TRADE HORSES IN HASTE REPENT AT LEISURE

Young Glenelg Lad Got the Worst of It in Horse-Swapping Duel Last Week

"Marry in haste and repent at leisure" is an old adage that still holds good, as a lot of people have found out. Like getting married, horse-trading, too, is somewhat of a chance especially if one goes into it without his eyes open. Trading horses and getting married are considerably alike, and it remained for a young lad from Glenelg to learn last week that while "all is not gold that glitters," also everything in horseflesh that looks sleek and good sometimes isn't. Horse-traders as a rule are not philanthropists, especially when trading horses, and if there were any doubts in the young Glenelg man's mind when he came into town there certainly were not when he left.

The story as it floated around to

The Chronicle office is, in brief:

The young Glenelg man, a lad of about 19 years of age, came to town on Wednesday of last week driving a horse reputed to be worth around $115. Whether or not he was looking for a trade we know not, but anyway, he traded. The beast he received in exchange for his $115 cayuse is said to have been a good-looking animal; in fact, it was a real hum-dinger. When he hitched it up, he found that the truth had not half been told. It was two hum-dingers, and then some. Anyway, he found the beast too wild for him when in harness, though peaceable enough unhitched, and made another swap with another fellow for an entirely different stamp of horse, paying, we are told, $10 to boot. After coming up town with the proceeds of the second trade, the young lad is said to have repented his action in parting with the proceeds of Exhibit "A" as it were and went back to recover the animal that was in the first place too wild for him. In other words, he thought he had made a mistake; he could handle the wild one, after all. There seemed no difficulty in negotiating deal No. 3, in which he recovered his second horse of the day by an additional paying of $5. Hitching the animal up again, it didn't take the young lad long to learn that his first conjecture was correct; the animal was too wild for him. Another good samaritan was visited and, for the paltry sum of $20, for which he gave a promissory note, the fourth deal of the day was negotiated, and the young lad, we are told, received a horse of the hall-rack variety,—that is, one that you could hang your hat on any time any place any where.

In brief, the young fellow in question, came to town with a horse worth $115, and departed with a horse worth, we are told, $15 at the outside, and, in addition, had given $35 in boot in the various transactions.

The evidence, as we have heard it, confirms us in our opinion that Barnum was much too modest when he said that there is a fool born every minute. He didn't figure high enough. It is said, too, that the horse traded in the first place has not been fully paid for, but as to that we know nothing. We do know, however, that there was some tall hustling around town for a few days afterwards by the principals and for a time it looked as though legal action to recover would be taken on the ground that the young man who was mulcted was a minor and could not legally make a deal. Possibly the last has not been heard of the fiasco.

"LYING" WILL BE THE SUBJECT AT MEETING OF MEN'S CLASS

This Popular and Sometimes Necessary Accomplishment, to be Dealt With Next Sunday.

Everyone will agree that "Lying" is a personal, social, political economic and international problem of the first importance. The fall of man was rooted in deception. War, strife, hatred, and other evils flow from the same source.

Next Sunday the Men's Class will discuss what different races and religions have to say about it; then how the Bible treats the question.

Then we will try to tell just exactly what a lie is and how it may be expressed.

This talk will be followed a week later by one on "Is a lie ever justifiable?" The fellows think there ought to be a special invitation to the man who "never told one."

ELVIDGE HAS TRY-OUT WITH O. S. JUNIORS

Local Boy May Catch Place On Fast-Travelling Sextet From Scenic City

Erben Elvidge was in Owen Sound Thursday of last week trying out with the Owen Sound Greys, and played against the crack K. & S. Toronto team in an exhibition fixture on Thursday evening in which the Owen Sound bunch wiped the ice clean with the Queen City outfit and won by a large score. Commenting on Elvidge's work, the Sun-Times of Friday says:

"Elvidge, the Durham boy, made his first appearance at right wing. He showed well during the time he was on, although not yet into the swing of the team. He carries a good right hand shot and looks likely to make his place."

