HYMENEAL

MIDDLEBRO'-BARR

A wedding of much interest to residents of Durham, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Scott Barr, Milverton, on Thursday, May 29, when their daughter, Mary Marguerite, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles E. Middlebro' of Durham, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Middlebro' of Owen Sound.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a charming gown of gray brocade crepe and a gray hat with touches of color. She carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The groom, who was given in marriage by his father, wore a handsome gown of black silk crepe. The luncheon table was adorned with sweet peas and the following girl friends of the bride served the guests: Miss Alice McLaughlan of Stratford, and Miss M. Philips of Mitchell.

Lately Mr. and Mrs. Middlebro' left for Durham, where they will make their future home. The bride is traveling in a blue silk crepe costume and hat to match. Amongst those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Middlebro' and Master Goldard of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stenford of Toronto, the latter the bride's aunt, Miss Hamilton of Toronto and Miss Alice McLaughlan of Stratford.

The Chronicle extends a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Middlebro', who have already taken up residence on Queen street, with a hope that their journey over the matrimonial sea may be a happy and prosperous one.

PUTNAM-CALDWELL

A quiet marriage was solemnized at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. Caldwell, of Mill street, when her second daughter, Evadna Belle, was united in marriage to Mr. Roalsten C. Putnam of Mount Forest. At the appointed hour the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her uncle, Mr. F. T. Paul of Meaford, by whom she was given in marriage and the ceremony was performed by her pastor, Rev. W. H. Smith of the Presbyterian church.

The bride, who has lived all her life in Durham, was one of the town's popular young ladies and will be missed by a large circle of friends and associates. She was a valued member of the Presbyterian choir, their appreciation being shown in a gift of a handsome silver tea service. The groom's gift was a cabinet of Community plate. The many other beautiful and costly gifts from town acquaintances and friends tell better than words the esteem in which she was held.

The Chronicle joins the many friends of bride and groom in wishing them many years of happiness and prosperity.

LOCAL HOSPITAL TAXED TO FULL CAPACITY AT PRESENT. Patients All Reported Doing Well.—Several Minor Operations.

The accommodation of the Red Cross Hospital is being severely taxed these days, but in a few days more it is anticipated everything will be back to normal again.

The inmates, generally, are in for minor ailments, some for minor operations. Among those admitted during the past week were a son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lachie McLean of the Rocky, L. A. and Catherine, who underwent operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids.

Mr. J. A. Brown was taken to the hospital a few days ago suffering from an abscess on his back caused from an injury received while at work at the Durham Stone & Sand Company's plant. He underwent an operation the other day and it is expected he will be around again in the course of a couple of weeks or so. All the other patients of the hospital are in normal condition, with no one seriously ill.

MRS. LAWRENCE GOT EIGHT YEARS IN PEN

Swooned When Sentence Was Passed But His Honor, Judge Klein Expressed No Sympathy for Accused.

Eight years in the Kingston penitentiary was the sentence meted out by His Honor Judge Klein at Walkerton on Monday morning to Mrs. Geo. Lawrence of Warton, who was convicted at the county court sitting held last week on three counts of having performed illegal operations contrary to the criminal code.

In giving sentence Judge Klein told Mrs. Lawrence that she had been a menace to the community and that she should be punished commensurate with the seriousness of her crime.

Previous to the passing of sentence Mr. H. G. Tucker of Owen Sound, the counsel for the accused, made a strong plea for leniency, while Mr. Holmes of Wingham, Crown prosecutor, demanded that she receive the sentence due for such offenses as she had committed. Mrs. Lawrence, when sentence was passed, uttered the words, "My God," and swooned and had to be carried out of the court room.

His Honor in summing up the case made it clear that he was sympathetic for the accused in the trouble in which she found herself. It was quite evident to him that she was a menace to the community in which she lived and society must be protected from such as she. He felt that the seriousness of her crime merited a severe sentence, one that would make others think in the future before they committed such acts. He thereupon sentenced the accused to eight years in the Kingston penitentiary.

TO A FUR SCARF

The trap jaws clanked and held him fast; None marked his fright; none heard his cries. His struggles ceased; he lay at last With wide, uncomprehending eyes. And watched the sky grow dark above, And watched the sunset burn to gray And quaked in anguish while he strove To gnaw the prisoned leg away.

Then day came rosy from the east, But still those steel jaws kept their hold. And no one watched the prisoned beast But fear and hunger, thirst and cold. Oppressed by pain, his dread grew numb; Fright no more stirred his flagging breath. He longed in vain to see him come, The awful biped, bringing death. The day flapped past on heavy wing, He saw the shadows longer grow. A hopeless, wrecked and dying thing Encircled by the trampled snow. Then through the gloom that night came one Who set the timid spirit free. "I know thy anguish, little son, So once men trapped and tortured Me." F.F.V.

