Meaford Shop Damaged by Fire.

Fire which broke out Saturday morning about 5 o'clock did about $3,000 damage to Deegan & Hurd's barber shop and pool room at Meaford. The cause of the fire is unknown. The building is owned by the J. G. Sing estate, Toronto.

I.O.D.E. Meeting.

Canadian Greys Chapter I.O.D.E. held its monthly business meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of the Educational Secretary, Miss Alma Hughes. Miss Julia Weir, B.A., Vice Regent, was in the chair. Important business was disposed of. The Chapter will furnish a Ward in the new Red Cross Hospital. Poppy Day will be suitably remembered on November 11, the Chapter again selling poppies. The erection of a new Town Hall in the near future was discussed and active steps will be taken in that direction very soon. On the 25th of November there will be a Parcel Post Sale to raise funds for this very necessary undertaking. Keep this date in mind. At the request of the Rector of the Anglican Church the Daughters will attend in a body the Harvest Thanksgiving service on October 13.

Death Caused by Boyish Prank.

Patsy O'Reardoh, a nine-year-old girl of Toronto, lost her life Saturday through a foolish prank of a boy playmate. He was playing with matches on Sumach street and lighting one, threw it into the folds of the girl's dress, which blazed up instantly. Though the flame was beaten out, she died shortly afterwards.

A man who criticizes girls for showing their charms is the one who wraps a ten-dollar bill around a roll of ones.

THE N. W. B. A. AGAIN

The suspension of the Durham Junior Baseball Club by the North Wellington Baseball Association is not over yet. Yesterday at noon President Macfarlane of Harriston called us up by phone and took exception to our article last week in which we stated our opinion that the next annual meeting of that association "will see a big change in the Executive line-up and some live wires elected to office."

Mr. Macfarlane is evidently laboring under the impression that The Chronicle is out to "get" him, or, if not him, the North Wellington Baseball Executive. Nothing is farther from our intention. We do not want to "get" anybody, and rather than injure the N.W.B.A. we would sooner see it go ahead and become one of the strongest factors in amateur sport in this locality. Like ourselves, however, Mr. Macfarlane does not know all the facts of the case, at least from our standpoint. In our conversation, Mr. Macfarlane admitted that he did not know that to date the officials of the Durham club had received absolutely no notice of their suspension other than what has appeared in the newspapers. When told this, he said that he thought the local officials should have written him instead of publishing it in the papers. To this we must answer that the local officials have not run to us with anything for publication; on the contrary, it is The Chronicle that has gone to them to find out what the trouble was, and they have been unable to tell us anything except that they were suspended.

Yesterday, Mr. Macfarlane told us the Durham club had been suspended for playing men affiliated with another "recognized" club, and claims that any club playing in a league that has drawn up a constitution or set of rules is a "recognized" club. To us, this seems like a funny ruling. A City League must have a constitution, set of rules, or something to guide them in their series; if they don't, we can't for the life of us see how they can get anywhere. However, Mr. Macfarlane says that the meeting at Mitchell a couple of weeks ago decided that the Durham club had disregarded this rule and therefore stood suspended. Mr. D.G. Banting, our local secretary, informs us that three out of five of the executive at Mitchell admitted that Durham had got a raw deal, but they didn't put it to a vote.

Mr. Macfarlane also informed us that none of the Durham birth certificates had been in the hands of the Secretary on time. We told him that we had information that one of the Durham delegates at the Mitchell meeting had proof that outside of Palmerston, not one junior team had their birth certificates in on time. Mr. Macfarlane did not answer this question, or, if he did, we didn't hear him. Mr. Macfarlane expressed great surprise when we told him that to date no official communication had come from the League informing the Durham club of their suspension, and that letters written by Secretary Banting of the Durham club to the Association Secretary had never yet been answered. He told us that if he could get official notification of this from the local club he would look into it and see that the matter was rectified at once.