This year Owen Sound's crack Junior O.H.A. team has been defeating everything that has come against them and are picked as contenders for the 1924 junior title. With Elvidge on the line-up, Durham will have more than a passing interest in the series. There's one thing about the local boy, anyway. Should he catch a place on the Owen Sound team, he will do his best at all times. He is somewhat different from a lot of athletes in that he is not so temperamental as many and, liking the game, does not have to be coaxed to get out and do his bit.

MRS. SAMUEL HENLEY DIED AT SUDBURY

Passed Away At Residence of Son On 8th Inst.—Visited Here On Several Occasions.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Samuel Henley, who passed away at the home of her son in Sudbury on the 8th of February at the age of 69 years.

The deceased was never a resident here, but on one or two occasions visited her husband, who has been engaged as baker in local shops at different times for the past twelve or fifteen years.

About three months ago Mr. Henley left town after spending a couple of years in E. A. Rowe's bakery. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him, but being of a quiet and reserved disposition he made but few intimate acquaintances. These and all others who knew him will sympathize with him in his bereavement.

The funeral was held Monday from William Speers' Chapel, 2926 Dundas street, Toronto, at 3:30 p.m. and interment was made in Park Lawn cemetery.

WAS SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OLD ON SATURDAY LAST

Mrs. William Falkingham's Birthday Fittingly Celebrated by Members of the Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brigham of Louise were in town over the weekend to visit their daughter, Mrs. Gordon Fisher and Mrs. Brigham's mother, Mrs. William Falkingham, who has been quite ill for the past couple of months.

Mrs. Falkingham was 75 years of age on Saturday last and the event was commemorated by a meeting of members of the family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Brigham, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roseborough, Mr. and Mrs. David Adlam, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey and daughter Florence, Mr. William P. Bailey and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Falkingham, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fisher and daughter Pearl, Florence Bailey and Pearl Fisher are great-granddaughters of Mrs. Falkingham.

A pleasant evening was spent and many kindly tokens of affection were presented to the aged lady.

NEW MAIL COURIER STARTED ON DURHAM, NO. 1

Mr. Albert Livingstone Has Purchased Route From Mrs. C. Caldwell.

Last week Mr. Albert Livingstone took over the mail route on Durham No. 1, formerly held by the late Mr. Charles Caldwell. Mr. Livingstone, so far, is well satisfied with the route, and will make a good man from the patrons' standpoint. During the winter months he will run it with horse and cutter, but in the summer will do it with his car.

DURHAM CLUB MEETS FEB. 13.

The Durham Club of Toronto will meet Monday evening, February 13, 1924, at the Queen Mary Tea Rooms, 32 King street, West, Toronto.

MRS. PANKHURST COMING HERE MARCH SIXTH

Noted English Suffragette to Address Durham Audience On Popular Subject.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Philip Lawrence on Thursday afternoon with a good attendance.

The chief item of business was the arrangements for the March meeting, which usually is of a social character. This year it was decided to secure Mrs. Pankhurst for an address on the evening of March 6.

A committee was appointed to petition the Town Council to enforce the laws re keeping children off the street after 9 o'clock p.m., and the sale of cigarettes to minors.

A donation was voted the Public School Board for improvements.

Business finished, Rev. J. H. Wheeler was called upon and gave an interesting address on "The Growth and Development of the English Language," showing how the British people had enriched their language from every conquest of their country, every race with which they came in contact, every invention in science, and in fact every event in their history.

The choir gave a couple of good selections from Southern melodies.

Miss A. Weir gave an instructive paper on "Hindrances to Physical Growth." Quoting from several medical authorities, she summed up the chief hindrances as: improper food, insufficient sleep or exercise, adenoids, diseased tonsils, serious illness and, last but not least, cigarettes.

The duet by Mesdames McCrae and Knechtel was a number everyone enjoyed.

After the singing of the National Anthem, Mrs. Lawrence served a dainty lunch.

