

Traverston.

(Our own correspondent.)

The whole countryside is aglow and the river valleys and the bordering hillsides form an endless picture of the rarest blending of colors.

Mrs. W. J. Greenwood is holidaying for a week with relatives in Listowel and Molesworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Matthews and Mr. William Matthews of near Mt. Forest spent Thursday last at the old home on the 10th Concession and spent an hour or two at your scribe's home on the return trip.

Rev. A. P. Laiter of Mt. Forest preached a most impressive and forceful sermon in Zion on Sunday afternoon.

The most of the threshing will be finished hereabouts by the close of this week.

Quite a number are taking advantage of the fine weather to raise the potato crop, and all are agreed in stating they are a magnificent crop.

Ivan Edwards motored up to town on Saturday evening from Toronto, spent part of the first of the week at the parental home, and, accompanied by his better half, returned to the city on Monday evening.

The whole countryside is deeply moved over the death of Mrs. Dave Young (nee Miss Jessie Peters), which occurred at Weston on Tuesday evening, September 26, 1922, after some months' suffering from the white plague. "Jessie" was a most lovable and loved child, maiden, young matron, owing to her sunny ways, open-hearted hospitality and continual thoughtful care for others.

She was born in Toronto, May 1, 1890, where her brother Herb., and sisters Mary and Edith, were also born; but shortly after the birth of the latter, both father and mother were called away. So their uncle, Ranald Martin, brought them to the old home on the 6th, and their auntie, Mrs. Rob. McFadden, tenderly reared them. After her marriage, Jessie managed the home and devotedly waited on her invalid grandfather, but always found time to be an "angel of mercy" to anyone needing help.

On February 20, four years ago, she was wedded to Mr. Dave Young, and the union was a most happy one. A little daughter, Glenna, was born to them two years ago and filled their cup of happiness to overflowing. Last winter she was a sufferer from a very severe attack of the "flu" and the lungs became affected. In July she went to Weston and received the best medical treatment and care, but the disease had too strong a grip to shake off. The end was more sudden than anticipated. Her husband had been down every week-end, and had just returned from a visit the day before. The remains were brought to her late home on Thursday and the funeral took place to Zion on Friday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Aird of Mulock conducting service in the home, and he and the Rev. C. G. F. Cole a most comforting service in the church. A solo entitled "No Night in Heaven" by Mr. W. J. McFadden of Orange Valley, in the beginning of the service, and a sweetly rendered one by Mrs. Moore McFadden of town near the close of the service, added greatly to the comforting message. The grave had been white-lined and decorated with white asters and crimson maple leaves, and in the perfect beauty of a September day the loved one was laid to sleep. Early in life she became a member of the Baptist Church, and was a most devout believer. Her life was deeply spiritual and her influence most helpful.

A big concourse of people from all surrounding neighborhoods was present to show respect and sympathy. Mr. Joe Young and Mr. Alex. Aubrey were up from Toronto. The floral tributes by the husband and daughter, by Mr. and Mrs. Rob. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Aubrey, and by Uncle Ranald and Mr. and Mrs. James Haley and family were very beautiful.

Besides the sorrowing young husband and daughter, the two sisters in the West, Mrs. Stewart McArthur and Mrs. Alfred Heather, will sorely grieve over a beloved sister. The whole countryside extend their deepest sympathy and regret that one so useful should be called away.

(Our own correspondent.)

The fair and warm weather during last week was very favorable for potato digging.

We expect to have a good Fall Fair on Thursday and Friday, October 5 and 6. The exhibits will likely be numerous and with lunch and refreshment booths on the ground, also several tents containing amusement games, etc., have been provided for the Midway on Friday.

It was expected that water could be secured at a depth of sixteen feet at the fox ranch, but indications are that double that depth will be required to get a supply.

The beautiful black foxes bring numerous visitors to the village, some on business intent, the others sightseeing.

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Whyte were quite ill during the last two weeks but seem to be improving at the end of last week.

Miss Jones of Artemesia street has been under the care of Dr. O. E. Carr for some days.

Mrs. T. A. Ferguson, who has been in bed ill for two weeks, is improving a little, being able to sit in a chair part time on Friday and Saturday of last week.

The village is full of excitement to-day, in hopes of seeing a basketball game between Boothville and Durham on Friday, the 6th, at the Fall Fair here.

