

KEARNEY—IRWIN

On Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock an interesting wedding was solemnized in the Methodist Church, when Miss Rita May Irwin, only daughter of Mr. William Irwin, publisher of this paper, was united in marriage with Mr. Alexander E. Kearney, manager of the Royal Bank at Bolton, Ontario.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and consisted of an arch of ferns, interspersed with pink roses and white peonies. The altar, pulpit and choir loft were banked with flowers and foliage, which gave fragrance and charm to the surroundings.

At the appointed hour the groom took his place at the altar, accompanied by Rev. Mr. Cole, the officiating clergyman. Then, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, artistically rendered by Mrs. Cole, the flower-girls, Ellen Hay and Norma Gagnon, beautifully attired, and with charming countenances, passed slowly up the South aisle distributing flowers, and were followed by the bride, who advanced leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away at the altar. The ceremony was solemnly rendered, the vows administered, the questions clearly propounded and the answers thoughtfully given. After the closing benediction and while the contracting parties were signing the Register, Mrs. William Lawrence gave a beautiful rendering of "O Promise Me," when the newly-wed couple left the church by the North aisle, followed by the flower-girls and the bride's father.

Arriving at the bride's home, congratulations were offered, a buffet breakfast partaken of, and shortly afterward, amid showers of confetti, they left by motor for Guelph, where they took the train for New York and other cities. They will return in a week or two, and after a short stay here, will commence home-making in Bolton.

The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Beggs of this town, and spent his boyhood and school-days here till he took service in the bank some years ago. The bride spent much of her life in town and is well-known to all our citizens, as well as in many parts of the Dominion. Owing to circumstances, we are handicapped and unable to say what could truly be said under different conditions. We take the liberty to say she will be missed in the home, in the church and missed in the community. She has always taken a deep interest in music and was always ready and willing to use the talent she had in rendering assistance when needed. Further, we may say she did what she could both cheerfully and freely.

The bride was married in a going-away suit of navy blue tricotine trimmed with sand and hat to match, and carried a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. It was the intention to be married quietly, but through the importunities of members of the church, and particularly members of the choir, with whom she had been so long associated, it was decided only a few days ago to have a church wedding.

On the occasion she was well remembered by her friends, and the many costly, beautiful and useful gifts is an evidence of her popularity. It was only a couple of weeks since the marriage was definitely announced, and every recognition was spontaneous and cheerful. On Monday evening of last week a miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Marie Cole. On Wednesday evening this was followed by a shower from pupils she instructed in music. Another followed Thursday afternoon, when honored by Miss Amy Kelly. On Thursday night the L.O.D.E. presented her with a silver basket and on Friday night the Women's Missionary Society, Ladies' Aid and Choir had her again as the guest of honor at Mr. Robert Smith's home up town. From the Red Cross Society she also received a beautiful mantle clock.

Besides these miscellaneous showers there were dozens of individual friends and well-wishers who honored her with valuable gifts. The congregation of the Methodist Church presented her with a handsome and costly cabinet of silver, and from other sources the presents were in cheques and money.

In this particular case we lead the community in wishing health, happiness, long life and prosperity to the young couple, and we trust that in "The Hanging of the Crane," they may see many bright visions that will be fully realized as time goes forward.

McFADDEN—McMALLY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McMally, Glenelg, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 7, when their daughter Catharine Maud, became the bride of Mr. Lawrence Redvers McMadden, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McMadden. Rev. C. F. G. Cole was the officiating clergyman. At 5 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Miss Carrie, the groom took his place on the lawn under an arch of evergreens, and immediately after the bride followed, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was dressed in ivory satin and georgette trimmed with pearls and crystal beads and wore a bridal veil trimmed with orange blossoms. She also carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maidenhair fern.

After best wishes, all repaired to the dining-room where dinner awaited them. In the centre of the table was the bride's three-storey cake.

The evening was spent in music, games and social chat. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents, the groom's gift to the bride being a pendant and chain.

They have commenced home-making on the groom's farm in Glenelg.