MANY GREY MASONS ATTEND TORONTO LODGE

Visitors Present From Lodges in All Sections of the County.

Craftsmen from lodges in Durham, Meaford, Owen Sound, Flesherton, Clarksburg and Markdale were in Toronto last Friday night for the Grey County and District Deputy Night at the Grey Masonic Lodge in the Yonge street Temple. With the visitors was W. N. Duff of Barrie, District Deputy Grand Master of Georgian Bay District, who has jurisdiction in Grey County. It was the occasion of the official visit of R.W. Bro. C. G. Anderson, in his annual inspection of the workings of Grey Lodge.

Degree work was exemplified with full musical ritual in a way to win unstinted praise from the District Deputy, who complimented the Worshipful Master and his officers. Following the events in the lodge room there was a banquet at which addresses were made by the visitors, the District Deputy and other Grand Lodge officials. W. Bros. Thomas Tennant of Oakwood Lodge, and C. Stokoe, Alpha Lodge, Toronto, replied for the brethren who accompanied them.

R. W. Bros. E. D. McClocklin of Durham, in Grey District, and J. D. Hammill of Meaford, in Georgian District, replied to the toast to the "Visiting Brethren" and Hon. Dr. Jamieson replied to the toast to "The County of Grey."

The visitors from Grey County included the following: R. W. Bros. J. D. Hammill, A. S. Thurston, and J. Hudson, Meaford; E. D. McClocklin, Hon. Dr. Jamieson, Dr. C. E. Wolfe, J. H. Parke and C. C. Ramage, Durham; D. D. Mercer and R. A. Spencer, Dundalk; J. C. McEwen, J. H. Adolphe, N. H. Wilson, A. McGillivray, H. C. Brown and J. A. Wood, Owen Sound; T. S. Reburn, Markdale; A. N. Clendenan, C. J. Gibson and T. A. Lowe, Clarksburg; Frank Thurston, Flesherton; A. Ronald and W. F. Ronald, Barrie.

RECORD LOAD OF LOGS CAME TO TOWN SATURDAY

Mr. William Vessie of the Rocky brought 1,185 feet of logs to the yard of the Durham Furniture Company here last Saturday. This, we are told is the largest load of logs ever brought in by one team, and in doing it, Mr. Vessie breaks the record made by himself some years ago.

The roads on Saturday, too, were not in the best of shape for heavy hauling, though in fair condition for light loads.

GRAINGER-NEWTON CONCERT WAS GOOD

Good Program Listened To In Hall On Tuesday Evening.

The concert in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Methodist Ladies' Aid was an enjoyable affair and deserving a much larger house than turned out to hear it. The hall, instead of being filled to capacity as it should have been, was only about half filled and it is scarcely probable that the Aid will need much time to count the profits from the venture. However, it was a bad week for counter attractions, and the hockey match last night doubtless deterred many from going to the concert who otherwise would have done so.

As an entertainer, Miss Pearl Newton kept her audience in a continual round of laughter in her lighter numbers, and also showed considerable ability in her heavier offerings.

Mrs. Grainger as a singer, too, was good, and captivated her audience from her first number. She possesses a good voice, a pleasing manner on the stage, and is becoming one of Durham's popular entertainers. This is her second appearance on a local platform.

Miss McCrae, accompanist, proved herself a gifted pianist and contributed in no small manner to the success of the entertainment.

NORMANBY RESIDENT DIED LAST WEEK

Mrs. Joseph Blyth Died February 3, and Was Buried Wednesday In Maplewood Cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Joseph Blyth of Normanby on Sunday, February 3, came as a sudden shock to her many friends and relatives in the vicinity of Durham and Orchard. Though ailing for some time, Mrs. Blyth was not thought to be in such a serious condition, and her sudden death on Sunday evening from heart failure was not anticipated.