Mr. Macfarlane feels that our criticisms were directed at him. Well, we want to correct that impression without further delay. We are acting honestly in the matter, and have the good of amateur sport at heart just as much as anyone.

As head of the North Wellington Association, Mr. Macfarlane naturally must bear the brunt of all attacks, criticisms, fault-finders or whatever you want to call it, to which that Association is subjected; he must recognize that criticizing Mr. Macfarlane as President of the N.W.B.A. is a matter entirely different from criticizing him as Mr. Macfarlane, Private Citizen of Harriston, Ontario. The Chronicle must plead guilty to criticizing the N.W.B.A. this past few weeks and, with all due respects to Mr. Macfarlane, we think it was justified. Granted that the N.W.B.A. were right when they suspended the Durham club, they should at least have notified that club of their decision. Clause 7 of the "Rules of Competition" is not plainly enough stated, and we are informed that at the Mitchell meeting even the Executive could give no lucid definition. On the negligence of the local club in not sending in their birth certificates, there is a lot of misunderstanding. If it is true that even one other junior club did not have their birth certificates in on time, then the N.W.B.A. did not play fair when the suspended Durham juniors. Will Mr. Macfarlane say that not one other club was guilty? Will Mr. Horning say that the Owen Sound Club (now playing off in the O.B.A. semi-finals) had their certificates in on time? Durham officials, we are told, have proof that they were not.

We recognize that Mr. Macfarlane and all other members of the Executive have a lot of troubles and worries; they have also a lot of unnecessary troubles and worries thrust upon them that should not be. But it takes big men to handle a big league, and when a man shoves himself into the public eye as an official in any public capacity, sporting or otherwise, he must be big enough to "stand the gaff" or he won't last long. So far as the personality of the Executive of the N.W.B.A. is concerned, we know nothing. We tried in our criticisms to deal with baseball in general and the suspension of the Durham club in particular, keeping as far away from "personalities" as possible. We had our honest convictions about the matter, and we expressed them. What else could we do? Here we had a team of juniors that beat Owen Sound, both at Owen Sound and Durham, and here we are, suspended, and for what? So far as the N.W.B.A. is concerned, we are suspended, and that's all. In short, we thought all along that we had been subjected to a pretty raw deal, and darned if we don't think so yet. At that, the members of the Executive may personally be a bunch of mighty fine fellows. But in the light of the information at hand to date, we don't think much of their ideas of running a baseball league. And even this, of course, is also a matter of opinion.

CAR DITCHED BY COW; FOUR MEN ARE INJURED

A dispatch from Mount Forest under date of October 4, says:

"Four young men from here rented a car from Mr. Rooney's livery last night to go to Hanover, and when about four miles west of Durham on the Hanover road they came to a place where a horse and a herd of cows were feeding. The driver turned out to dodge the horse when one of the cows, stepping directly in front of his car, was struck and killed. The car, passing over the cow, upset, throwing the four men into the ditch.

"Percy Steele was the worst hurt and was taken to Durham, where an X-ray of his injuries showed that a bone in his back had been broken. He was brought home on a stretcher today. E. Morrison, who was driving the car, suffered a dislocated shoulder and a badly bruised knee. Mr. Keelin has two black eyes and J. Murdoch received a bad shaking up. The car was badly damaged. "The man who owned the cattle will likely be held responsible for the accident."

The story told above is certainly not the story told The Chronicle on Saturday, the day after the accident. According to the story told us, there were two cars in the mix-up, and they were going down the long grade to Livingston's Corners at a good rate of speed. The cows in question were the property of Mr. Robert Johnston, now in the West, and were being taken to pasture by his son, who is running the farm in his absence. The first car that came along struck and injured a colt, and finally ran into a cow, killing it almost instantly. When the cow was struck, the car turned around, and, if we remember aright, slewed around on the road and when it stopped was facing toward Durham. One of the young men was thrown out and lay in the road, when the other car came along and passed over him, apparently not doing any injury. How it ran over the young man in the road and at the same time escaped the dead cow is a mystery to our informant, but, anyway, it did. After proceeding a short distance down the road it stopped, but none of the occupants came back, and after remaining a minute or so, proceeded on its way. The supposition is that the occupants of the second car thought they were implicated in injuring the young man lying motionless on the road, and left before their number could be taken.