Flesherton.

(Our own correspondent.)

East Grey Fall Fair here Thursday and Friday last was favored with delightful summer weather and the largest turnout in many years. In every respect the Fair was a splendid success and gratifying to the Directors, who were diligent in their efforts to make it such. The exhibits in all lines were good, but in some classes excelled both in quantity and quality. On Friday afternoon Miss Agnes MacPhail formally opened the Fair with a neat address, which was well received, and Mr. G. M. Leeson, M.P.P., also spoke in a pleasing manner. A taking feature was the parade of school children to the grounds, where before dispersing all joined in singing The Maple Leaf Forever. The schools taking part were: Ceylon, Eugenia, Rock Mills, Portlaw, Springhill and Flesherton. The parade was led by Flesherton Band, which supplied good music during the afternoon and evening. The races were a big attraction and specially good, with 16 horses in the ring. The results were as follows:—2.20 Class: Pacing Star, owned by Burns, Palmerston, 1 1 1; Molly McEwan, Scarrow, Hanover, 3 3 2; Redman, Hillgartner, Hanover, 3 3 2; Cactus Star, Palmer, Dundalk, 4 4 4. 2.30 Class:—Della H. Shields, Alliston, 1 2 2 1 1; Freddy C. Ramage, Chatsworth, 2 1 1 2 4; Lady Medium, Keating, Corbetton, 3 3 4 3 2; McKinley Chief, Moore, Palmerston, 4 4 3 4 3. Classified Race: Birdie Bizon, Matthews, Shelburne, 1 1 1; Helen C., Maxwell, Heathcote, 3 2 2; Jim Allerton, Heuston, Dunroon, 2 3 4; Albert McKinney, Matthews, Shelburne, 4 4 3 3. Green Race: Red Medium, Keating, Corbetton, 1 1 1; Sandy Mac., Love, Proton, 2 2 2; Sam C. Clark, Flesherton, 3 3 3; Era Canuck, Akins, Flesherton, 4 4 4.

The Fair concert in the High school was also very successful. The big audience was highly pleased with the program given by Harvey Lloyd Fun Company. Mr. Wes. Buskin of Toronto presided in a pleasing manner. The receipts of the day were $700.

A sudden death occurred here on Monday afternoon, October 2, when Mr. F. G. Cole, a very highly respected old resident passed away at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Charles Stewart. His death from heart failure was a shock to all, for he had visited the Fair on Friday and was still going about in his usual good health for one of his age until a few hours before his end came. The deceased, who was in his 90th year, was a native of Devonshire, England, from where he came about 65 years ago to Rochester, N.Y., and was there married to Miss Susannah Wyatt, who died here over three years ago. A few years after marriage he came to Canada and, being a miller by trade, operated flour mills at several places. From Traverston he came to Flesherton 38 years ago and engaged in grain-buying for a number of years. At Fall Fairs he was much in demand for judging grain and farm produce. In politics Mr. Cole was a staunch Conservative and in religion an Anglican. He was a man of marked integrity in his dealings with the public and leaves his family the heritage of a good name. He is survived by two sons and two daughters: Myron at Forest, Frank at Detroit, Mrs. Charles Stewart, at Flesherton, and Miss Hattie Cole, Toronto. The funeral will take place here on Wednesday afternoon.

Anniversary services in the Methodist church on Sunday were very successful. Large congregations listened with deep interest to Rev. H. E. Wellwood of Barrie, a former highly-esteemed pastor, who spoke with his usual fluency and earnestness, delivering very able and impressive sermons. Mr. Wellwood was warmly greeted by his old friends. Excellent music was given by the choir, assisted by Mr. George Buchanan of Vandeleur, Mrs. (Rev.) Thom of Barrie, and Mrs. Oliver Dynes of Knoxville, Tennessee, visiting her parents at Dundalk, Mrs. Dynes (nee Charlotte Rowe), who has formerly sung with acceptance here, gave two sweet and beautifully rendered solos which enriched the services. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers.

At the Presbyterian Church on Sunday in place of the regular service the Sunday School Rally Day programme was rendered. Mr. F. Chard had charge of the programme and Rev. Mr. Fowler spoke on the topic for the day.