Mrs. Blyth was a daughter of Mrs. M. Armstrong and the late Mr. E. Armstrong of Bentinck, near Hutton Hill. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Owens or Normanby, near Mount Forest. In 1887 she was married to her now sorrowing husband, Mr. Joseph Blyth, and has spent the greater part of her life in the vicinity of her native township. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn their loss, four daughters: Jennie, Margaret and Mrs. Pollard, all of Brantford, and Ena (Mrs.) Owens, at whose home she died.

Besides her aged mother, Mrs. Margaret Armstrong of Hutton Hill, she leaves five sisters: Mrs. Robert Cowan and Mrs. J. Purvis, both of Galt; Mrs. A. Kay, Detroit; Mrs. Thompson, High River, Alberta, and Mrs. Thomas Mountain, of Bentinck. Mrs. James Haliday, who died five years ago, was also a sister. Mrs. Blyth also leaves three brothers: Alex., of Brimley, Mich.; John, of Gravenhurst, and Elijah, of Bentinck, near Hutton Hill. William R. Armstrong, another brother, was killed in 1917 at the battle of Lens, France.

Interment was made last Wednesday afternoon in Maplewood cemetery. Those from a distance in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Cowan and Mrs. Purvis of Galt; the Messrs. Charles and Robert Blyth, Marden, and Mr. J. McDonald of Minto.

DRY LEADER GOES TO PRISON ON FORGERY CHARGE

W. H. Anderson Sentenced to Two Years In Sing Sing.

In the criminal branch of the Supreme Court, New York, William H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League and leader of the dry forces in New York State, was sentenced last Friday by Justice Arthur S. Tompkins to from one to two years in Sing Sing prison on a charge of forgery in the third degree of which he was convicted two weeks ago.

PROF. CURR WILL PREACH SUNDAY IN BAPTIST CHURCH

The preacher in the Baptist church next Sunday will be Prof. Curr, M.A., B.Litt., B.D., of McMaster University, Toronto. Professor Curr is widely known for his literary attainments and the Baptist congregation here is lucky in getting him for a supply.

DURHAM WON FIRST FROM LISTOWEL TEAM

Local Northern Leaguers Go To Listowel Friday With Two-Goal Lead.

Durham's bunch of juniors (or mostly juniors) handed the citizens a real disappointment last night at the local arena when they romped home in front of a 6-4 score with the Listowel team, and, incidentally kept the much-touted southern outfit up in the air for the biggest portion of the three periods. Listowel scored the only goal in the first period, but this was of a rather fluky nature, and was accounted for, we think, by the fact that the local kids were a little nervous at the face-off. In the second period, however, they dug after them like a nest of hornets all evening, breaking up their combinations time after time, and back-checking like fiends till the gong rang. In this period Durham scored 5 goals and Listowel 1, making the tally over two-thirds of the route 5 to 2, with Durham leading.

The third period, though not so spectacular as the first, was the hardest-fought of the three and resulted in Listowel getting 2 goals and Durham 1, closing the game with a score of 6 to 4.

The Durhams, at least the majority of them, are small and young, and eligible for junior company for a couple of years yet, and the showing they made against their heavier and more experienced opponents is most gratifying to their supporters here.

Stan. Burns of Palmerston was an impartial referee and kept the game well in hand.

The lineup:—Listowel—Goal, Akins; defense, Kelly and Rocher; centre, Creighton; wings, Kemp and vonZuben; subs., McIntyre and Friz.

Durham—Goal, McDonald; defense, M. Saunders and Vollett; centre, McGillivray; wings, Lauder and Elvidge; spares, Morlock and Buschlen.

Penalties—Listowel 4, Durham 3. Referee—S. Burns, Palmerston.

SLEIGH TRIP IN VAIN TO SAVE BOY'S LIFE

Cousin of Mrs. R. J. Moorhead Died At Lion's Head Last Week.

Mrs. R. J. Moorhead and son, Graydon, were in Lion's Head last week attending the funeral of her cousin, Stanley Bruin, who was taken ill with appendicitis, but, on account of the blocked roads, died as the result of the impossibility of getting through to have the operation performed.

