Friendships are divine, and therefore the purest characters are formed by the mingling with friends of high ideals and pure motives. As a magnet draws, so will a noble character draw out the best in that of a friend. In speaking of contentment, she emphasized the truth that real happiness steals out of the heart of those ever seeking the joy of others -service then is the key to contentment. After a community song the delegates were taken to lunch to meet in the afternoon session at two o'clock. In the afternoon there were three outstanding lectures, each a power in its own specific way. After Miss Campbell, of Toronto, Provincial Nurse, explained the methods used in her work regarding the Health Problem throughout Grey county. Mrs. Tuck of Holstein was called upon to address the convention on "Some Foundation Stones." She spoke of the many courses available to the girl to fit her for Womanhood, and later for Motherhood. Courses in dietetics, in sewing, the homenursing, in domestic science all give to the girl a rock of proficiency with which to tackle the big problem of the home. Interest in our own child will lead a mother to the broader community interests for other children, their sports, their shelter, their clubs, etc.