The above are the two stories of the accident, and the public, so far as The Chronicle is concerned, will have to draw its own conclusions. We may further state that our informant is in no wise interested in the cattle, but was in that locality when the accident occurred. He is positive, in an answer to a question put by us, that the animals, five or six horses, and seven or eight cattle, were under escort when the accident occurred.

Juvenile Concert To-morrow Night.

All interested in the Red Cross Memorial Hospital, and this means everybody, are requested to attend the juvenile concert in the Town Hall to-morrow (Friday) night, October 6. The full program was given in last week's issue and promises to be good. The proceeds will be in aid of the hospital and the youngsters are anxious to make a good showing. Let the hall be filled; it will be an inspiration to the youthful performers. The object is a worthy one. Show that you think so by your presence.

Corner Concerns.

(Our own correspondent.)

Miss Irene Barbour spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. William Freeman, at Teeswater. Mr. James Reid, who spent the summer with his daughter, Mrs. Janet McMeeken, left last week to spend the winter with friends in Muskoka. Mr. Earl Mead delivered a pure bred bull to a stock breeder near Hopeville on Tuesday.

Mr. James Marshall added a new riding plow to his other labor-saving devices on the farm on Monday.

Born.—On Friday, September 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephenson, a daughter.

A memorial service will be held next Sunday at St. Paul's Church for the late James Matthews, who was one of our pioneers.

Mr. James Lewis was so unfortunate on Saturday as to have one of his fingers so badly crushed in the gear of a cutting-box while filling a silo, that it had to be amputated.

Miss Ruby Matthews was home from Owen Sound for her grandfather's funeral, and accompanying her was the lady with whom she boards.

Mr. James Marshall has got a young boy to help with the light work. He got him from the Bellevue Home.

We were sorry to hear that Kenneth Allan got his arm broken at Durham school, but hope it will not hinder his studies very much.

South Bentinck

(Our own correspondent.)

Miss Jean Derby of Toronto spent a few days last week at her former home here.

Mr. Nathan Grierson returned to Toronto to continue his course, after spending the vacation at his home.

Mrs. Lorne Smith was a recent visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Derby, Jr.

Miss Mary M. Turnbull, who is attending the High School in Guelph, motored to her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Searle.

A prayer-meeting was held at the home of Mr. Alex. MacLean last week.

The corn-cutting gang were delighted and also surprised to see a deer last week in a field where they were working. As the crowd began to gather, the deer became shy and ran a short distance, when it turned and looked back. It then leaped a fence and disappeared in the bush. It is reported that several deer are in the neighborhood, and we only hope that they will not be hunted.

A number of boys of this line were out coon-hunting one night recently, but were unable to capture any game.

COMPLETELY FREE OF CONSTIPATION

Tried for Years to Find Relief

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" GAVE IT

Chronic Constipation or insufficient action of the bowels, is one of the great causes of disease. Some authorities even claim that Constipation cannot be permanently corrected. This is a great mistake, because here is the proof that constipation can be cured and the bowels made to act regularly and naturally.

YARMOUTH, N.S.

"For years, I was troubled with Constipation, and had to take laxatives and purgatives all the time. If I neglected to take these, the bowels would refuse to do their work.

About two years ago, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives", which I did. The first box helped me so much that I obtained further supplies of the remedy and continued the treatment. After using about eight boxes, my bowels were able to perform their particular function without aid.

The relief in my case has been lasting, as up to date, I have never had any further trouble. I can recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to all suffering as I did and I am sure they will derive equal benefit."

A. W. FRANKLIN.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c., or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.
