

Flesherton.

(Our own correspondent.)

Crowded out last week. Mrs. Henry Wilson, a highly respected resident of this place, who passed through a long and trying illness borne with great fortitude and Christian resignation, passed away on Thursday morning, July 27, aged 65 years. For six years Mrs. Wilson had been an invalid, hopeful for recovery, but her malady baffled the best medical skill and all that could be otherwise done for her by her devoted husband. She had a bright and happy disposition which cast sunshine on all about her. The deceased was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeGard, pioneers here. She was born on the old homestead near this village where she was married 43 years ago. Besides her husband, one sister only, Mrs. W. J. Talbot, survives her. Mrs. Wilson was a faithful member of the Methodist Church, interested in all its work. In her early years of Christian service she was a teacher in the Sunday school. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. The funeral took place to the public cemetery here on Saturday afternoon. Service was held in the Methodist Church conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Oke, who based his discourse on the words, "Sorrow and mourning shall flee away" and paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased. The choir sang "I Surrendered All" effectively. Among the floral tributes was a spray from the Ladies' Aid of the church, and Gates Ajar from the LeGard family, Toronto.

Mrs. Jos. Clinton, who was highly esteemed and will be greatly missed by her numerous friends here, passed peacefully to her reward on Friday morning, July 28, at the ripe age of 77 years. Though not robust, Mrs. Clinton was active as usual until six weeks ago when she became ill and notwithstanding the loving care given her the sands of life ran rapidly down. The deceased was born in Renfrew County, but in young womanhood moved to Huron County where she was first married to Mr. William Fairey, who died about three years later. In 1891 she was again married to Mr. Thomas Brownridge, who died in Osprey in 1885. In 1901 she was married to Mr. Clinton in Osprey and a year later moved with him to this village. Besides her husband, two sons, W. J. Fairey of Flesherton, and E. D. Fairey if Toronto survive her. Mrs. Clinton was a consistent and useful member of the Methodist Church, in which her services were highly appreciated and will be greatly missed. She had natural gifts which she used well in the Sunday school as Bible class teacher, in the Ladies' Aid and W.M.S., to all of which she was devoted. She tithed in her giving to the Lord. She was also interested in the Women's Institute work and was for many years collector for the Bible Society. Her remains were interred in the public cemetery on Sunday afternoon. Service was held in the Methodist Church, which was filled with a large congregation. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Oke, preached an impressive sermon from the fitting text, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith," from Timothy 4:7. The Choir sang, "Jesus is all the World to Me." Among the floral tributes were: a beautiful wreath from the sons; spray from the Sunday school and Bible class; and spray from the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. E. Ross of Toronto, a guest at the Park House, died suddenly with uremia on Wednesday morning last week. Mrs. Ross with her daughter and other friends had come to spend a holiday here. She was 45 years of age. Her husband came from Toronto to take the remains home.

Principal R. G. Holland of the Public school is to be congratulated upon the success of his Entrance class of nine, all of whom passed, and three with honors, as follows: Hartley Blackburn, Laura Boyd (H), Luella Lever, Ted McDonald, Florence McFadden (H), Gladys Pinder (H), Harold Richardson, Ross Smith and Viola Thistlethwaite. The High school students in the Lower school examinations made a satisfactory showing, there being only one student of the 38 who did not receive credit for part of the examination.

Marrfed.—At the Methodist parsonage, Harriston, on July 16, by the Rev. Joseph Wright, Miss Mae Carrington of Flesherton to Mr. Nelson Willis of Wroxeter. The young couple were here last week visiting the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carrington. The bride was given a pleasant surprise by a few of her friends who called and presented her with a handsome mission oak clock.

Mrs. Roy Gibson of Ceylon and Mr. J. Little of Wareham had a narrow escape from injury on Saturday night last when cars driven by them collided at the turn to the valley, a mile out of town. The drivers escaped in the mix-up and fortunately the cars were but slightly damaged.

The Odd Fellows of Dundalk observed Sunday as grave decoration day and visited several points. Five car loads of the members visited the cemetery here and with impressive ceremony decorated with flowers the graves of the following deceased members: James Sullivan, William Petch, Mark Cairns, John Martin and William Boyd.

At the morning service in the Methodist Church on Sunday, Miss Irene Wilson, whose sweet singing is always appreciated, favored the congregation with a beautifully rendered solo. There was no service in the evening and no service in the Presbyterian Church.

We congratulate our old friend, Mr. J. C. Griffiths of Owen Sound on the celebration of his 80th birthday last week. Mr. Griffiths was at one time an active business man and a highly respected resident of Flesherton.

This week's News.

Mr. William Inkster met with a nasty accident last week when his horse hauling a load of lime took fright and he was thrown from the wagon, two wheels passing over him. Dr. Turnbull attended to his injuries which, in part, consisted of a fracture of the shoulder bone. Mr. Inkster was busy making extensive improvements on his house, but will now be disabled for some time.

Mr. Charles McKechnie has moved from Rock Mills to his residence recently purchased here.

Mr. Reg. Boyd was on crutches last week with a painful foot, penetrated by a rusty nail, but the inflammation is subsiding.

Miss Hemphill had her garden of beautiful flowers disfigured one night last week when vandals entered, cut off and carried away many of her choicest bloom. Mrs. T. J. Fisher also lost some of her finest flowers.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. held their August meeting last week at the home of Mrs. George Blackburn, four miles from town. The outing in cars and hospitality of the hostess at the close of the meeting was much enjoyed.

A pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson on Saturday when the Misses Wilson entertained about twenty-five young ladies, married and single, at an afternoon tea in honor of Miss Gwendolin Quinn of Beamsville, a visitor at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wright, Mrs. J. Blackburn, Miss Maud Richardson and Miss Annie Howard holidayed with friends at Wasaga Beach on Monday.

Communion service was held in the Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor. Mr. W. Littlejohn rendered an appropriate solo. At the evening service Mr. Clare Oke of Toronto, who was visiting his parents at the parsonage, preached a thoughtful sermon. Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Irene Wilson sang a duet, and Miss Myrtle Stanfield of Toronto visiting here, gave a beautifully rendered solo. The young singer possesses a wonderful voice, taking the highest notes with great clearness. She won the gold medal in the school contest for vocal in Toronto.

Rev. A. E. Thornley of Shelburne preached a good sermon in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. The congregation was favored with two excellent solos, Miss Etanfield of Toronto sang sweetly, and Mr. A. J. Smith, a member of St. James' Cathedral choir, who possesses a fine baritone voice, sang well. Rev. and Mrs. Thornley and young son were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Cairns over Sunday and left on Monday to holiday at Griffith's Island.

Mr. S. Vose, student in charge of the Baptist Church, left on Monday on two weeks' holidays. There will be no service next Sunday, the church being in the hands of the decorator, Mr. H. S. Carrington, who has the contract for the interior improvements to be made.
