(Our own correspondent.)
June weddings, picnics, conventions and sports would leave little time for the manifold farm duties, if one were able to take 'em all in.

'Twas a pleasant surprise to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan when their first-born, Patrick, from Detroit, dropped in on Thursday of last week and remained till Monday morning.

Miss Mayme Haley and Miss Lizzie Sweeney came up from Toronto on Saturday evening to the parental homes.

This community is a unit in extending very best wishes and congratulations to Mr. Lawrence McFadden and Miss Kate McNally on their happy union. The fair bride has been one of Zion's real helpers in League and Sunday School. May their pathway lead midst the flowers and sunshine.

Miss Myrtle McClocklin arrived home from the Queen City on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. John O'Neil autoed down to Paris on Friday, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. J. J. Peart is away to Owen Sound this week serving as juror.

Mrs. William Timmins and her sister, Mrs. Albert McNally, visited the parental home at Vandeleur one day recently.

The barn-raising at Mr. James Dunbar's on Monday afternoon was a most successful affair. Mr. Harry Gray, the framer, had everything in fine shape and the timbers snugly fitted. Messrs. John O'Neil and Ovie Anderson were captains and the race was a close one, the latter winning by a rafter.

Miss Rebecca Banks of Toronto is holidaying with her sister, Mrs. M. Smith.

Mr. Cecil Ireland and his sister Rena, Misses Velma and Kensey Ireland, and Miss Glenna Campbell of Mulmur, spent Sunday evening at the Edwards homestead.

They were a lively score of fellows who rushed up two-thirds of our home foundation in seven hours on Friday last, and, but for lack of material, would have completed it in a day.

Mr. Birks Robertson and his sister Mabel, Miss Eva Lummins and Mr. G. Edgar, of Molesworth, motored up on Saturday evening to Mr. W. J. Greenwood's, bringing Grandpa Greenwood back from his visit.

A very happy wedding took place at 2 o'clock at the manse, Markdale, on Friday afternoon, when the Rev. Thurburn-Cann united in marriage Mr. Harold Watson of the 8th Concession and Miss Maggie McKechnie of the 10th. After the ceremony the young couple drove to the home of her brother, Will, where a big company and a sumptuous feast awaited them and a full night of mirth and gaiety followed. Harold is a veteran of the world war and Miss Maggie is a clever home-maker. They will reside on the Watson homestead.

Mr. Sam Patterson of Egremont was a guest of George E. Peart's part of last week.

The first beef to be dressed in the local beef-ring was supplied by Mr. J. J. Peart and she dressed 447 lbs.

Zionites were well pleased to have their pastor, Rev. C. G. F. Cole, back for the 5th year.

There is to be a paint-brush bee up at Zion's big shed on Thursday, putting on some fancy coloring on the cornice and gables.

An event of local historical interest was the family re-union of the members of the Thomas Anderson family at the home of their brother Irving, on the 4th Concession, on Tuesday evening of last week. The members of the family present were: Mesdames George and Duncan Simpson from Vancouver, Mrs. Grant from Toronto, Mrs. Mantell from Tillsonburg, and James from Medicine Hat. The cousins present from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. William Wellwood from Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson from Brampton. They spent a happy time and a big throng of neighbors renewed the friendship of bygone years.

The whole countryside is deeply interested in the union of the Editor's daughter, Miss Rita and the man of her choice. Possessing rare musical ability and a nature most lovable, she has won a very high place in the esteem of both town and country folk.

(Our own correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lauchie McLean.

Miss Catharine McLean had a birthday party last Saturday and the children around here report having a good time.

Mrs. Smith Ewen spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John McKechnie, of Glenroadin.

Mrs. Archie McKechnie celebrated her seventieth birthday by giving a party to her friends and neighbors, and they all hope she will live to enjoy many more birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. David Watson spent Sunday with their son at Welbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence and daughter Sadie spent a day last week in Owen Sound.

We hope Mr. John Braun's twins will soon be better as they have been very sick lately.

Corner Concerns.

(Our own correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker drove over to Brussels to attend the marriage of their niece, Miss May Grassy, to a Mr. Bradshaw of that part this 14th day of June. As the bride is known in this part, her friends here will wish to extend congratulations.

Rev. Mr. Ibbot's discourse in St. Paul's Church on Sunday was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Agnes Marshall visited her sister and other friends near Mount Forest last week.

Miss Jane McCallum of Toronto, who is spending a fortnight with relatives in Durham and vicinity, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker. It is her first visit here since she started in the profession of nurse.

We are pleased to report Mr. Kenneth Allan well on the road to recovery, but he will miss his examination.

The rains last week have very much improved the appearance of all kinds of crops. Things look well at present.

Work on the roads has started in this part, but principally with the grader.

This part is all excitement over the alleged hold-ups on citizens. The amounts, of course, were not large, but a request was made for police assistance to clear the country of such undesirable.

Ebenezer.

(Our own correspondent.)

Mrs. H. Cross and son, Mr. William Cross, of Hanover, visited recently with the former's sister, Mrs. W. A. Livingston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mervyn, Miss Edith and Master Gordon, of Lam-lash, spent last Sunday afternoon at Mark Mervyn's.

Mr. John Alexander and sister, Miss Mary, were visitors on Sunday last at Robert Johnston's.

Misses Meryl Langrill and Myrtle Lawrence, of Hutton Hill, visited the first of the week with their cousin, Miss Annie Lawrence.

