

Traverston
(Our own correspondent.)

This being Leap Year, the marriageable fellows will no doubt receive some very pertinent valentines. If an abundance of snow in winter presages a bumper crop the following summer, this vicinity will require double sacks of binder twine. Mrs. T. E. Blair spent the weekend in Owen Sound with her hubby. The Township Fathers had a heavy day's work at the Hall on Saturday.

We were unable to get a budget through last week owing to blocked roads, but we wish to pay a slight tribute in this to the very high esteem in which the late Dr. Hutton was held by many of our people and the very strong personal attachment that existed. That big, human heart of his won a wide circle of friends.

The members of the O'Connor family on the 9th Concession lately moved into their cosy and very handsome new cottage erected this fall. On Friday evening a merry group of young folk invaded the home, were most hospitably received and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Over 2,000 logs have been hauled from Mr. John Ryan's bush to Mr. Joe Vasey's mill on the 12th Concession, and about a thousand more remain to be cut and hauled.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McNally of Claresholm, Alberta, with their bright boys, Leonard and Alvin, and their winsome little daughter, Elaine, have made their headquarters for the past fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur, on their former homestead, and are calling on their many old neighbors and friends. We always regretted the removal of this young couple from our neighborhood, but they have done well "on the foothills of the Rockies," and still better days lie ahead of them.

Mr. W. R. Jack, who has been making Durham his home for the past two months, is returning to his farm this week.

Mr. Graham Timmins has been quite ill of late and under Dr. D. B. Jamieson's care, but at present is much better.

A big sleigh load of kindred landed at the Cook homestead on Saturday evening—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden and family of Orange Valley, Mr. Jake Cook of Ceylon, and Mr. Thomas Cook of Markdale.

The young folk have been having quite a bit of fun twitting each other of how often the cutters turned over coming home on Saturday night from town. Luckily, the storm obliterated the marks.

Welbeck

(Our own correspondent.)

It is my wish to return thanks to The Enterprise for its reply to my defeat in the recent municipal election. I was not acquainted with the coppermiths and tinsmiths and other smiths that were mentioned, but however I admit that I love kicks. They make me work harder. I like kindly criticisms, too, they keep me encouraged. That is why I am game to try again, and should failure be my luck, I'll try again.

The reason I failed was because I was strongly in favor of commuting statute labor, and although I was defeated, I still maintain that it would still be to our benefit. But I am not in favor of doing away with pathmasters and letting the commissioners spend all the money. Better than that, I say that every eligible voter pay a tax of at least $5.00 and do a day's roadwork or pay for same, and also, if they are going to assess a business man a business tax, allow him the privilege of doing a business and prohibit jobbers doing this and that, and cutting prices to beat the business man. I do not say anything against a man doing his own work to save expenses. I am game to help and show him how if it is in my power, because a man who is a saver for himself is a prosperous sort of fellow.

It is wood, wood, and more wood. They draw to Durham, they draw to Hanover, they draw to Elmwood and Chesley, but where'er they go you can hear dem bells a-ringing.

Mr. Charles Shewell had a bee drawing wood to Chesley.

Our mail man is making his round with ease these days. He might well after one week and three days of holidays.

Mr. Fred Haug is having his sleigh rebuilt by the Goldsmith Bros. They know how.

Mr. John and Miss Jessie Ledingham spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie and returned Sunday.

Miss Jessie Twamley is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Jessie Ledingham.

This week it is storms and more storms. All we have been able to do is break roads, but even at that our mail man is absent every other day or so and our teacher has been missing for over a week.

The sports of Welbeck are not in the skating list for this season but they surely are after the dancing.

Rocky Saugeen

(Our own correspondent.)

Mrs. A. Thompson and son Clarence spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Petty. Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald and son of near Darkies' Corners, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean.

We wish our new mail courier, Mr. Albert Livingstone, every success on his new job.

The young people off this line spent last Friday evening sleigh-riding, after which they gathered at the home of Mr. James Lawrence and spent a couple of hours in dancing.

The U. F. O. will hold their monthly meeting in the school on February 15.

The debate between two of the Edge Hill young people and two of the Rocky young people is to be held in the school on February 22.

Mr. James Miller is the first around here to have the radio installed in his home.

The monthly meeting of the U. F. W. D. was held at the home of Mrs. L. McLean, with a large turnout. There were a number of interesting discussions. Mrs. Lamb gave a very interesting paper on the town in Scotland where she was raised, and their methods of living, which was very interesting and much enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Murray Ritchie on March 14.

Glenroadin.

(Our own correspondent.)

We have been so snowed in the beginning of each week that we couldn't get our budget to Durham. Messrs. Hugh and Sandy Vaughan will finish hauling lumber to town the beginning of this week.

Mr. Walter Clark has bought the slabs at Glenroadin mill and is hauling them to Durham. The millyard is getting quite empty now.

Mr. Herb, Trafford sawed a big pile of wood for Mr. Gillen Boyd recently.

Mrs. William Kenny has returned home after spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. John Vessie, in Sullivan.

