Before leaving this section, where she has most acceptably filled the position of teacher in our Public school, Miss Sybil Lawrence was made the recipient of the following address and presentation:

Dear Miss Lawrence:-We, your scholars, are sorry that you are going to leave us as a teacher. We have appreciated and enjoyed your efforts to instruct us in the various subjects with which we must be acquainted. We have tried to please and encourage you by our attention and interest in the lessons taught. in our learning. You have been a faithful teacher, trying to help us all as much as possible in our education. As a friend we shall also miss you in our school life. We are glad that you are not going very far ness toward her while at Mulock.

To Recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for It Helped Her So Much

Fredericton, N. B.—"I was week and had some troubles women often have, and usually I was unfit for my work. I saw your advertisements and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am very much pleased with the result and recommend your Vegetable Compound whenever I have a chance, You may use this letter for the benefit of others."-Mrs. WANDLESS, 360 Church St., Fredericton, N. B.

Mrs. Wandless, like many, many other women who have found relief by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is anxious to let other women know of this splendid medicine. So by word of mouth and by letter, one woman to another, its virtues are made known.

Women suffering from female ailments, indicated by such symptoms as backache, nervous troubles, hot flashes, pain in the side and a general run-down condition of the whole system, should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For nearly fifty years it has been helping women. Let it help you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Text-Book upon. "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to Lydia B. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

As a small sign of our love to you, and in appreciation of your services as our teacher, we ask you to accept this necklet and pin, hoping that as you use it you will remember the pupils of Mulock school. We wish you every success in your future work, and trust you will have much encouragement in all your labors. We will often think of you as our friend and teacher.

Signed by your pupils .- Lottie Reay, Mae McCallum.