Mr. Wesley Roseborough and wife of near Durham were visitors at Mr. Mark Mervyn's one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fulton and family of Hampden were Sunday visitors at Mr. Robert Johnston's.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Torry, Mr. Geo. and Miss Hazel, of Mulock, called on Mrs. Torry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey, one day last week.

Mrs. George Henderson of Hampden is spending a fortnight with her daughter, Mrs. R. Johnston.

Miss Mary Bailey has returned home from Toronto, where she has spent the past few months, and intends to remain home for the summer.

Statute labor is under way and the beginning of this in this burg.

North-East Normanby.

(Our own correspondent.)

Miss Margaret Marshall of the Base Line, Normanby, was operated on last Friday by Dr. Groves of Fergus. We understand that her condition is not very satisfactory and that little or no hope is held out for her recovery.

Mr. Dawson Marshall, Miss R. I. Caswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallace, Jr., were in Flesher-ton on Sunday.

Mr. James Petty raised his driving shed on Friday night. The structure is a big one and will be a credit to the community.

Miss Mitchell, Field Secretary of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church, addressed Knox and Amos congregations on Sunday.

Mrs. Ed. Smith and daughter Edna, of Toronto, spent over the weekend at the Wallace home. They motored up with Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, who visited with the Eden family at Varney over Sunday.

The W.M.S. met this Wednesday at the home of Mrs. David Marshall.

Dr. Gandier of Toronto will preach in Knox Church next Sunday in the interests of the Forward Movement.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aljoe returned home Tuesday after spending a month with their daughters and other relatives and friends in Toronto. They motored home by way of Brampton, Orangeville, Grand Valley and Arthur, and made extra good time in a Cadillac car.

Mr. Wilbur Anderson of Crawford was a caller at the home of his aunt, Mrs. S. L. McNally, Saturday, on his way to Toronto, where went to spend the week with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matheson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Darlington, motored over from Southampton on Sunday to visit Mrs. Ellen A. Anderson of Crawford.

Miss Truax attended the midsummer millinery openings in Toronto last week.

Mrs. Thomas McGirr is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Watson (Annie), of Galt, this week.

Rev. and Mrs. McCarten of Priceville are moving to Mono Road, their new station in the Methodist Church. They will be missed by their many friends here.

Mrs. M. McFadden and Miss S. Vollett visited Hamilton friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Livingston of Hamilton were callers in town on Tuesday of last week on their way to the Livingston-Kuehner wedding at Hanover on Wednesday. They returned Thursday and were accompanied home by Mrs. H. G. Brigham of Allan Park, who will visit for a couple of weeks.

Miss Audrey Livingston of the Royal Bank staff at Hamilton, spent over the week-end with Mrs. J. F. Irwin and other friends and relatives.

Mr. J. W. Irwin, and Miss R. Irwin, of Heathcote, were present at the marriage of their niece, Miss Rita Irwin, on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Drummond and daughters, Jane and Gemima, of Arbroath, Scotland, arrived Tuesday night, and are on an extended visit with their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Henderson. Mr. Henderson went to Montreal last week to meet the boat on which they sailed to Canada, and accompanied them to Durham.

GOOD SERVICE LAST SUNDAY AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the Sunday evening service in the Baptist Church the pastor laid before his audience three great cups—the Cup of Salvation, the Cup of Divine Indignation and the Cup which the Father gave. The Father's Cup had already been drunken by the incarnate Son of God out of infinite love for dying humanity, in order that He might thereby fill up the Cup of Salvation for them, and of which they might by faith partake. A choice between the other two Cups is now the part of individual humanity.

Allan Park

(Our own correspondent.)

A wide circle of the relatives and friends in Allan Park and surrounding country have been grieved by the death of Mrs. Mark Willis, which occurred last Thursday morning at the age of 64 years and three months. The funeral took place last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence, to the Hanover cemetery. She leaves her husband, one son and three daughters to mourn her death, all being at home except Hazel (Mrs. John Purvis), who lives on a farm nearby. Those who have known Mrs. Willis, knew her to be a loving wife and a good and true mother. In her death, the home, as well as the community at large, has suffered a great loss.

Mr. Zenus Clark has the saw-mill here all ready for go, and is apt to start any day.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bailey are spending the week-end with Hanover friends.

An exciting time was witnessed here one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brigham and her father and mother were touring towards Ripley, after which they intended going to Chicago. Their little lap-dog turned very ill, and acted much as if it had an attack of hydrophobia. It was placed in a box and the party hurried to Durham for medical aid. We have not heard what doctor is in attendance, but last word was that doggie was doing fine.

Mr. James Park went to Owen Sound last Tuesday to perform the duties of juror.

Miss Katie Bradley left for her home at Toronto last Saturday morning, after spending a month's holidays with her friends and relatives here.

Mrs. William Mather and family spent over the week-end with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Park.

Mrs. Herb. Brigham is spending a couple of weeks in Hamilton, visiting friends there.

Allan Park is only a village, but five car loads of live stock were shipped out for Toronto last Saturday morning.

A bunch of black-birds were noticed acting a little queer on Sunday night at the tip-top of the old blacksmith shop. On crawling up it was found that a squirrel was in their nest and had the head eaten off one bird. The squirrel is counted a harmless little animal on fowl, but it looks to your correspondent that they would eat chickens if hungry enough.

The Mystery.

We shake our heads and sigh and say:

"How forward children are to-day!" Yet we remember years ago Our grandfolks criticized us so, And used to wonder, as we do, Just what the age was coming to. It seems upon life's fleeting stage, Youth is the mystery of the age.