STEWART—MORICE

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Morice, Normanby, when their daughter, Mary Elva, was united in marriage with Mr. Thomas Ellis Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stewart of the same township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Burnett, of Knox and Amos Presbyterian Churches. The young couple, who were unattended, were married at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of about 75 invited guests. Miss Janie Peter played the wedding march, and Miss Clare Morice, youngest sister of the bride, was ring-bearer. They were unattended, and the ceremony took place under an arch of evergreens and maple. The bride's wedding gown was of white satin trimmed with silk overlace and she wore the customary bridal veil. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and to the organist an ivory photo holder. The bride's popularity was attested by the large number of beautiful and useful wedding presents received.

In the evening, the young people of the neighborhood gathered and spent a few pleasant hours in music and games.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart intend leaving this week on a short honeymoon and will reside on the groom's farm in Normanby on their return.

We join their friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.

Among those from a distance to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Green of Guelph, and Mrs. Robert Ferguson and daughter of Fergus.

The Entrance pupils of S.S. No. 6 met at the home of Mr. William Fulton on June 12 and presented their teacher, Miss Lawrence, with a birthday ring and the following address:

"We, your Entrance pupils, have taken this opportunity of showing our love towards you for your help and kindness towards us during the past year. You have at all times shown your interest in us by the faithful and earnest way in which the work has been presented. We realize that we have often been negligent and often lacking in appreciation of your interest in our behalf, but your kind sympathy and tact were always evident. We beg you therefore to accept this gift, not for its own sake, but rather as an emblem of the whole-hearted appreciation of your labors which remain behind you, and you may rest assured that you carry with you our very best wishes, and we trust that all goodness and happiness may be your portion through life. Signed on behalf of the class—Laverne McCallum, Adeline Unruh, Vickers Chittick, Ellen Boyce."

Miss Lawrence made a suitable reply, thanking the class for their kindness.

Mr. and Mrs. Findlay McCuaig and Master Kenneth, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. Lunney, visited Sunday with Mr. Arch. McCuaig and family at Top Cliff.

Many friends here learned with deep regret of the sudden death of Miss Bella McLean of Durham, and much sympathy is felt for the sisters and brothers and aged father.

Miss Willa Patterson, teacher at Top Cliff, was the guest of friends here over the week-end. Miss Patterson is training for a missionary and intends entering university this fall. Her many friends here wish her success in the good work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacDonald of Toronto visited at the home of Mr. James Hopkirk over the week-end. Rev. and Mrs. Aird, and Mrs. Fulton, are attending the Baptist Association at Meaford this week. A goodly number from here attended the funeral of the late John Patterson, Habermehl, Friday of last week. We extend deepest sympathy. Miss Myrtle Lawrence of Hutton Hill is visiting her sister, Miss Sibyl Lawrence, this week.

SPORTS

Shelburne 8, Durham 6.

Shelburne's intermediate team came to town yesterday afternoon and walloped Durham's O.A.L.A. championship contenders 8 to 6 and earned every bit of it. The score by periods, and Shelburne was always in the lead, was: 3-2, 6-3, 8-4, and 8-6. Shelburne's team is a bunch of juniors with two or three exceptions and while it was expected that the youngsters would take the lead early in the game before the Durham grandfathers got warmed up, some of the fans had it doped out that experience would tell and the locals would get out from in under and smother the youngsters in the last couple of periods. But the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft a-gle, and instead of getting better the Durhams got worse, if such a thing were possible. Anyway, it was four continuous rounds of misery for the local fans except for a brief period in the last session when the Durhams pulled themselves together and scored 2 goals to their opponents none, and an almost continuous procession of delight for the handful of Shelburnites that accompanied their team. Without a particle of danger of our assertion being contradicted, we make the statement that it was absolutely the worst exhibition of lacrosse we ever saw a Durham intermediate team put up. Early in the game the Durhams seemed to be suffering from hookworm, or some other tropical ailment, and it became more chronic as the debacle progressed.

While Shelburne has a neat little team for a junior organization, they have absolutely nothing in their playing that should beat any ordinarily good intermediate outfit, and we are not trying to detract from the glory of their victory when we say so. It was not the playing of the visitors that beat the locals as much as the locals' own lack of condition. While we know nothing of the plans of the management for the future, one thing we do know, and that is that if the players are not willing to get out and get into some semblance of condition, develop some teamwork and play the game as it should be played, they will not go very far in the intermediate or any other series.