The snow-blocked roads made it impossible for Dr. Murray to get to Wiarton by train so that he could proceed to Lion's Head. This made it necessary to take the boy to Wiarton on a bed on a sleigh. Men were notified along the line to break the roads and the trip was made in three hours. When Dr. Murray arrived at Wiarton he saw it was too late for an operation, and half an hour later he passed away. He was in his 16th year.

REV. MR. PETERS RECEIVED UNANIMOUS CALL TO REMAIN

Methodist Board Requests Him to Remain For Second Year.

At the meeting of the Official Board of the Methodist church held on Thursday evening last, a unanimous call was given the pastor, Rev. J. E. Peters, to return for the coming conference year. Mr. Peters thanked the Board and said it would give him much pleasure to accept the invitation, subject to the approval of the Stationing Committee.

HARDING'S HARDWARE WINDOW BLOWN IN BY THE WIND

Local Hardware Store Suffers Loss When Plate Glass Window Breaks.

Tuesday morning of last week about six o'clock, the big plate glass window in Harding's Hardware went in with a crash and by the time the store was opened around eight o'clock, a considerable quantity of snow had blown in but fortunately did no damage.

The window, which was broken a month or so ago when someone apparently slipped on the sidewalk and put their shoulder through it, was a big one and will take quite a lot to replace. In the meantime, the north front of the store has been boarded up awaiting the arrival of a new glass.

JAMES W. JOHNSON DIED MONDAY IN SARNIA

Former Highly Respected Resident of Bentinck Was Buried In Durham Cemetery Yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Johnson, an esteemed resident of this vicinity for about 45 years, died on Monday in the General Hospital at Sarnia, where he had been under treatment for nineteen days before the time of his death. The cause of death is not definitely known to us, but from what we learn it was of the nature of dropsy which affected his heart.

The deceased was born in the County of Victoria, near Lindsay, on the 30th of June, 1851. After growing to manhood, at 25 years of age he came with his parents to the Township of Bentinck and settled on the Haskin farm, now owned by Mr. Frank Murdock. Subsequently he moved to the farm now owned by Mr. Herb. Hopkins. Later he spent a year at Letter Breen, in Normanby, near Mount Forest. About 32 years ago he returned to Bentinck and lived for a time on the McLarty farm, where he remained till he purchased the farm on which Mr. Murray Ritchie is now living. After selling this place to Mr. A. A. Catton about ten or twelve years ago, he bought the Jackson farm north of town and remained there till three years ago when he went to Sarnia to live with his son, Thomas, who was in business there at that time.

On the 26th of February, 1889, he married Melissa Maycock, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Maycock. To them was born one son, Thomas, now in the real estate business in the city of Detroit. Mrs. Johnson died here six years ago last December.

Three or four years ago the deceased had a foot injured by a horse stepping on it. He thought little of it for a time, but it soon became so painful that he was taken to the Owen Sound hospital for treatment and later to Walkerton, where amputation above the knee was deemed necessary, as gangrene had developed. Since then he had been living with his son in Sarnia and enjoying good health. About a month before his death he took ill again and was sent to the hospital.

The remains were brought here Tuesday night and interment was made in Durham cemetery yesterday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, where a fitting sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Smith. The Independent Order of Foresters, of which the deceased was a member, took part in the obsequies. An only sister, Mrs. John Lunney of Mildred, Sask., died three years ago.

Mr. Johnston was a pronounced Conservative in politics and a Presbyterian in religion. The writer has known him for years and always found him honorable and upright in his dealings.

The remains were accompanied here from Sarnia by his son, Thomas, and wife, and a nephew, Mr. Edwin Lunney of Mildred, Sask., who is now east and spending a few days with relatives and friends here.

WATCH-REPAIRING SHOP CLOSED ON MONDAY

The watch- and jewelry-repairing shop of Mr. C. C. Douglas, which has been running for the past few months in the Middaugh House Block was closed Saturday night. We have no information as to why, but understand Mr. Douglas is opening up a repair shop at Kitchener, for where he left on Monday.
