Destructive Fire at Tavistock.

At an early hour Sunday morning the large plant and elevator of the Tavistock Milling Company was completely destroyed by fire, together with four cars of flour ready for shipment and about 10,000 bushels of wheat. The loss will be close to $70,000. Cause of fire unknown, but A. E. Ratz, owner of the mill, thinks it originated from friction caused by a nail going through the chopper or a loose pulley.

Married At Owen Sound.

On Tuesday afternoon, September 26, at First Methodist Church Parsonage, Owen Sound, there was solemnized by the Rev. John Locke, in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties, the marriage of Mr. Carl Robert Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fry of Chesley, and Miss Eva May Trafford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trafford of Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Fry will reside in Durham.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

Ripe Raspberries in October.

It isn't often we see ripe raspberries at this season of the year, but such things do occur sometimes. On Monday morning Mrs. John White of Crawford left us a branch from her raspberry patch and on it there were a number of ripe well-developed and well-flavored berries. These bushes had borne the usual crop in July, and afterwards died down, apparently to wait for next year. We have witnessed similar occurrences formerly, but it is not at all usual. A couple of weeks ago Mr. C.W. Lang of Durham showed us a box of second crop berries of excellent variety from appearance. We can't say anything about the flavor as he didn't even ask us to taste them. He told us it was natural for this variety to yield two crops a year, one early in the season, and another about the latter part of September. Besides berries, Grey County has gone into the peach-raising business, and we were informed the other day that Mr. C. C. Elvidge had been successful in raising a couple this summer.

Death of Alexander Nevin.

Mr. Alexander Nevin, a resident of this town for the past eighteen years died on Sunday evening in his 77th year. He was born in Scotland on the last day of 1845 and when a young man came to this country with his parents and settled for a time at Elora. He subsequently moved to this county, where he was married in 1888 to Sarah Lomas, who is his only survivor, a daughter, Mrs. Miller, having died seven years ago. The deceased was an honest and faithful laborer until about nine years ago, when he was taken with paralysis, and since then has been unable to work only at intervals. He had three strokes subsequently, the last occurring on Wednesday of last week, from which he never regained consciousness. The remains were interred Tuesday afternoon in Durham cemetery, Rev. Mr. Cole officiating at the obsequies.

Mr. Arthur Greenwood, one of the most plodding farmers in Glenelg, has decided to sell his stock and implements and move to town. The sale is to take place on the 18th of this month.

James Matthews Buried.

The remains of the late James Matthews, to whose death we referred in last issue, were laid to rest on Saturday afternoon in Maplewood cemetery. The ceremony was conducted under Orange auspices, and a goodly number of the brethren were in attendance to pay their last tribute of respect to an honored brother. The remains were taken to Trinity Church, where an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. F. G. Hardy, to a well-filled house.

Rev. Dr. Byron Stauffer Dead.

Rev. Dr. Byron Stauffer, pastor of the City Temple, Toronto, one of Canada's best-known preachers and writers, died early Monday morning from heart failure. He was to have preached at Massey Hall Sunday night on "Northcliffe and Will Power," a sermon specially prepared for students, but at five o'clock in the afternoon he took suddenly ill and was unable to fill the engagement. He was about fifty years of age, and a native of Waterloo County.

Died at Weston.

Mr. E. J. Stedman, father of Mr. J. L. Stedman of this office died on Tuesday afternoon at his home at Weston after a complicated illness of several weeks' duration. A message to the son Thursday night announced that death was momentarily expected and he left by first train Friday morning. The patient lingered on till Tuesday, when Mrs. Stedman was called, but before her arrival death claimed its victim. He was a man between fifty and sixty years of age, but we know very little of his history. Besides his widow he leaves two sons, J. L. here, and another in the West, and one daughter, married and living at Weston. Interment takes place to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. William Martin has purchased the Nurse Carmount property north of The Review office, and Mr. George Noble of Bentinck has bought the McKelvie residence on Bruce St.

Quarantined Because of Borer.