We are sorry to hear Mr. Graham Timmins is in such poor health and hope he will soon be in his usual good health.

Mr. Hugh Vaughan, Sr. is quite ill and under Dr. Jamieson's care.

We are glad to see Mr. Roy Braun out again and apparently none the worse of his accident. While Mr. A. Caswell was sawing for Mr. Braun, in some manner the saw flew to pieces and Mr. Braun was struck on the head with a block of wood. He was unconscious for some time. Dr. Smith put in a number of stitches.

Mr. A. Caswell is sawing for Mr. Braun and Mr. James Vaughan this week.

Mr. Tom Bell, a former Glenelg boy, has been made Chief of the Fire Department in Toronto, where he has been working for several years. Mr. Ireland is in very poor health. He lives with his daughter, Mrs. D. McKechnie.

We tender our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Donald McKechnie and family in the loss of a loving husband and father. One month ago, Mr. McKechnie, while going into his bed-room, slipped and fell. Since then he had been bedfast. Everything was done to prolong his life, but death came Tuesday. Mr. Stillars, his pastor, conducted service at the home and grave. The large concourse of neighbors and friends who followed the remains to the grave at Rocky Saugeen cemetery showed the high esteem in which Mr. McKechnie was held.

Aberdeen.

(Our own correspondent.)

Miss Mary Lamb attended the "At Home" in Stratford Normal last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Middleton and little son, Neil, have returned to Durham, after spending a couple of weeks with her brother, Mr. D. N. Clark.

Mr. Peter McQuarrie is under the doctor's care at present, but we hope to see him out soon.

We are pleased to see Miss Catherine McLean back to school again, after having been home a month on account of sickness.

Mr. Alvin Caswell is on the line this week with his buzz-saw. He was at Mr. Edwin Noble's on Monday.

Mr. Jack McDonald cut a nice pile of wood for Mr. D. N. Clark on Thursday last.

South Bentinck

(Our own correspondent.)

Mr. Thomas Corbett visited the first of the week with his mother, Mrs. Alfred Corbett.

Mrs. James Mather visited a few days recently with Mrs. William Hunter, Sr., in Egremont.

Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull of Ebenezer spent an afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnston spent an afternoon with Mr. William Grierson, Sr., recently.

Mrs. Greig of Keppel visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McLean.

Mr. Harry Burnett of Durham visited an afternoon with his daughter, Mrs. Will Derby, Jr.

A large crowd from this part took in the U.F.O. banquet held in Hampden school-house last Friday night, where a very enjoyable time was spent.

Cemented China.

After you have cemented broken china or glass together, apply adhesive tape to hold the parts in place until the glue has dried thoroughly.

Swinton Park.

(Our own correspondent.)

Our mail man was again snow-bound for two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Heard entertained a number of young people on Friday night.

Mr. R. R. Kinnell made a business trip to Owen Sound last week.

Hardy Bros. have purchased a Victrola, for amusement during the winter months.

Services here were withdrawn on Sunday on account of the storm.

Mr. Norman Young, and Mr. Marr of Brampton, visited Friday night at Mr. George Haw's.

Mrs. N. G. Wilson and Irene are spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Duncan, at Dundalk.

Mrs. George Duncan and babe, are spending the week-end with her mother, Mrs. John Ferguson.

Mr. Sterling White spent Sunday at Mr. Robert Watson's.

We have heard a great deal of the very large trees of British Columbia, but nothing to equal the 14-foot elm log which contained 1,070 cubic feet, which, according to The Dundalk Herald, was delivered in that town recently.

(Last week's news.)

Mr. Hugh McMillan, Mr. J. C. Young's and Mr. George Haw's families are at present suffering with the measles.

Mr. A. E. Haw had a very successful sale on Thursday last. His stock was in fine shape and the prices paid were high. According to the way things went, the price of farm produce has not dropped as much as a few of the farmer grouchers say.

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE
Stratford and Mount Forest

Mrs. Richardson is again able to be up, but is still very weak.

George Watson is up again after his illness, but is still confined to the house.

Miss Ruth Richardson left last Monday for Walkerville on a visit.

Miss M. Richardson left for Detroit on Monday last to join heart and hand with a life partner. Congratulations.

Mr. Fred Knox had a very successful wood bee on Friday and a dance in the evening, where a good number of young and old ones enjoyed themselves till an early hour.

The mail man was unable to make a few trips in the storm, but a certain party was not afraid to go out on a stormy, cold evening and get warmed up a few days afterward.

Mrs. D. McDonald of the 17th Concession is, we are glad to say, slightly improved.

Sorry to hear that Mr. Andy Wright is in the General Hospital suffering from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Parslow and two children left for their home in the West on Saturday last.

The roads now are in good shape, and a good number are teaming logs.

THE PIONEER IN CANADA

Thirty-two years ago the now famous "SALADA" Tea was placed on the market in metal packages. "SALADA" was the pioneer package tea in Canada. Immediately its superior flavour and purity won for it a great popularity that has been growing ever since. It is still a little different and a little better than ordinary tea. F.14:A.17
