CO-OPERATIVE SELLING

What Ontario May Learn From California Fruit Growers

An Immense Range of Business—The Market Still Growing—Organized Effort Pays the Producer—Legume Inoculation—The New O. A. C. No. 144 Oat.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

The California Fruit Growers' Exchange shipped 17,857,417 boxes of oranges, lemons and grapefruit in 45,258 cars to points outside California; increased its proportion of all citrus fruit grown in the state from 68.7 to 75.8 per cent.; returned $55,223,450 to its members; lost through failure of customers only $6,926,791; did all this business at a cost of 1.51 per cent. of the delivered value and, including advertising, 2.48 per cent. Such is the record for its last financial year of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, whose products are best known to Canadian consumers by the brand "Sun-kist."

An Immense Range of Business. The California Fruit Growers' Exchange is the oldest and largest of the Co-operative type in the world. In the last twenty years it has returned to its members $546,000,000 from the sale of their products. It is a federation of 298 local associations with 11,000 members. The locals each have their own packing houses and are fully responsible, financially and otherwise, for their own local activities. They are grouped into 21 district exchanges. Each district exchange has one director on the board of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, which owns the brand "Sun-kist" and acts as the Central Selling Agency for all the fruit. It has business connections with 3,500 wholesale grocers, who serve 400,000 retailers, who in turn serve 113,000,000 consumers in Canada and the United States.

The Market is Still Growing. The market demand for its products is being constantly increased by the Exchange. Twenty-five years ago the orange growers of the State were faced with what they thought was over-production. Since then production has quadrupled and the crop is still consumed. Judicious advertising and merchandising methods have kept demand equal to or ahead of supply. A levy of four cents a box on oranges and 6 1/2 cents a box on lemons pays for it all. Advertising and dealers' service work is directed chiefly to the retailer and consumer. In any cross-road village in Ontario, where you could not buy an Ontario apple, you will find oranges constantly displayed according to directions worked out by those wide-awake growers in Southern California.

Lower Freight Rates Secure. Last year an arrangement was made with the railways by which, through the use of larger cars and quantity shipments, a lower freight rate was secured on oranges. The reduction will effect a saving of $900,000 a year to the orange growers of the State. This works out to 14 cents a box. The total cost of the organization's services, exclusive of advertising, is 6.36 cents per box or less than half the amount of the reduction.

Organized Effort Pays the Producer. The oldest and best Co-operative Marketing Association of California, after a quarter of a century of successful experience, is still demonstrating that the farmers' marketing problems can only be solved through organized marketing effort by the farmers themselves.—R. D. Colquhette, Professor of Marketing, O. A. College, Guelph.

Legume Inoculation. The popularity of the Bacteriology Department of the Ontario Agricultural College is attested by the following statements: During 1923 a total of 4,327 cultures of legume bacteria for seed inoculation were prepared and sent out. Of this number alfalfa was most frequently asked for, with 1,800; Red clover, 836; sweet clover, 652; peas, 524; alsike, 143; soy beans, 85; beans, 71; sweet pea, 39; vetch, 31; white clover, 1. The creamerymen and the cheesemakers asked for and were supplied with 147 lactate starters, and 63 Bui-garicum cultures.

The multiplying influence of the various bacteria sent from the Bacteriological Department during the year had a very noticeable influence on legumes of the fields and the finished dairy products of the factories.

Five slices pineapple cut up. 1/2 pound white grapes (canned can be used). Mix well—cover—let stand in ice box all night. About one-half hour before serving add another bottle cream (whipped) also nuts and cherries. Serves eight.

Easy Process for Potatoes

If you are in a hurry when having mashed potatoes—pick small potatoes—wash them—cook with their skins on. When done press through a potato ricer. This way the skins cling to the top of the ricer and may easily be removed. It is also economical, as the smallest potatoes can be used up in this way. A great time saver.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

How To Remove Stains Medicine Stains—Soak in alcohol. Tea and Coffee Stains—Pour boiling water over stains. Milk and Cream Stains—Use cold water. Grass Stains—Are removed with ammonia and water. Ink Stains—Are removed by soaking in sour milk or lemon juice. Paint Stains—Are removed by turpentine. Scorch—Is removed by sunlight.