The destruction caused by the European corn-borer is becoming more serious and the quarantined districts are coming nearer home. The latest extension of quarantine regulations covers Culross Township in the County of Bruce, Turnberry, in Huron, Trafalgar, in Halton, Chatham including the Gore of Chatham, Dover East, Dover West, in the County of Kent, Dawn, Enniskillen, Moore and Sombra in Lambton, Grimsby in Lincoln, Albion, Chinguacousy and Toronto townships in Peel, and Barton township in Wentworth. We have not yet noticed that any portion of Grey County has been placed under quarantine.

Methodist Church Anniversary.

The anniversary services in the Methodist Church on Sunday were a great success. Excellent sermons were preached by Rev. Asher P. Latter of Mount Forest and enjoyed by large congregations. Mr. Latter has a fine voice, a pleasing personality, and delivers his message in a clear, forceful manner. The Church Board asked for a contribution of $300, but were pleased to find the congregation had exceeded the objective by nearly a hundred dollars, with more to follow. They intend making additional church improvements and will find place for all the money they got.

Do You Want to Sell?

We need housing accommodation. This is an old story, but it continues to be true. Our population is none too great, but we'll either have to find accommodation for what we have or our numbers will decrease. Even now we know a man with a wife and family who talks of leaving, not because he has any fault to find with the place, but because he finds it difficult to get a suitable house to live in. He is willing to buy if he can make arrangements to suit—a payment down and annual instalments with interest on deferred payments. A man may be thrifty and procure a home in this way. This should suit a seller who doesn't need the money, providing he gets enough down to secure the property. If there are any who have property to sell on these conditions, we would like to hear from them.

Flesherton Fair a Success.

Nearly all the local fairs so far are meeting with favorable weather. Durham being amongst the few exceptions. At Holstein last week the weather was ideal and a large number was in attendance. Flesherton Fair was held on Thursday and Friday of last week and better weather couldn't be wished for. The gate receipts, we are told, amounted to something in the neighborhood of $600. We were on the grounds for an hour or so and met a few of our former acquaintances, as well as took a glance over the exhibits, the inside exhibits particularly. Horse-racing was one of the attractions and will draw a crowd if anything will. We were under the impression the attendance was only fair, but on a flat ground it never shows up to the advantage on our own natural grandstand. The adult admission was 35c., from which we infer there were in the neighborhood of two thousand paid admissions.

Minimum Sentence, One-Year.

Walter Johnson, an eighteen-year-old boy of Owen Sound, was sentenced to one year in the Ontario Reformatory for stealing a car belonging to Mr. J. H. Rutherford. The theft was soon discovered. The local police telephoned Shallow Lake, where the thief was arrested. He was accompanied by another boy and inside of an hour the car was back in Owen Sound and the boys in the police cells. Johnson pleaded guilty and stated that the other boy, Finnet, knew nothing of the car being stolen. Finnet pleaded not guilty and his case was dismissed. Johnson had been in police court a number of times and had been warned. Police Magistrate Creasor in pronouncing the sentence said the boy had been warned before and stated that a new amendment to the Criminal Code states that anyone convicted of stealing a car cannot receive a sentence of less than one year in the Ontario Reformatory.

Died in Chicago.

Mr. Harvey W. Wilson, superintendent of the Jno. E. Russell plant here, received word Saturday night that his brother, Mr. William R. H. Wilson, had died in Chicago that evening. Only last week, while on a business trip to Chicago, Mr. Wilson visited his brother, who had been taken to the hospital suffering with acute heart trouble, and on his return here last Thursday night, he informed us that he thought his chances for recovery were very slight. Mr. Wilson was twenty-nine years of age and was born at Owen Sound, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson. He grew up and went to Public school and Collegiate Institute in Owen Sound. Seven years ago he went to Chicago, where he entered the drug business. During the war he was a member of the American Army but did not proceed overseas. On the conclusion of the war he resumed his work in the drug business. He was one of Owen Sound's most promising young men and was very popular there. He was a member of the Division street Presbyterian Church. Three brothers and one sister survive, Harold in Owen Sound, Harvey W. in Durham and Allan and Mrs. E. H. Norris in Oakland, California. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from the residence of his uncle, Mr. John M. Wilson, Owen Sound.