While all chances of winning the district are gone, unless, perchance, an earthquake hits some of the other teams, the locals could at least redeem themselves sufficiently to give the spectators some good lacrosse for the balance of the season. They have got the material, and are capable of playing good lacrosse, but they must get into condition to do it.

Took Both Games From Palmerston

(Mildmay Gazette.) Mildmay and Holstein are tied for the leadership in this district, and the prospects are that the honors will be decided when Mildmay plays the last game at Holstein on June 16. During the past week Mildmay added two more wins, having defeated Palmerston in both games in the round. The first game at Palmerston resulted in the regulation score 1 to 0, and at the return game here on Monday night, the Stars cut loose and fairly revelled in goals, smothering their opponents to the tune of 6 to 0. Hitherto Mildmay has been woefully weak in scoring, but strong defensively, but on Monday evening they chased their "jinx," and showed the spectators a few thrilling scoring stunts. The Palmerston defence worked well, but they were outplayed by the faster and more experienced Mildmay forwards. Three goals were scored in each period, due to good, fast, brainy work on the part of the forwards. Bill Berry was centre man and his presence helped the wing men, who passed the ball down in front of the goal in fine style. Lloyd Doering and George Scheffer are a dandy pair of wing men and did good work, while Kaufman and Cartwright played their positions splendidly. On the half-back line, comprised of the two reliable, Frank Schmidt and Clarence Kunkel, and Charlie Lobsinger, a junior recruit, held the opposing forwards safely. The latter player is the best check on the team, which several of the Palmerston men found to their sorrow. Charles Pletsch and Henry Hoefling on the back line were a stonewall defence all night and cleared on nearly every occasion. In goal, Charlie Wendt had a number of close shots in the last half, but all went back to the direction from which they came. Norman Huck of Walverton gave good satisfaction to both clubs as referee.

Durham High School Won.

(Dundalk Herald.)

Before a good-sized crowd Durham High School played a game of lacrosse with the juveniles here on Thursday night last and the visitors won by 6-4. They showed the locals how to play lacrosse all right, and they were fortunate to come out with the score not doubled. Durham had combination down to a science, and all were fast runners and good stick-handlers. Their goal was rarely in danger. Will Stephenson, Dundalk goalie, was at his best and stopped many a fine shot. For our inexperienced players their defence was hard to beat. While the home team hardly expected to win they gained some experience which will prove useful to them.

Aberdeen.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral of the late Belle McLean were her brother, Donald, from Michigan, Miss Stephan and Miss K. McCormick from Walkerton, Mrs. Readman and brother, James Hall, from King, York County, Miss Weir from Port Credit, Mrs. Dewar and Mrs. Thompson from Paisley. Messrs. Fletcher McLean and Jack Clark have opened a garage and started business in Holstein. We wish them the best of success. Mr. Neil McLean of Durham, accompanied by his son, Donald, and daughter Julia, visited friends along the line one day last week. Miss Janet Clark still keeps about the same.

Mrs. Thomas Dargavel of Warton has returned home after spending a few days with her sister-in-law, the Misses Helen and Janet Clark.

Mrs. Collinson and daughter Jean, of Ceylon, and Mr. Thomas Dargavel of Warton, visited the Morton, McCracken and Clark families on Thursday.

Mr. Hector Cowan is visiting his nephew, Mr. D. N. Clark.

Mr. Bob Murray of Sullivan visited the Clark family on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Fullerton and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Clark and family.

Mrs. D. Lamb visited Mrs. Dug. Clark of the Rocky Hill on Sunday.

The Rocky Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Donald Stewart last Wednesday. Quite a number attended, and a very interesting time was spent.

At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Stewart and Miss Jessie.

Rev. and Mrs. Sillars of Dornoch attended the meeting and also visited the sick on the line.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDonald and son Kenneth, motored to Swinton Park one day last week and visited the former's sister, Mrs. J. L. Ferguson.

The farmers along the line are getting their statute labor done.

Last week's rain has greatly improved the crops.

Mr. Roy Lamb started work on the Garafraxa Road last week.

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS

"Fruit-a-tives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

This Fruit Medicine Restores Health

The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This "FRUIT-A-TIVES" will do.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-tives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.
