An Easy Way to Get Rid of Corns

NATURE never intended that we should be afflicted with corns, but when we abuse our feet Nature enters a protest. Corns are the result of friction caused by ill-fitting shoes and run-down heels, and these conditions should be corrected. Friction in the shoes can be materially lessened by dusting in Nyal Eas'em—an antiseptic, soothing powder which prevents "binding" between stockings and shoes. Eas'em keeps the feet cool and comfortable, and soothes irritation, but when corns are present they must be gotten rid of. For this purpose Nyal Corn Remover is ideal. A few applications deaden the pain, and after four or five days soak the feet in warm water when the corn can be lifted out completely. Why suffer?

Nyal Corn Remover and Eas'em are sold for twenty-five cents each.

KEEPING A DATE

Jim Brown's a stiff, I'd like to punch his nose.
I met him yesterday on the street, All dressed up in a brand new suit of clothes.
So to christen them, I suggested he ought to treat.
"Sure! that's all right, I would if I had the time.
But I must be on my way and do some work.
I'm as busy as a guy that works down in a mine
And business is a thing a man can't shirk.
But seeing you are an old and valued friend
I'll tell you where and how to get some skee.
You go out here until the road it bends.
Then travel west to highway twenty-three.
Turn to your right, climb the Devil's Hill.
Then go south and you'll be on the River road.
By following that you'll come to the old red mill.
Go in the gate and you'll be looking at my abode.
Now come tomorrow morning and come for sure!
Because it's often I give whiskey to the poor.
Well, when a guy says come and get some skee.
A man's a sucker if he doesn't go. I followed his directions to a T.
And in my pockets I had lots of dough.
You never know what happens in a block.
Some freind might offer you, for