MANANA This is a Spanish word pronounced "manyana," languidly and leisurely, and is the most important day in a lazy man's life. Manana means tomorrow. It is the watchword of the weary, the slogan of the slumberer. Manana serves the sluggard instead of "pep" It takes the place of the "get up and git" of the hustler. It is the day when the ne'er-do-well gets a job and the miser sends his wife to Palm Beach. It is the day when the little boy wipes his feet before coming into the house and the little girl asks to wipe the dishes. Manana is the day when we all rush around to pay our bills. And further, there is no one who can fully appreciate the meaning of the word who has not lived in some of the old Spanish cities, where everybody is going to do a certain kind of work "manana."

Easiest Way "The bootleggers are killing their own game," said Wm. J. Bryan recently. "More than anyone else the bootleggers are leading the country toward real Prohibition. This is partly due to the exorbitant prices they charge, and partly on account of the virulent poisons they sell. The trend of the times is summed up in the case of the darkey woman who had called in a doctor to attend her husband, who was down with the flu. "What's I gwine gib him?" asked the woman. "Whiskey," was the doctor's reply. When the doctor had named the price per quart of good whiskey the wife remarked: "I can bury him cheaper den dat."

HOW'S THIS ONE? Dr. Madison C. Peters, in one of his lectures, adverted to the manners and customs of that wealthy and proud section of the community that is grouped under the generic name of society. Too often society is struck a telling blow by such an answer as an elderly country squire once made to an inquisitive young man. Here Dr. Peters turned to the blackboard behind him and scrawled upon it four immense letters—R. S. V. P. "A young man," he resumed, "asked the country squire what those letters meant at the foot of an invitation. The squire, with a little chuckle, answered: "They mean Rush in, Shake hands, Victual up, and Put."

FREED OF RHEUMATISM BY FRUIT TREATMENT.

"Be good enough to publish for the information of Rheumatism sufferers how 'Fruit-a-tives' relieved my Rheumatism which had at least five years' standing. 'The trouble was in my right hip and shoulder; the pain almost unendurable. This kept up until I started to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. After a continuous treatment for about six months, I am now in first-class condition. This, I attribute to my persistent use of 'Fruit-a-tives'. This is the letter which Mr. James Dobson of Bronte, Ont., wrote after trying the wonderful Fruit Treatment—'Fruit-a-tives'—which consists of intensified fruit juices combined with tonics. If you suffer with Rheumatism, 'Fruit-a-tives' will make you well and keep you well. 50c. and 50c. a box—at dealers or sent by 'Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

The Boy Scouts' Column

EDITED BY GREEN PLUME

Mount Forest 10, Durham 7.

The Durham Troop took their way to Mount Forest on Thursday afternoon of this week, where they took a game of baseball. Unfortunately, they came out on the short end of the stick, losing 10-7. However, the scouts are not discouraged and hope to have the Mount Forest Troop back to Durham in the near future for the return game, when it is expected the tables will be turned.

"Trayed." The Scoutmaster and his wife were the guests of the Troop and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clarke at a pleasant little party on Monday evening of this week. The Troop took the opportunity of presenting the S.M. with a very fine serving tray. The address was read by Patrol Leader Ted Clark and the presentation was made by Leonard Vollett. Some very nice things were said about the Scoutmaster, which were highly appreciated, and his wife. The balance of the evening was spent in Scout songs and games. Refreshments were served toward the close of the evening and, needless to say, were thoroughly enjoyed.

Camp. A number of the parents and boys still seem to be uncertain as to the details of the annual camp which is to be held this year at White Cloud Island. The camp opens on the 5th of July, and closes on the 19th. The Scoutmaster will be unable to stay for the full two weeks, but as many of the Scouts as wish can remain till the close.

White Cloud Island is situated in Colpoys' Bay, about twenty miles from Owen Sound, and a short distance from Warton. The Owen Sound District Association has a permanent camp site on the island, with cook-house and dining shack. This year they hope to put in a pump so that it will not be necessary to carry water from the bay.

The camp is in charge of Col. McIntyre, District Commissioner, and senior Scoutmasters. The program is varied and Scouts are busy from Reveille till Lights Out. It provides a splendid outing for the boys, and it is hoped that there will be in the neighborhood of one hundred Scouts in camp this year.

The Scoutmaster is in possession of application forms, and any of the fellows who contemplate going are urged to sign up at once. One week at the camp costs $6.00, and two weeks $10.00. This pays for the food alone. The tents, ground sheets and other incidentals, are supplied by the Association. The local Association volunteer cars to transport the Scouts from Durham to Owen Sound, from where it is expected the boys will be taken in boats.

Keep Them Clean. Never put any more coats on shoes with mud on them; likewise if they are dusty, clean them before they go into the closet.

No woman can really love the kind of man who says her new hat is "perfectly darling."

The Thoroughbred Stallion OLD KOENIG (1306)
