on Sunday.

Two more W.F.A. football matches have been played by the Holstein team since our last issue. On Thursday evening last, Mount Forest played in Holstein and were defeated, the score being 4-0. The play during the first half was quite even, but the last half proved disastrous to the visitors. On Monday, our boys went to Moorefield and again succeeded in winning after a hard struggle, the score being 1-0. Moorefield plays here on Friday evening next. The standing is as follows:

| | Plyd | Won | Tie | Lost | Pts |
|------------|------|-----|-----|------|-----|
| Midmay | 5 | 4 | 1 | 0 | 9 |
| Holstein | 4 | 3 | 1 | 0 | 7 |
| Moorefield | 3 | 1 | 0 | 2 | 2 |
| Mt. Forest | 3 | 1 | 0 | 2 | 2 |
| Palmerston | 5 | 0 | 0 | 5 | 0 |

Mr. and Mrs. Alingham and daughter Jessie purpose moving to their new home in Guelph. A farewell was tendered them in the park on Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Alingham were presented with an electric cooking outfit by the ladies of the Women's Institute, and Miss Jessie with a clock by the members of the Community Circle.

Arthur Irvin and wife left for Duluth on Monday.

The park is being fixed up this season to greater extent than heretofore. The grounds have been somewhat levelled, and a platform is to be erected. The boat-house is to be removed to a convenient location and converted into a cook-house. Electric lights are being installed soon. It will be a real pleasure resort.

The Community Circle gave a concert in the hall on Thursday evening last. The numbers were furnished by local talent, and were well received. Reeve McEachern was in the chair. It is to be regretted that better order is not maintained at these gatherings.

WALKERTON

Mr. H. Breslin is putting in a radio outfit capable of receiving from a thousand miles' distance. This will enable Walkertonians to hear concerts given by Pittsburgh, Newark and other large American centres, as well as from Toronto. Concerts will be given at the Breslin store for Breslin patrons.

A five-year-old son of Roy Hoffman struck a loaded cartridge with a hammer, causing it to explode. The bullet passed through a two-inch plank. The child was frightened, but fortunately escaped injury.

Frank Wells, seventeen-year-old Port Elgin boy, charged with rape, has been sent up for trial.

Rev. John McNeill, one of the most distinguished graduates of Walkerton High School, has been named as Chancellor of McMaster University.

Mr. John Kennedy of Medicine Hat, visited town recently after an absence of 32 years. In the old days he conducted the woollen mill here on the site where the bobbin factory now stands.

The new band stand has been completed with the exception of the roof, which will be added later.

As a result of Constable Blood's expedition to Lucknow, Ripley and Kincardine last week, ten motorists who were not living up to the law, were assessed $5.00 and costs each by County Magistrate Alex. McNab.

Peter Martin, a Cape Croker Indian was brought down from Warton last week to serve six months for stealing a boat.

A GOOD PLAY

"A Southern Cinderella," a play by seven ladies from Ebenezer neighborhood, Glenelg, was given here on Tuesday night under the auspices of the I.O.D.E. Mrs. Alfred Tucker, Miss Sarah Tucker, Mrs. Joseph Harrison, Miss Marion Hornsby, Miss Eva Hooper, Miss Willa Patterson and Miss Edna Dixon were the performers, and all did well for amateurs, in fact we were pleasantly surprised at the excellence of talent displayed in many parts of the drama. Though at times the voice was a little muffled and failed to carry to the rear of the hall, the articulation was clear and distinct and the expression good. All did well, and had their parts so well prepared that there wasn't a noticeable hitch from beginning to end.

The performance wasn't perfect, but was away above the average of amateurs, if we may be bold enough to place them in the amateur class.

Mr. J. L. Stedman contributed a solo, and Mrs. (Rev.) McCarten of Priceville delighted the audience in her fine rendering of "Old Folks at Home."

The attendance was not large, but very appreciative, and the order was good.

BONNER—HOPKINS

(Hanover Post.)

The marriage of one of Hanover's very popular girls took place last Saturday morning, May 27, in St. James' Anglican Church, Hanover, when Mary Joyce (Joy) Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hopkins, became the bride of Mr. George Bonner of Port Huron, Michigan. Rev. C. F. L. Gilbert, Rector in charge, officiated, and there were no attendants. The bride, who looked charming, wore her travelling suit of midnight blue pique tulle, with grey silk crepe waist. A smart navy taffeta hat and grey squirrel choker completed the very becoming costume. Her bouquet was of sweet-heart roses and lily of the valley. The church was beautifully decorated with yellow tulips and white lilies and the sun made it a real "Bride's Day" by shining brilliantly through the new memorial windows. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring. The happy couple left on the morning train for an extended honeymoon trip.

[The bride was a former resident of Bentinck, near Hutton Hill, and is well known in Durham. Her many friends will join in wishing her much happiness. Editor Chronicle.]

Hard to Lose.

"Isn't it hard to lose your daughter?"
"No, not this one; I could have married her off a year ago. It is her older sister that's hard to lose."

SUCCESSFUL STUDENTS

During the past week the results of examinations held recently in Toronto and published in the daily papers, have been the centre of interest for many Durhams. So far as we have been able to find out, the following from Durham and vicinity and also those who formerly resided here, are:

Dental College:—Robert Marshall, Hampden (graduated); Percy Ross, Holstein (3rd year); Cecil Townner, Stratford (3rd year); Murray Findlay, formerly of Dromore (3rd year); Edgar Renwick, Dromore (3rd year); Charles C. Ramage, Durham, (2nd year).

In the Toronto University examinations in Medicine, the following were successful:

Charles McLellan, Orchard (graduated); Ray Farquharson, formerly of Durham (graduated); A. M. Bell, Durham (3rd year).

Miss Myra McLean of Priceville, graduated in her Arts course.

Needless to say, we congratulate the students in the conclusion of a successful year's work.

The cost of living is still about the same—all a fellow has.

Forgot Her "Aspirins".

The small girl in the corner seat of the railway carriage had been unduly fractious for the greater part of the journey.

"Well, I've got a norful 'eadache," she whimpered, in reply to a reproof.

Her mother glared at her ominously.

"'Eadache, 'eadache?" she repeated, in withering accents. "How many times am I to tell you not to forget your aspirins?"

Repeating an old lie is worse than inventing a new one.