Mr. Richard Whittaker of Stone's Line met with a heavy loss last week by fire which destroyed his fine large barn, together with the entire crop of the season. While threshing sweet clover, about three hours after starting the fire broke out at the rear of the straw-stack and spread rapidly. Its origin is a mystery as no one was near it and the power used was a gasoline engine from which there could be no sparks. The engine and machine belonging to a local company were saved. Mr. Whittaker had $3,500 insurance, but his loss will far exceed that.

Mrs. William J. Henderson of this place was seized with a paralytic stroke last week, but under the care of Dr. Turnbull and Nurse Inkster we are pleased to learn recovery is being made.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt visited over the week-end with friends in Toronto.

Mr. R. J. Sproule made a business trip to Toronto on Monday.

Rev. J. H. Oke spent Sunday at Barrie supplying Rev. Wellwood's pulpit. Mr. H. Down accompanied him to visit friends.

Miss Maud Richardson, Toronto, and Mrs. Boyd and daughter of Markdale, attended church here on Sunday to hear their old friend, Rev. Mr. Wellwood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cunningham and two children, of Palmerston, and Mr. and Miss Morgan and Miss Lily Lever of Moorefield, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lever.

Mr. Jeff Thistlethwaite and family of Toronto are on a visit with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilcock and two children of Buffalo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. Naeser, are on a motoring holiday visiting Mrs. W. Wilcock here. All spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Alton, at Markdale.

Mr. Charles McTavish of Oshawa, eldest son of Reeve McTavish here, has the honor of being elected president of the Y.M.C.A. there. It is pleasing to Charlie's friends here that he is thus honored and engaged in splendid work.

A number from here attended Jack Miner's lecture at Markdale last week and were highly pleased with his story of bird life.

A quiet marriage took place in Toronto on Monday, October 2, when a very highly esteemed couple here, Mr. Charles N. Richardson, druggist, and Miss Zilla Trimble, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Trimble, were joined in wedlock. Rev. James H. Dudgeon, a former pastor here, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have gone on a motoring trip for a couple of weeks and will visit the bride's sister at Detroit. On their return the popular couple will continue to reside here, enjoying the good wishes of a host of friends.

Among the visitors to the Fair here who gave us a call were: Editor Irwin and Postmaster Smith of Durham, W. L. Young of Markdale, Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P., and sister, Mrs. M. Reany, Southampton, W. Buskin and friend, S. Wrathall of Toronto, who visited over the week-end with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith of Chatsworth attended the Fair on Friday and called on the latter's old friend, Mrs. VanDusen.

Miss Marguerite Runstadler has returned to Toronto to resume her medical course.

Mrs. C. J. Bellamy visited the past week with her sister in Toronto.

Mrs. W. Ross of Weston was a visitor at W. J. Stewart's last week and took in the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald motored from McTier and took in the Fair and spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Turnbull of Canfield visited over the week-end with their son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Turnbull. Miss Moir of Orangeville High school staff was also a visitor with them on Saturday.

Mr. Frank Thurston was in Meaford on Friday and Saturday assisting his brother in The Mirror office. Miss Nelson of the Public school staff was called to Toronto last week by the illness of her brother, who has to undergo an operation. Miss Nesbitt of Mono is supplying in her absence.

Miss Viola Lewis spent the week-end with friends in Toronto.

Rev. H. E. Wellwood of Barrie and Mrs. Dynes of Knoxville, Tenn., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hickling over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chard were at Collingwood on Sunday to visit the latter's brother, in the hospital, after an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller and the latter's mother and brother, of Honeywood, spent the week-end in Toronto.

If we give a merchant our custom, we have a right to expect him to advertise—to tell us weekly in the columns of The Chronicle what he has for us. Advertising is shop news, designed to inform us, save out time, and bring to our attention desirable merchandise.

Every retailer who is alive to the interests of his customers has a message—often many messages—for his customers concerning new goods, special offerings, and things that we ought to know about. Customers and non-customers will be attentive and responsive to these messages, if they are delivered every week in the form of advertisements in The Chronicle. The way to get more business is to ask for it.

A NOTE TO MERCHANTS

Would YOU buy much or regularly from firms that never solicit your trade? Do you not say—"The firm that wants my business must come after it?"

Yet some of you say, in effect, to your customers—"We're here. If you want our goods, come and get them, but don't expect us to go after you." It's a poor rule that doesn't work both ways.
